Poetry.
(For the Member.
An Athlete's Soliloquy on God.
Once more in solitude I My gloomy rivals bid me sigh; Grief and that dismal angel death, Seek not my presence when alone.
Bid me outpour the ungodly Show me this sphere earth's most thrilling As though my five dollars for each fallure.
Point to my final end—the solemn tomb.
The cause of it I cannot tell,
But two strange spirits in me dwell;
My mind with feeble light, like dawn;
A timid spirit grave and wan,
The first line for his goal stern truth,
The second double notes to Bath O City, bid me cease the strife, Fry, let me turn to reasoning for relief.

Every Household
Should have Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
It saves thousands of lives annually, and is peculiarly efficacious in Croup, Whooping Cough, and Sore Throat.
"After an extensive practice of nearly one-third of a century, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is very generally known, and I prescribe it, and believe it afforded to the people."—Dr. John C.
Levy, Druggist, West Bridge Street, Boston, Mass.
"Some years ago Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me of asthma after the best medical skill had failed to give me relief. A few weeks since, being again a little troubled with the disease, I was promptly Relieved By the same remedy. I gladly offer this testimony for the benefit of all similarly afflicted."—F. H. Hasler, Editor Argus, Table Rock, Neb.
"For children afflicted with cold, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it also, invariably, to cure all cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovoy, 1231 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.
"Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has proved invaluable as a family medicine." —Dr. M. H. Chapman, Druggist, Mass.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, PREPARED BY
Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by Druggists. Price 25¢ per bottle, $1.

Class of "Toujours" Cultivate cheerfulness, if only for personal profit.
You will do and bear every duty and burden better by being cheerful. It will be your comrade in solitude, your passport and recommendation in society. You will be more sought after more trusted and esteemed, for your sturdy cheerfulness. The bad and visions may be patiently gay and vulgarily humorous, but seldom or never truly cheerful. Genuine cheerfulness is an almost certain index of a happy mind and a pure good heart.
A good woman knows the power she has of shaping the lives of her children and she endeavors to use that power wisely and well. She teaches her boys and girls that they must be brave in doing their duty, truthful in speech and action, honest and honorable, kind cheerful and unselfish. By her own good example she enforces and illustrates what she teaches.
It is not a mother's duty to bring up her youth to be idle without a regular calling. Industry, like idleness, is a matter of habit. No child will make an active and industrious and useful man.
How rare is that fine courtesy which is unobtrusive by rank or wealth, but treats all worthy men and women with equal deference and consideration.
The feeble tremble before opinion, the foolish defy it, the wise judge it the shield of their life.
If you want friends, let others excel you.

How to Have Rich, Good Milk.—The richness and good quality of milk depends wholly upon the food. A constant care also largely influences the quality of the milk. It is not a matter of chance, but of choice. Give your cows the best food you can procure, and you will get the best milk. The food should be given to the cows without any reference to its quality, then juicy grass, green corn fodder, brewers' grains, turnips and other roots that have a large proportion of water, warm mash and sloppy food is general winter produce. A constant milk diet will unquestionably produce more milk than a dry one. Moistening hay and fodder with warm water, putting bran into the drinking water to tempt the cow to drink more will also have the same effect. If rich milk is desired at least a fair proportion of substantial food should be given out to make it. Good clover hay, corn fodder, cornmeal, a little oats meal and a moderate supply of turnips, along with a bran mash, make a good winter diet for a cow and will give richness to the milk. Cows should have all the pure water they will drink, and in winter it is well to warm it for those drinking milk. Sifting them regularly could not be neglected, otherwise the butter will be long in coming.

About Women.
Miss Marietta Holley (Joiah Allen's) is fitting up a new house for herself in Adams, N. Y., in which provision is made for the accommodation of any of twelve guests, to be selected from the seventy girls of New York City during the summer months. She expects to entertain four or five sets of them in succession.
Lady Dufferin has written a pamphlet on India which has attracted much attention in England.
May Dickens, daughter of the novelist, is playing a part in "Little Lord Fantasy" on the English provincial stage.
Perhaps the best paid woman writer in this country is Mrs. Southworth, who receives an income of $7,000 a year from the New York Ledger. Mary E. Bryan, one of the best writers from the south, earns an income of $6,000 by her pen.

Woman who applied for a place as cook with a family in this city was subjected to a very searching examination as to her abilities and habits by the lady of the house. At last the latter woman asked the woman, "Do you drink?"
"No, ma'am; but judging by what I've seen in service I might ask you that question."
Asked to explain herself the woman continued:
"In both my last places my employers drank to excess, and I led a dog's life in consequence. I do not mean to enter a house where the mistress touches a drop of liquor."
"This was turning the tables with a vengeance,"—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Sure Remedy for Neuritis.
Neuritis is one of the most common and painful affections incidental to this climate. Life to thousands is made miserable through it. It is a disease of the nerves, only the most powerful and penetrating remedies can reach it. Neu-ritis has created wonder in the minds of those who have untried other remedies, since its action seems magical. To all suffering from any kind of nerve pain, internal or external, we represent a trial of Nervine. Sold by all dealers in medicine, 10 and 25 cents a bottle.

Rhubarb came from China about 1573, and when introduced into England was called "patience." Turnip leaves were first eaten as a salad.
—A recent book sold in Boston is a pamphlet entitled "Capitulum," as it is called, and published by Rev. John Norton in 1747, fetched $303.

Miraculous.
"My Miraculous Cure was that I had suffered from Kidney disease for about two years, and oft on all that time. A friend told me of B. B. B. I tried it, and was happy to say that I was cured by two years, and in case the board of health cer-
