IN one volume of moderate size the reader will find an interesting, instructive, and comprehensive account of all the greater movements in the history of human thought as it bears on education. The great need of the teacher is breadth of view, and an adequate survey of the whole field of educational activity, and these wholesome and necessary endowments can come only from a study of the history of education. For this high purpose it is safe to say that there is no other book in any language which has the excellences of Compayré's History of Pedagogy.

W. T. Harris, U. S. Com'r of Education, Washington: It is indispensable among histories of education.

G. Stanley Hall, Pres. of Clark Univ., Worcester, Mass.: It is the best and most comprehensive universal history of education in English. The translator has added valuable notes.

Irwin Shepard, Pres. of State Normal School, Winona, Minn.: We adopted immediately upon its publication, and are now using it with great satisfaction in a class of sixty members. Through the aid of this book, the subject has assumed a new interest and importance to all our teachers and students.

Gabriel Compayré, Chambres des Députés, Paris: Votre traduction me paraît excellente et je vous remercie des soins que vous y avez mis. J'ai grand plaisir à me relire dans votre langue, d'autant que vous n'avez rien négligé pour l'impression matérielle.

J. W. Stearns, Prof. of the Science and Art of Teaching, Univ. of Wis.: It will, I believe, serve to increase interest in the history of educational thought and experience, — an end greatly to be desired.

M. A. Newell, State Supt. of Education, Baltimore, Md.: It is a very valuable addition to our pedagogic literature; it is as brief as the breadth of the subject would allow, and is comprehensive and philosophical. The notes and index added by Professor Payne very much increase the value of the work.

E. H. Russell, Prin. of State Normal School, Worcester, Mass.: I say unhesitatingly that it is a very valuable edition to the list of first-rate books for teachers. I have put it into the hands of our senior class, and have recommended it to our graduates.

N. M. Butler, Prin. of N. Y. Coll. for Training of Teachers: It should be in the hands of every teacher, every normal-school student, and on the list of every "reading circle." I predict for the book the greatest success, for it deserves it.

E. E. Higbee, late State Supt. of Public Instruction, Harrisburg, Penn.: I hope it may be introduced into all the normal schools of this State, and give a dignified impetus to studies of such character so much needed and so valuable.
