That's What He Said

We have just received letters from two English experts, from which the following quotations are taken:

"We cannot conceive how Canadian 'Cyclists, if they consider themselves competent judges, can prefer American-made machines to those made at Humber Co.'s Beeston Works."

"There's no question that the Humber 'Cycles are the best produced."

Now, don't you think it's worth your while to come and see its points of merit?

St. Michael's College promises one of the strongest nines this season ever seen on the old historic diamond in St. Marystreet. At the annual meeting a good set of officers was selected, with Mr. McDermott as secretary. He will arrange a game with the Torontos for one of their off-days on their first sojourn at home.

'Varsity will be in the field as early as usual, and will likely confine themselves to a strictly student nine. They have a plethora of talent to choose from, including Campbell, Hamilton, Somers, etc., of last season's nine, and any number of freshmen who played last summer in Ontario leagues.

Lucas' Englishmen in the West Indies—Negroes at Play.

Mr. R. S. Lucas' team of English cricketers on Feb. 26 at St. Lucia concluded a match against a team representative of the West Indies. Each side played 12 men. The ground on which the match took place was an excellent one, and its situation an extremely picturesque one, an amphitheatre of hills surrounding the locality. In spite of the showery weather, there was a large attendance of spectators. The wicket was in good condition.

The home team, six of whom were negroes, went in first and, batting in good style, compiled 94. Their bowling and fielding were also very good, and they succeeded in getting all the Englishmen out for 148, to which Bush contributed 42, in their second innings St. Lucia again made 94. Evelyn contributing 27. Davenport took nine wickets. Ultimately the Englishmen won by 10 wickets.

At St. Vincent on the following Tuesday the English cricketers played a match against a team representing St. Vincent. The weather was fine, if hot, and the attendance numbered fully 5000. The visitors, who were surprised to find the pitch composed of gravel, lost the toss and were sent in first, Ill at ease on the novel wicket and incommoded by the strong glare of the sun, they made but an indifferent stand against the colonial bowling, which was very good. Mr. Lucas, 22, alone obtained double figures, and the innings closed for 53. St. Vincent, whose team included seven negroes, then went in, and when stumps were drawn had compiled 139 for the loss of nine wickets. Mr. Holder contributing 32. The match thus ended in a victory for St. Vincent by a wicket and 76 runs. The result was received with great enthusiasm.

Dougherty, the Strafford crack; Moxie Murphy, the star of last year's Newmarket Talagoos, and Jimmy Macdonald, said to be the best second home player in Toronto, will be members of the prospective twelve. EASTERN RACING RUMORS.

Gossip, Results and Entries at Alexander Island—Dufferin Park's Matinee To-Day.

Alexander Island, March 12,—The attendance to-day was large, as the regulars were reinforced by the arrival of a number of bookmakers, horse owners and talent from New York last night. The announcement that six races will be run beginning with Thursday, and the fact that St. Asaph will open on Monday, are largely responsible for the increase in the attendance, which, it is expected, will double the number of bookmakers. To-day's card was a very poor one, and the track was still heavy.

Information has been received to the effect that President Coolihan of the Baltimore Jockey Club and a number of Washington men have formed a syndicate and leased the Arlington track for a term of five years. It is their intention to hold a meeting next winter in Maryland, somewhere in the vicinity of the Arlington, and in order to have no opposition have leased the Arlington track. When the Legislature meets next winter there will be a bill introduced that will interfere with the racing here, and that is what Coolihan is figuring, with the hope also that no bill will be passed in Maryland that will prohibit the racing there.

It is said that J. B. Collins of Maspeth fame, acting for the owner of a prominent Washington hotel, has secured an interest in Bennings track and that in event of a favorable decision in Bookmaker Miller's case, a meeting will be begun at once. Summaries:

BLOODY RIOT IN NEW ORLEANS

NEGROES SHOT DOWN BY A MOB OF WHITES.

As the Men Went to Work in the Morning the Mob Opened Fire From Behind Cars and Piles of Freight—Five Killed and Several Wounded.

New Orleans, March 12. — Another bloody riot occurred along the levee this morning. Three men were killed outright, while a number were wounded.

The killing was done by a mob of white men, numbering about 200, who were armed with pistols and Winchesters. The negroes were about to begin work on the steamer Engineer lying at that point, when the white men approached from all directions. All were armed and many took positions behind box cars and poured volley upon volley into the negroes. The negroes were given no quarter, and were shot down like dogs, several innocent persons also suffering. Among those killed was Jules Clice Carabee, a shoemaker, who happened to be in the vicinity. James Bane, the purser of the Engineer, was standing on the levee near his ship when the attack was made, and he received four wounds, three in the head and another in the arm. He was fired upon by several men, who aimed over the heads of three policemen, who were kneeling behind some freight just on the edge of the wharf. His wounds may prove fatal.

The Shooting Pre-Arranged.

