

ADRIAN POINTER EASILY DEFEATS THE UNDERTAKER

St. Anthony Rumps Home in 2.12 Pace—Dufferin Driving Club's Opening Day Races Marred by a Slow Track.

The first of the three day ice racing season was a success from a racing standpoint. Although weather conditions had been somewhat against racing, just when the track was at its best with a slow pace, the weatherman saw fit to make a change to meet. It was thought at the time that the meeting would have to be postponed, but the officials worked hard and had a good ice bottom put on. Then came the snow, which had to be cleaned off and made the going somewhat hard. In fact the horses had to be shod after nearly every heat, but with all these things to contend with those who were present were treated to a splendid sport.

There were two races on the card, the 2.12 pace, with nine entries, six of which were the starters and the 2.32 pace and trot, with 12 entries and seven scored for the word.

The 2.12 pace was the first race called. St. Anthony was made favorite over his rival, Johnnie Hubbs. The time was 2:12.10, with St. Anthony second and Johnnie Hubbs third.

In this heat, Hal H., who had just come from the shop and had not been shod, was practically left at the post. However, the judges decided on the account of the footing to wave the distance flag, which was done in both races and was appreciated both by the horse men and the public.

St. Anthony won the second heat, Great Heart racing him all the way. It was a nice race. The time was considered very fast owing to track conditions.

The third and final heat was won by St. Anthony, with Great Heart second and Johnnie Hubbs third.

In the 2.32 pace and trot there was considerable rivalry. The Undertaker had won his race at Hillcrest last week, and Adrian Pointer also won a heat over there. It was a good betting race. Both horses had their backers.

Little Fred, who had been shod, won before the first turn. Star Points, in second position, with the other straggle out. They raced this way to the half.

Adrian Pointer had gradually improved his position and in the drive, thru to the end, he outgamed The Undertaker, finishing first easily with the latter as easy second. Time 2:30.4.

The second heat The Undertaker (again) went to the front and took the lead, while Adrian Pointer came along and won by a head. They raced to the 3/4 pole, when Adrian Pointer came along and won by a head. They raced to the 3/4 pole, when Adrian Pointer came along and won by a head.

The final heat was won by Adrian Pointer, with every horse finished exactly in the same position as in the previous heat.

Summary.
2.12 pace mile heats, purse $500—St. Anthony, ch. f., H. Brownlee, 1 1 1; Johnnie Hubbs, br. h., Ward & Sheppard, Toronto (Bedford), 3 2 2; Great Heart, br. h., Ward & Sheppard, Toronto (Bedford), 3 2 2.

2.32 pace and trot, mile heats, purse $500—Adrian Pointer, b. h., Geo. Gray, Pleton (Noble), 1 1 1; The Undertaker, b. f., Geo. Gray, Pleton (Noble), 2 2 2; Johnnie Hubbs, br. h., Ward & Sheppard, Toronto (Bedford), 3 2 2.

2.32 pace and trot, mile heats, purse $500—Adrian Pointer, b. h., Geo. Gray, Pleton (Noble), 1 1 1; The Undertaker, b. f., Geo. Gray, Pleton (Noble), 2 2 2; Johnnie Hubbs, br. h., Ward & Sheppard, Toronto (Bedford), 3 2 2.

2.32 pace and trot, mile heats, purse $500—Adrian Pointer, b. h., Geo. Gray, Pleton (Noble), 1 1 1; The Undertaker, b. f., Geo. Gray, Pleton (Noble), 2 2 2; Johnnie Hubbs, br. h., Ward & Sheppard, Toronto (Bedford), 3 2 2.

2.32 pace and trot, mile heats, purse $500—Adrian Pointer, b. h., Geo. Gray, Pleton (Noble), 1 1 1; The Undertaker, b. f., Geo. Gray, Pleton (Noble), 2 2 2; Johnnie Hubbs, br. h., Ward & Sheppard, Toronto (Bedford), 3 2 2.

Little Fred, b.g., W. H. O'Dell, Weston, (O'Dell), 4 4 4; Victoria Point, g.m., R. Scott, Toronto (Scott), 5 5 5; Alcorn, blk. g., Wm. Williamson, Toronto (Keanna), 6 7 7.

Today's Card.
There are two great races on the card for today, the 2.30 trot, with 13 following entries: Crescote, b.g., R. J. MacKenzie, Winnipeg; Lou McDonald, b.g., Wm. Fitch, Hamilton; Midnight Oro, blk. h., Johnston & Orr, Wingham; Alex. Audubon, blk. m., T. Williamson, Toronto; Miss Brownlee, br. m., T. H. Brownlee, Ottawa; Florence G., b.m., John Gorman, Toronto.

2.18 pace and trot: 13th and 14th. J. G. Ward, Toronto; Grand Opera, b.h., Smith & Proctor, Toronto; Harold O., ch. h., F. J. McEvoy, London; Pomona, ch. h., F. J. McEvoy, London; Bridges, b. h., J. G. Ward, Toronto; Daisy at Law, blk. m., R. Morley, Dundas; Sidney Mack, ch. m., Wm. Williamson, Toronto; Nelly Parker, b.m., J. P. Goodenow, Springfield, N.Y.; Clara Goodenow, b.m., F. W. Toor, Dunnville.

The officials for the races are: Mr. Frank Rogers, Timmer-Geo. May, Jas. McFarren, John Marshall, Wm. J. Noble, Mr. Clerk, W. A. McCullough.

BIG BUSINESS IN HORSES FIRST SALE OF THE YEAR

Repository Starts Off as Predicted With Big Business—Some of the Prices.

