

Mr. Laflamme, from the Standing Committee on Privileges and Elections, presented the Seventh Report of the said Committee, which was read as follows:

Your Committee recommends that it be authorized to adjourn from place to place within Canada and that the necessary staff accompany the Committee.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Mr. Laflamme, seconded by Mr. Trudel, the said Report was concurred in.

Mr. Trudeau, a Member of the Queen's Privy Council, by Command of His Excellency the Governor General, laid before the House,—Copies of an Abridged Version of the Report of the Royal Commission on Security (Maxwell Weir Mackenzie—Chairman), dated June, 1969. (English and French).

Mr. Macdonald, a Member of the Queen's Privy Council, pursuant to Standing Order 60(2), designated Friday, June 27, 1969, for the consideration of Ways and Means motions.

By unanimous consent, it was ordered,—That for the purpose of completing its inquiry into the problems of transportation in the Atlantic provinces the Standing Committee on Transport and Communications be empowered to adjourn from place to place within eastern Canada and the clerk and the necessary supporting staff be authorized to accompany the Committee.

By unanimous consent, it was ordered,—That the report of the committee appointed September 8, 1965, to survey the organization and work of the Canadian Pension Commission, tabled on March 26, 1968, be referred to the Standing Committee on Veterans Affairs.

Mr. Kierans, a Member of the Queen's Privy Council, laid before the House,—Report of Canadian Overseas Telecommunication Corporation, including its Accounts and Financial Statements certified by the Auditor General, for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1969, pursuant to sections 22 and 23(1) of the Canadian Overseas Telecommunication Corporation Act, chapter 42 and sections 85(3) and 87(3) of the Financial Administration Act, chapter 116, R.S.C., 1952. (English and French).

The Order being read for the consideration of Bill C-202, An Act to provide incentives for the development of productive employment opportunities in regions of Canada determined to require special measures to facilitate economic expansion and social adjustment, as reported (with amendments) from the Standing Committee on Regional Development.

Mr. Broadbent, seconded by Mr. Gilbert, moved.—That Bill C-202, An Act to provide incentives for the development of productive employment opportunities in regions of Canada determined to require special measures to facilitate economic expansion and social adjustment, be amended, by deleting in clause 2, section (f), all the words after the word "of" in line 13 of page 2, and by substituting therefor the words:

"all forms of industrial activity."

And debate arising thereon;
