

Ottawa

- "Confusion Square", 312
- Federal control of city proposed, 316
- Federal grants in lieu of taxes, 312, 360
- Joint Committee on development of
 - National Capital, 3, 277-8, 309-17, 328, 335, 365, 395, 819, 889
 - Reports, 335, 949-54

Pairing, 593, 959Parliament

- Divorce jurisdiction, 272-3, 299-300
- Opening of session, 1
- Powers under British North America Act, 899, 947-8, 972-3; powers transferred to Executive, 964
- Prorogation of session, 1059-61
- Treaties, ratification of, 320-3, 387-90, 459-61, 462-3, 524-5
 - Parliament's right to approve or reject, 388-90, 459-61, 462-3, 524-5
- Visitors, distinguished
 - Eden, Sir Anthony, Prime Minister of United Kingdom, 2, 35, 86, 116, 124-6
 - Gronchi, His Excellency Giovanni, President of Italy, 189, 245, 265-7
 - Lloyd, Right Hon. Selwyn, Foreign Secretary of United Kingdom, 2, 35, 86
 - Martino, Mr. Gaetano, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Italy, 189
 - Sukarno, His Excellency Dr., President of Indonesia, 606, 621, 633-7
- See Library of Parliament, Restaurant of Parliament

Parliamentary Assistants to Ministers, as of August 14, 1956, ivParliament Buildings

- Visitors in last five years, inquiry and answer, 350, 441

Parole—See Penal reformPaterson, Sir Alexander, British expert on penology, 401, 402, 515*Pearson, Hon. Lester B., P.C., M.P., Secretary of State for External Affairs, 35, 69, 119, 120

- Canada and the United Nations*, booklet quoted from, 120
- Foreign policy, statements commended, 119
- United Nations Assembly, leadership at, 193

Penal reform, 245-50, 336-43, 395-402, 442-52, 468-74, 476-90, 505-17, 528-30

- Archambault Commission report, 245-50, 337, 338, 339, 341, 397-8, 399, 508
- Britain, progress in penology, 515

Comic books as cause of juvenile delinquency, 470Educational program on public responsibility recommended, 508-13*Suggestions, 509-12*Employment of ex-prisoners, 399*England-Wales and Canada, statistics, 247, 444-5, 481-2, 486-90*First offenders, 512-13*Fry, Elizabeth, Society—aid and rehabilitation of female prisoners, 336, 341, 443, 480, 513*Howard, John, Society—aid and rehabilitation of male prisoners, 443, 478, 480, 513*Juvenile delinquency, 248, 469, 470-4, 512*Kingston penitentiary, reply to letter addressed to prisoner, 514*Mental illness and crime, 468-70, 473*Parole and ticket of leave system, 245, 248-9, 447, 516-17*Paterson, Sir Alexander, British authority on penology, 401, 402, 515*Preventive measures, 528-30*Prison population, growth, 248*Inmates under 21, 248*Probation, 245, 247, 339-41, 448*Officers, insufficient number of, 247, 248*Provincial jails, conditions, 248*Psychopaths, criminal—imprisonment and treatment, 341-3*Case history, 342*Research recommended, 342*Sterilization of parents in selected cases, 342-3*Recidivism, 246, 340, 449*Rate reduced by open-type prisons, 340*Rehabilitation, 249; centres and programs, 479-80*Salvation Army, rehabilitation of prisoners, 443, 480, 513, 515*Segregation of prisoners, 399, 452*Slums, breeders of criminal tendencies, 529*Study by special committee recommended, 249, 514*Vocational training, 337, 338, 341, 399, 400, 401, 402, 445-6, 479-80, 507, 512-13*Women prisoners, 336-41*Detention in province where convicted recommended, 338-9, 341, 515*Drug addicts, 338, 343, 515*Kingston prison, 336, 338; proposed new building, 340*Segregation, 338-40*Vocational training, 338, 507*Pension Fund Society of the Dominion Bank bill (Hon. John J. Connolly), 1r, 279; 2r-ref to com, 327; rep of com, 335; 3r, 359; r.a., 704