

Send Me a Rose From My Angel Mother's Grave.

SONG AND CHORUS

Words by FRANK DUMONT.

Music by W. S. MULLALLY.

Andante.

1. I've been think - ing, to-day, of the hap-py years a-go, And the tears quick-ly gath-er'd in my eyes, As I
2. I would give all this world, if it were mine to give, If my moth-er could re-turn to me a-gain; I would held with-in my hand, a por-trait and a flow'r, Tok-ens bound to me by ma-n-y sa-cred ties. The strive then to re-pay her ma-n-y acts of love, For my heart is call-ing, and it calls in vain. Nev-er pic-ture is my mother's, and she sent it'cross the sea, And a bless-ing to her wand'ring son she gave; And this more to feel her kiss-es and her words of brightest cheer, When she bade me hope, be patient, true, and brave; And I
