

one hundred and thirty boys and sixty girls, belonging to over eighty different families. All these pupils were formerly Roman Catholics, and of their families fifty have left the Romish Church. This building, with the farm, cost £3400, of which £800 is still due, and payable within a few months. Contributions towards the General Funds, and in reduction of the debt upon the building, will be thankfully received."

We earnestly recommend the claims of this Society to the consideration of our readers. We believe that it is quietly but effectively doing a good work, which is worthy of being helped by all who have at heart the interests of Protestantism. It is warmly supported by our brethren of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, who have the best opportunities of knowing its usefulness.
