

6. During the period of the programme, financial terms of exchanges for articles 2, 3, 4 and 5 within this section shall be discussed on a case by case basis in the spirit of reciprocity;

7. To encourage cooperation in the co-production of films, and to facilitate production-creative services during the production of films, of one country in the territory of the other country. Both sides recognize that cooperation will be encouraged through both SOVINFILM and GOSTELERADIO on the Soviet side, and Canadian independent producers as well as the Department of Communications and Telefilm Canada on the Canadian side. It is recognized that productions will include films for theatrical release as well as films and videos for television;

8. To encourage and facilitate, on mutually acceptable terms, the non-commercial distribution or exchange of films on education, science, sports and other fields.

VI COOPERATION IN TELEVISION AND RADIO

Both sides agreed:

1. To promote the further development of cooperation between the State Committee on Television and Radio
