

SAFE IS HE WHO SERVES A GOOD CONSCIENCE. Mrs. MERRICK WOODS, Londonderry, Vermont, writes — "Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer and Zylolabalamum have restored my hair to its original color and beauty. One year ago my hair was very thin and quite gray. I have now as fine a head of hair as I ever had." Sold by all Druggists. Depot, 198 Greenwich St., N. Y.

An old maid was heard to say, while sitting at her toilet the other day, "I can bear adversity, and encounter hardships, and withstand the changes of fortune; but O, to live, to droop, and wilt, and die like a single pink, I can't endure it, and what's more, I won't!"

To ruminate upon evils, to make critical notes upon injuries, and to be too acute in their apprehensions, is to add unto our own tortures, to feather the arrows of our enemies, to lash ourselves with the scorpions of our foes, and to resolve to sleep no more. — Sir Thomas Browne.

He that has no resources of mind is more to be pitied than he who is in want of necessities for the body; and to be obliged to beg our daily happiness from others, bespeaks a more lamentable poverty than that of him who begs his daily bread. — Colton.

There is no elevation of mind in a contempt of little things; it is, on the contrary, from too narrow views, that we consider those things of little importance, which have, in fact, such important consequences. — Fenelon.

It is common to men to err; but it is only a fool that perseveres in his error: a wise man, therefore, alters his opinion, a fool never. — Latin Proverb.

Who is Mrs. S. A. ALLEN? — As this question is often asked us, with pleasure give the little history we have of her in our possession. Some twenty years ago, a lady in New York City observed that her hair was rapidly losing its natural color, and getting quite gray, and disliking the idea of becoming gray, and equally averse to using any dye (knowing them to be injurious) concluded that she would try and invent something that would restore her hair to its original life-color; and, by dint of study and perseverance in experimenting, she succeeded in finding that the articles she had compounded would not only restore the hair to its natural color, but also render it pliable, and give it the natural moistness that a healthy head of hair should have. This was over more than she hoped for; and, without the slightest intention, at first, of making a business of it, she was actually forced to commence making it for sale, by the number of persons of her acquaintance and others whom her acquaintances had informed of the remarkable change in her hair, calling at her residence to procure the article, and she now probably does one of the largest cash businesses in the city of New York. Her preparations are now found in every drug store in the United States, Canada, Cuba, Mexico, and, within the past two or three years, regular depots for their exclusive sale have been established in London and Liverpool.

AN AROMATIC PERFUME. — Bulwer Lytton, the great English romanticist, says that a gentleman is known by the perfume he uses. The delicacy, an insinuating and luxurious softness, in the aroma of MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER, which is delightful to persons of taste and refinement. — Hence it is as acceptable to the true gentleman as to the lady of fine sensibilities. More than this: every gentleman knows, or should know, that when sufficiently diluted with water it is a wonderful emollient — the best that can possibly be used after shaving. Its refreshing odor is an exquisite contrast to the sickly scent of the heavy French extracts.

"Purchasers are requested to see that the words 'Florida Water, Murray & Lanman, No. 69 Water Street, New York,' are stamped in the glass on each bottle. Without this none is genuine. 538

TROPICAL SKIN DISEASES. — In hot climates the skin is stimulated to excessive action, and an almost infinite variety of cutaneous and dermal disorders are the result. Prurigo, or constant external itching, without much apparent inflammation, spotted acne, caused by sluggishness of the skin, scaly eruptions, pustulous pimples, pemphigus, or water pimples, Rosacea or false measles, crusted tetter, and rashes of almost every shade, from light pink to the deepest crimson, may be mentioned among the number. These, with all other external eruptions caused by heat, are safely and speedily removed by BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA, the most wholesome of all vegetable detergents. In all skin diseases, the bowels should be kept laxative by using BRISTOL'S VEGETABLE PILLS at the same time as the Sarsaparilla. 512

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman: — "We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good — particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our family it has proved a blessing indeed; by giving an infant troubled with colic pains quiet sleep, and his parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as 'bright as a button.' And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle. July, 1866.

SOMETHING THE WHOLE COMMUNITY SHOULD KNOW. The traveller, furnished with BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS, is armed against those diseases of the stomach, liver, and bowels, common to all climates. The first thing to be done, in case of a bilious attack, is to empty the bowels. BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS do this rapidly, but not rudely. As they cleanse, they soothe and heal. — There is an emollient principle in them that prevents the irritation which thorough purgation would otherwise create. None of the sharp, cutting, spasmodic pains, which accompany the action of mineral cathartics, are ever experienced during their operation. They have no drawback, either immediate or contingent, and leave every organ they influence in a healthy state. For dyspepsia, piles, liver complaint, sick headache, suppression, vertigo, colic, and heartburn, they are the one thing needful, and no other known medicine can supply their place. They are put up in glass vials, and will keep in any climate. In all cases arising from, or aggravated by impure blood, BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA should be used in connection with the Pills. 428

S. T.—1860.—X.—The amount of Plantation Bitters sold in one year is something startling. — They would fill Broadway six feet high, from the Park to 4th street. Drake's manufactory is one of the institutions of New York. It is said that Drake painted all the rocks in the Eastern States with his cabalistic "S. T.—1860.—X." and then got the old grumpy legislators to pass a law "preventing disgracing the face of nature," which gives him a monopoly. We do not know how this is, but we do know the Plantation Bitters sell as no other article ever did. They are used by all classes of the community, and are death on Dyspepsia—certain. They are very invigorating when languid and weak, and a great appetizer. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

"In lifting the bottle from the shelf I scalded myself very severely—one hand almost to a crisp. The torture was unbearable. The Mexican Mustang Liniment relieved the pain almost immediately. It healed rapidly, and left very little scar. CHAS. POSTER, 420 Broad St., Philadelphia. This is merely a sample of what the Mustang Liniment will do. It is invaluable in all cases of wounds, swellings, sprains, cuts, bruises, sprains, etc., either upon man or beast. Beware of counterfeits. WHAT DID IT? — A young lady, returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in New York, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a rustic, fussed face, she had a soft, ruby complexion, of almost marble smoothness; and instead of 22, she really appeared but 17. She told them plainly she used Hagar's Magnolia Balm, and would not be without it. Any lady can improve her personal appearance very much by using this article. It can be ordered of any druggist for only 50 cents. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

Helmetree's Inimitable Hair Coloring has been steadily growing in favor for over twenty years. It acts upon the absorbents at the roots of the hair, and changes it to its original color by degrees.
