Mr. Evans: Madam Speaker, I ask that the remaining questions be allowed to stand.

[Translation]

Madam Speaker: The questions enumerated by the Parliamentary Secretary have been answered.

[English]

Mr. Forrestall: Madam Speaker, I rise on a point of order. There is a rather ancient tradition in the Chamber that Starred Questions are attended to with some degree of promptness, usually within 48 hours but certainly where it might be somewhat difficult, not more than three or four days.

I placed Starred Question No. 5,038 on the Order Paper on September 21. It is now October 13. About a week or ten days
