

I hope I have been able to make clear the Government of Canada's full and enthusiastic commitment to building a dynamic and broad-based economic relationship with India, one which draws its strengths from the skills and capabilities of our two nations. You will find the Canadian Government and Canadian business and industry enthusiastic partners in cooperation.

Thank you.