MISREPRESENTATION IS the most fatal mistake in business. If a man advertises cheap money in large amounts it should be ready af ealt to prevent disappointment to applicants. Borrowers, like most other people, don't like to be humburged, and hence their disgust at being deceived by sham ad wertisements. Deception of this kind never had any attraction for us, and it is now too late in life to stoop to it. We can refer to gentlemen who have borrowed private money through us varying from $10,000 at $50,000 at 5\(^1\) and 5\(^1\) per cent. On Toronto property. R. J. GRIFFITH & CO.,
