

that leads up to every conversion, one soweth and another reapeth. Still we are sure that in idolatrous Benares the centre and citadel of Hinduism, God by His Spirit is working mightily in the hearts of many people.

In another letter I may tell you more of what I saw in this town.

R. GARSIDE.

EXTRACTS FROM PRIVATE LETTERS.

MISS HATCH writes from Samulcott: I have been so well since I wrote you last. We have just had quite a celebration here in honor of the Decennial of the Seminary and the Septennial of Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell's arrival in India. The teachers and the boys deserve credit for the way they conducted the affair. The chapel was decorated with green and festoons of bright paper, newly made mottoes adorned the walls. Our mottoes are "Truly ye have received, truly give." "We cannot but speak the things we have seen and heard." "Christ is all in all." and "Thy Kingdom come." The programme was partly in English and partly Telugu.

Miss Hatch tells of one of the bible women who, too ill with fever to sit up, yet so anxious to keep the school going, fearing the children might not all come back if dismissed, had her cott moved into the school room and was teaching from that.

MRS. GRIGG writes from the steamer just coasting the southernmost part of Spain. They had a pleasant voyage most of the way, if the rest of the voyage is prosperous they expected to reach Rangoon about Jan. 6th. Their own station is about five days journey from Rangoon. She says, "We are longing to be at work, seeing the time is so short and the work so great."

CORRECTIONS IN THE MAP OF TELUGU COUNTRY.

The following corrections in the Map of the Telugu country came from Mr. Craig after last month's issue.

5. (a) The distance from Madras to Masulipatam, should be 194 and not 274 miles.

(b) Ragapuram, a little north-west of Bezvada, should be much further north. The dot indicating its position should be over the "n" in Nandigama.

(c) There is a dot under the first "i" in Anakapilli, west of Vizagapatam. This should be removed. The dot representing Anakapilli is at the junction of the two roads.

6. New stations of other societies.

(a) North-west of Nandigama, mentioned in 5 (b) is Kammamet printed in capitals. Underline with blue and mark N.

(b) Dowlaishwaram, where we cross the Godavari river. Underline and mark E.

(c) An inch from Dowlaishwaram, further up the river and on the other side, make a dot; write Tallapudi. Underline and mark E.

(d) Nearly opposite Dowlaishwaram and some distance from the river is Chittapetta. Underline and mark K.

(e) Between the two branches of the river is Amalapuram. Underline and mark K.

(Mr. Craig adds that if any one will take the trouble to correct the map by these directions, she will have a map, up to date.—Ed.)
