

discipline of the concern, and the convicts engaged at their different trades. The prison contained 649 convicts, Oct. 1st, 1834; and the profits for the year preceding were about $5,000 over all contingent expenses.

WEEDSPORT, on the canal, is 7 miles distant, and stages run to and from there daily. Goods destined for Auburn are landed at Weedsport.

CAYUGA is 7 miles west of Auburn, and here you cross Cayuga Lake by means of a bridge, one mile and eight rods long. The lake is 38 miles long, and from one to two miles wide. Four miles west of here is the village of SENECA FALLS, which is located on the bank of the Seneca river. The falls at this place have a descent of 46 feet, and afford fine facilities for manufactories, mills, &c., several of which are already in the full tide of successful operation. A side canal from here to Lakeport, on the Erie Canal, 20 miles distant, in connection with the river, gives a water communication from Geneva to the western lakes and the ocean.

WATERLOO is 4 miles farther. This village only began its existence in 1816. It is located on the outlet of Seneca Lake, which here propels several mills, and renders the place rather an unpleasant rival of Seneca Falls. Travelling 7 miles farther, you reach the village of GENEVA. This village is delightfully located on the western margin of Seneca Lake; and the banks being high, it affords an extended view of the lake and adjacent country. The handsome dwellings in the village, with their charming hanging gardens on
