MUSICAL NIGHTS AT FAIR PLANNED

Entries From Girls and Boys Far Greater Than Expected.

Hobby Fair musical nights will be held Friday and Saturday. There is a treat in store for those present at the contests. The entries are far greater than expected, and include violin and piano solos, church and school choirs, vocal solos and piano duets. The program each evening will be suitably varied to make the tests an enjoyable feature. All competitors will be notified by postcard when they will appear, and the postcard will be their entry ticket. The management requests that all competitors be ready at the platform when called upon or they are liable to be disqualified. Judges will be selected from London musicians. No appeals will be allowed against their decisions. No teachers will be judging the work of pupils, states the management.
