

(2) On receipt of such a designation the aeronautical authorities of that other Contracting Party shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (3) of this Article, grant without delay to the airline or airlines so designated the appropriate operating authorisations.

(3) The aeronautical authorities of one Contracting Party may refuse to grant the operating authorisations referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article, or may impose such conditions as they may deem necessary on the exercise by a designated airline of the rights specified in Article 3(2) of this Agreement, in any case where

(a) an airline designated by the other Contracting Party is unable to satisfy them that it is qualified to fulfil the conditions prescribed under the laws and regulations normally and reasonably applied to the operation of international air services by such authorities in conformity with the Convention;

(b) those authorities are not satisfied that substantial ownership and effective control of that airline are vested in the Contracting Party designating the airline or in its nationals.

(4) When an airline has been so designated and authorised, it may begin to operate the agreed services, provided that the airline complies with the applicable provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6

Revocation or Suspension of Operating Authorisations

(1) The aeronautical authorities of each Contracting Party shall have the right to revoke an operating authorisation or to suspend the exercise of the rights specified in Article 3(2) of this Agreement by an airline designated by the other Contracting Party, or to impose such conditions as it may deem necessary on the exercise of those rights:

(a) in any case where they are not satisfied that substantial ownership and effective control of that airline are vested in the Contracting Party designating the airline or in nationals of such Contracting Party; or

(b) in the case of failure by the airline to comply with the laws or regulations of the Contracting Party granting those rights; or

(c) if the airline otherwise fails to operate in accordance with the conditions prescribed under this Agreement.

(2) Unless immediate revocation, suspension or imposition of the conditions mentioned in paragraph (1) of this Article is essential to prevent further infringements of laws or regulations, such right shall be exercised only after consultation with the other Contracting Party.
