

United States Constitution—continued.

Contrasted in respect to State power to limit range of federal power	663
“ “ “ “ State sovereignty	“ “ “ “
“ “ “ “ supremacy of legislatures	247-53, 286 8
General character of powers of Congress	563-4
General principles of its interpretation	474-6
How far cases under, a guide to us	56
Legislatures under, contrasted with Imperial parliament	250
Ownership of beds of water in United States	608, n. 2
Relation of treaties to Acts of Congress	255, n. 3
Rule of necessity in respect to incidental powers	452, n.
Story on, specially referred to	267, 474-6, 627, n. 2
Supremacy of Acts of Congress	527, n. 5
See, also, Introductory Chapter.
Vaccination Act	660, n. 3
Vattel
References to	28-9, 30-1, 32, 33
Vested rights of property
Dominion protection of by veto power	199-201
May be disregarded by Canadian legislatures (Prop. 21)	279-88
Veto power of Imperial Government
Does not extend to provincial Acts	202
Effect of on vetoed Act	203, n. 2
Exercised against extra-territorial Canadian Acts	338, n. 5
Other reference to	253
Veto power of Dominion Government
(Prop. 10)	185-203, 253, 665-6, 669-70, 709
Adderley, Under-Secretary of State, on	198, n. 1
As exercised on Nova Scotia Mining Act, 1892	199-200
As to provincial Acts contrary to Dominion policy	202, n.
Cannot be confined to part of Act	197, 289, n. 1
“ “ exercised after one year	161, 196-7
“ “ exercised conditionally	197
Check on legislative injustice and interference with vested rights	189-90, 199-202
Dominion House of Commons should not interfere	197
Exercise of in early days of Confederation	150
Goldwin Smith on	195
How exercised in practice	198-201, 206
Minister of Justice on proper procedure in reviewing provincial Acts	172-4
Non-exercise of cannot validate ultra vires Act (Prop. 11)	204-7
“ “ no admission of validity of legislation	149-50, 157, 168
“ “ some argument in favour of validity	206
Referred to in Debates on Confederation	194-5
Supplies to some extent place of second Chamber	189-90
Vested in Governor-General in Council	191-3
When it takes effect	203
Warehouse receipts, Acts respecting	428-9, 553, n. 2