

"I do express the hope that, by possessing and controlling such a book as this Encyclopaedia Britannica, Cambridge may become, more than it has ever been in the past, an inspiring centre of world-wide intellectual life, and able to carry out not only its national but also its international function."

The late S. H. BUTCHER, President of the British Academy, M.P. for the University of Cambridge.

"Every growing family of Canadians, pretending to any intelligence, whether they have carpets or not, ought to be provided with the eleventh edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica."

The Christmas Season AND THE NEW (11th) EDITION OF THE ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA

"Probably no other work has ever gathered together as contributors such a body of experts . . . It will for years to come be, in America and England, the one indispensable book of reference."

The Outlook, New York

A novel new binding for the India paper impression of the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Extreme flexibility ensured by the use of a limp, velvet-finished suede leather.

THE WORK IS NOW COMPLETELY PUBLISHED

And is being dispatched to applicants—the entire work 29 volumes—on receipt of the first payment of $5.00. Subscribers will now receive the new Encyclopaedia Britannica in one shipment. The incoming supplies of complete sets, fresh from the printer and binder, will ensure that orders registered now will be promptly executed. The preliminary announcement of the 11th Edition in advance of publication resulted in an unparalleled tribute to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, more than 32,000 orders for the work (value over $5,000,000) being registered before it was published. This necessarily involved inconvenience to many applicants, who had to wait for their books. It is advisable, however, that new applicants shall be registered quickly—while the work is in stock. Should a new printing still be found necessary, it would again involve delay in turning out complete sets. Especially is immediate application advisable in the case of those who wish to purchase the new Encyclopaedia Britannica as a Christmas present.

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

THE principal motive with most persons when making a Christmas present is to give something useful but at the same time "distinctive," and the great difficulty is to think of something suitable to give. The new Encyclopaedia Britannica, while more than filling every ordinary requirement, has a special appropriateness as a Christmas gift. Christmas is a season when men and women may be said to yield to a recognition of ideals, aspirations and traditions which
