BRANTFORD ITEMS

from our own Correspondent

It is a long time since there was anything in the CANADIAN MERE from the Telephone City.

Thomas McLaren was laid off on the 28th of September, he went home and said a few days and went to Detroit, where he spent his holidays. He met Mabel Ball in Windsor, and said she was looking pretty well.

Robert Sutton works in the same shop as Thomas McLaren, and he spent his holidays in Simcoe and Waterford. The latter he says is rather small but has better attraction than the former.

Robert McPherson is as busy as ever with his needle and thread, and when some one asks him what hard times are he will say he does not know, as he works over one in the shop sometimes till eleven or twelve.

Mr Holland gave us a surprise by coming in our midst two weeks ago, and has been holding services with the married nites, so the single can come. It has been a rare treat to us, we have been blind, and now we see the way. He has given several of the nites bibles so that they may read them. He is welcome to our city, and he is well treated.

Mr Joseph Lloyd is working on the T H & B Railway. He will go back to the shop when it opens.

Amval Shepherd had two weeks' holidays lately and he spent them under his parental roof. Amval brought us plenty of news when he returned, and we swallowed it all and now he has nothing more to say.

A. E. Smith is doing a rushing business. Lately he bought a little pony, and traded it for a draught horse, and now he is going to sell it the first chance he gets. He is a lover of horse flesh and game cocks.

Andrew Waggoner spent a few days in Brantford, and we had an enjoyable time during his stay here. When he was to return, Thomas McLaren accompanied him to Galt and met Evans, and had a chat, and then they went to Preston, and Tom stand there four days, and returned a few days ago. Tom is quite a traveller. It is high time Tom should save his money at settle down.

My Time Table

I might feel things each day
That I wish may grow and

PUPILS' LOCALS

From the Boys' Side of the Institution

[BY ALEXANDER SWASS]

—On the morning of the 10th inst. was the first heavy frost.

—A card from Syrian Peter, St. Mary's Creek, says that he is working on a farm.

—On the 11th inst., Mr. Nussbaum, an interesting story in the chapel. He lectured about "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

—Mr. Flynn, our carpenter, was out for several days, and unable to attend his duties, but we are glad he is home again.

—The front lot of the Gibson Hospital has been sodded. It is fringed with maple trees. It will look nice in spring.

We had four veteran foot ball players and two others have returned. We are very glad to have M. Noonan, our Senior Eleven.

There has been an addition to the printing office. On the 6th inst. George Munroe entered the office as the printer. There are seven pupils now.

James Sermishaw, one of our pupils here, had a flying visit from his late recently. He took him for a trip to Belleville. He lives 20 miles away from this Institution.

—A little bird says that Mr. Douglas, our store keeper, is about to be married soon, and we wish to send him our hearty congratulations. Who will be the silver knot?

—On the afternoon of the 12th inst. Mr. Stewart, one of the teachers, had to go home on account of the illness of his daughter. One of the pupils of the best class took his place.

—Rev. Canon Burke has commenced his ministrations to the pupils of the English Church. He comes once a month until Advent, and during that he will come weekly.

On the evening of the 12th inst. we were entertained to a series of lantern views, by Mr. Clark of the Wood Asylum, Kingston. The pupils enjoyed it very much.

—On the 5th inst., Noah Labello received a letter from his brother one of our former pupils here, saying that he was working in a saw mill in Michigan, and he would go to the shanty soon.</
