

Or if our work should end—
The busy feet be still, the lips be mute,
Ere we have reaped, another, God will send
To gather in the fruit.

Then let us faithful prove,
Sowing with lavish hand the precious grain,
Assured that if we sow in faith and love,
Our work shall not be vain.

A LO
When
To Along
Gu
To pl
Ere
Along
Wi
To re
Th
To d
My
To d
Th
Along
An
nd
Th