

CONTENTS.

xvii

	PAGE.		PAGE.
Simcoe's parliaments	424	Speculations on conduct of Jeffer-
The marriage bill	425	son	448
The slave bill	425	Adet recalled	449
Petition of Presbyterian ministers		Deposition of Black, meeting of against marriage act	427	McLane	449
Simcoe's dissatisfaction	428	Deposition of Frichet	449
Settlement of marriage question	428	Execution of McLane	450
Simcoe's departure	428	Parties in Vermont	450
Peter Russell sworn in as adminis-		McLane's enterprise	451
trator	429	Reports of Jules Le Fer	451
Western posts given over to		Adet's official authority	452
United States	429	Attempts of French agents in the
Simcoe appointed to San Domingo	429	west	452
Appointed commander-in-chief in		Le Couteulx	452
India	430	Force disposable in Canada	454
Reaches Lisbon	430
His death	430
General Robert Prescott arrives	431
Dorchester leaves Canada	432
His character and services	433
Correspondence between major general Wayne and major
Campbell, 24th regiment,
August, 1794	434

BOOK XXVI.—CHAPTER I.

[1796-1797.]

General Prescott, governor-general and in command of troops	439
David McLane	439
Plot against Canada	440
Adet, the French minister	441
Pamphlet circulated by him	441
Reports of Liston, British minister	442
Du Millière at Rouse's point	442
Purchase of arms by Ira Allen	443
Seizure of "Olive Branch" with cannon and arms	444
McLane's proposals to Barnard	444
Examination of McLane's attempt	445
Monroe U. S. minister to France	446
His recall	446
Adet's letters	446
William Cobbett "Peter Porcupine"	447

CHAPTER II.

[1798-1799.]

Prescott's difficulties with the
council	456
Portland's views	456
Prescott recalled for explanations	457
In what light proceedings can be considered	457
The dispute relative to land grants	458
Prescott's representations	459
His authority to act	459
Difference of view with the council	460
His rejoinder to council	461
His letter to Portland	462
Accusation against members of
council	463
Reply of council	464
Portland's instructions	464
Monk's account of dispute	465
Report of council	466
Mr. Ryland resigns post of secretary	466
Prescott recalled	467
Addresses to him on departure	467
Prescott's character	468
His proceedings with Milnes	468
Remains governor-general until 1807	469