

Plant of the Eaton
Brewing
and Malting
Co.

Steady Progress

It is nearly sixty years since Owen Sound was incorporated as a town. Since the advent of the railways, the growth of the town has advanced steadily and improvements in many respects have kept pace with its growth so that now the town has a practically complete sewer system, about forty miles of concrete walks, an abundant supply of pure

McLauchlan
& Sons
Biscuit and Confectionery