There was a dense fog prevailing, and this afforded the whites an excellent chance to do their bloody work. At the time there were only six policemen on the scene, and there were no arrests made, as the police were as badly frightened as the negroes. The rioters were composed of two parties. Corporal Devanney, who was in charge of the handful of policemen, ordered the mob to disperse, but no attention was paid to him, and the mob grew larger every minute. Suddenly a shot was fired, this had a startling effect on the men. The first report was followed by five or six shots, and then the firing became general.

The smoke and the fog combined made the scene almost as dark as night. The negroes were on board the ship, and had just raised the tarpaulin off hatch No. 2 when the attack was made. They were taken completely by surprise, and their cries were pitiful. Many sought refuge aboard the ship, while some ran down the wharf and made their escape. One negro, it is stated, jumped under the wharf. It is impossible to estimate the number of shots fired, but it is said that there were about 200. After the shooting the men hurried as fast as they had come. The mob fired recklessly on all sides, not caring whom they shot. After the departure of the rioters a large number of police cleared the wharf of the large crowds which had gathered.

It was known that many men had been wounded and several killed, and a search was made for these persons by the police and others. Carabee was found on the Banquette, blood was gushing from a terrible wound in the head and he was dead. No one seemed to know how or where he was shot. Sergeant Hevron had the bodies of two negroes sent to the Morgue in the patrol wagon. One was found on the levee dead, lying in a pool of blood, which came from a large wound in his head. The negro was running from the scene of the shooting. The other body was found some distance away from the first. The man had crawled under an elevated tank and three died.

Not Given a Chance for Life.

Purser Bane was not given a chance for his life. He was on the wharf attending to business, when the white men appeared. He was about to go aboard the vessel for safety, when he was fired on. Three policemen were immediately in front of Mr. Bane, and they knelt down and seemed terror-stricken. One man shoved the barrel of a pistol in close proximity to Mr. Bane's head and fired, and the purser fell bleeding.

Capt. Wood of the Engineer had just arisen when the shooting occurred, and saw most of the conflict. He says that there was firing from all sides and the scene was like a battlefield.

The negroes fired upon were in the employ of Stevedore Geddes of the Harrison line steamers. The wharf at this point is almost totally covered with freight, and nearby are a number of box cars. The majority of the men in the mob concealed themselves behind these obstructions.

Bane is an Englishman, and Sir Julian Pauncefote has asked for an investigation into his murder.

We all take Hood's Sarsaparilla when we feel bad or our blood is poor and it always makes us well. Mrs. J. FALLOWFIELD, Brampton, Ontario.

AERIAL TRAMWAY AT THE FALLS.

Proposal to Suspend Tourists 30 Feet Above the Cataract.

Lockport, March 12.—Attorney George W. Pound, one of the directors of the Aerial Tramway Company, has sent to Albany a bill authorizing his company to erect a tower and landing place on the State Reservation Park, for the use of a scheme, which will be one of the engineering triumphs of the age. A similar one has been obtained with reference to Queen Victoria Park from the Ontario Government.

The company proposes to carry tourists across the Niagara River over the brink of the cataract and 30 feet above the raging waters. A double set of cables will be stretched from the towers in the Canadian and American parks, with a supporting tower on Goat Island. On these cables cage-like cars will be suspended by trolleys, and operated by electricity from the American side. The aerial line will follow along the brink of the American falls to Goat Island, and thence to the Canadian shore, forming a cord to the bow of the Horseshoe Falls. The cars will be of steel and the cables the best manufactured.

SALVAGE SALE!

THAT OPENS UP THIS MORNING.

You may think that we are a week late in getting at it, but we assure you we did the best we could. The fire occurred Sunday, March 3, and we were from that date, at least from Monday morning until 10 o'clock Saturday night, adjusting our losses with the insurance companies. Not that the companies unnecessarily delayed us nor used us any way but fairly, but it was a big job to appraise and adjust damages. We told you yesterday just what happened us and the condition of our stock, and at 9 o'clock the evidences of it will be open to your inspection. Take a look through the building, particularly the southern portion of it, and see what the elements have done for us.

Now for Business.

We appreciate the fact that you are only mildly interested in the appearance of our store and stock. It is the price of the goods and the values that you want to know about.

Well, for instance, among our Chair Stock. What about a slightly damaged Cobbler Rocker for $1.25, and there are lots of them, or a Cobbler Rocker, regularly sold for $6.50, for $2.25, or Plush Rockers with oak frames for 98c? Or a line of beautiful Chairs and Rockers in Oak, Birch and solid Mahogany, imported goods, built in a most artistic way, gracefully shaped, some as good as $20, that we will take $8 for; others as low as $2 or $3. OH! SEE THEM.

And Rattan Goods, Chairs, Rockers, Settees and Ottomans, will sell them as low as $1, perhaps less, and up to say $8, goods worth from $4 to $18. And to change the subject