The first sale after the New Year holidays at the Repository was a splendid one, and fully bears out the prediction last week of Mr. C. A. Burns, the proprietor, that big business would commence at once. The arena was full of buyers and the stakes were piled up close to two hundred of the different classes being consigned. It was the brisk sale seen in several months, and week after week, for the next few months they will all be busy days at the Repository. The demand for sound and serviceable sound horses, with lots of weight, was especially good. The auction was conducted by Mr. C. A. Burns, with the assistance of Messrs. Isaac Watson and R. C. King. Some of the buyers were:

Lauder, Spillers & Co., lumbermen, 12, 13 and 14, 400 per team. The Mack Lumber Company, Penetang, also bought a carload of the best big horses that could be got, and paid equally as good prices and even more for some buyers. W. Sparrow, McEwen, Sask., bought a part-carload of workers and general purpose horses at from $100 to $150 each; the British American Oil Co., a team of brown geldings, $400; John Mullin, brown gelding, $250; J. McCauley, ch. gelding, $175; E. Lawrence, Milgrove, brown gelding, $175; E. Forrester, Port Eglon, bay mare, $180; J. Peeler, bay mare, $115; F. Caulfield, bay gelding, $70; G. McEwen, Indian road, $120; M. Dodson, bay gelding, $120; H. W. Tronides, Schaw, brown mare, $175; M. Dodson, brown mare, $150; J. McFarlane, Alliston, black gelding, $95; and bay mare, $185; A. Wyles, $51; Mary's bay mare, $35; J. J. Moore, Wm. Farner's Dairy Co., bay mare and gelding, $250; M. Ashton, brown mare, $250; R. H. Clark, Davidson, Sask., a part carload of good draughts; J. Pincus, bay gelding, $150; Houglar's Livery, gray gelding, $150; J. Everest, Woburn, gray gelding, $170; E. Cooke, Logan avenue, bay gelding, $125; G. McEwen, Indian road, pair brown geldings, $330; L. Piche, brown mare and gelding, $270; The Eltonson Lumber Co., gray and black mares, $230.

A consignment of a cartage company's horses were sold at from $250 to $350, and another consignment from a city contractor brought from $250 to $350. Second-hand city horses were selling at from $40 to $110.

Artificial Cow's Milk Made From Beans.
An artificial milk which is said to contain all the elements of the best cow's milk and be useful for the same purposes, is being manufactured from soya beans according to an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association. It is also stated that this artificial product is more digestible than ordinary milk and is used for all cooking purposes and for infants can be made from it, but it will not produce butter. Being germ-free, it will keep longer than cow's milk. The process of making this soya-bean milk was discovered by three Germans who have since been perfecting the apparatus. The manufacture is said to be simple, and the product is always uniform. It can be sold at good profit for six cents a quart, which is cheaper than milk in many localities.

Ozone works for the sterilization of drinking water have been erected in Germany, France, Italy and Russia.

Nuremberg, in Germany, has been preparing to celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of the advent of the picture postcard.

Public Taking a Rest While the Bookmakers Are Chafing—Entries and Selections.

EL PASO, Texas, Jan. 7.—The snowstorm of Monday was followed by frigid weather today and the races were again called off. The postponements are hard on the bookmakers, but they expect to recoup themselves when the producers come back with the easy bank rolls on Wednesday.

The World's Selections BY CENTAUR.

JUAREZ.
FIRST RACE—Ida Lavina, Blarney, Dick Dodge.
SECOND RACE—Bonnie Bard, Ben Brock.
THIRD RACE—Pickaminy, Mary Emily.
FOURTH RACE—Tarnell Girl, Annual Interest.
FIFTH RACE—Buss, Pedro, Good Intent.
SIXTH RACE—Set Back, Zoroaster, Balloff.

At Juarez.
JUANES, Jan. 7.—Tomorrow's entries:
FIRST RACE—Purse $300, 2-year-olds, 3 furlongs: 110 Helen Storey, 110 Meritorious, 110 Korfage, 110 Milton Roblee, 110 Alabama Ham, 110 Brevity, 110 Old Gitch, 110 Dick Dodge, 112 Galar, 112 Manganes, 112 Ida Lavina, 115 Blarney, 118.
SECOND RACE—Selling, 3-year-olds, 1 1/4 miles: 110 Lily Paxton, 110 Eboro, 110 Jack Ellis, 110 The Peet, 110 Polk, 110 Zinkland, 110 Ben Toca, 110 Bonnie Bard, 112 Judge Walton, 115.
THIRD RACE—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 5/8 furlongs: 110 Just Red, 110 Venetian, 110 Pickaminy, 110 Pipe Vision, 110 Twickenham, 110 The Fad, 110 Talbot, 110.
FOURTH RACE—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 5/8 furlongs: 110 Lavender Lass, 110 Tarnell Girl, 110 Roentgen, 110 Edmond A., 110 Annual Interest, 110 Gilroy, 110 Layminton, 110 The Fad, 110 Uncle Jim Gray, 110.
FIFTH RACE—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 5/8 furlongs: 110 Nadamas, 110 Bredwell, 110 Buss, 110 S. V. Fought, 110 Des Coets, 110 Billy Meyer, 110 Good Intent, 110 Calumpanian, 110 Love Day, 110 Set Back, 110 Zoroaster, 110 Hanly, 110.
SIXTH RACE—Selling, 3-year-olds and up, 1 mile: 110 Western, 110.
Weather clear; track slow.

Artificial Cow's Milk Made From Beans.
An artificial milk which is said to contain all the elements of the best cow's milk and be useful for the same purposes, is being manufactured from soya beans according to an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association. It is also stated that this artificial product is more digestible than ordinary milk and is used for all cooking purposes and for infants can be made from it, but it will not produce butter. Being germ-free, it will keep longer than cow's milk. The process of making this soya-bean milk was discovered by three Germans who have since been perfecting the apparatus. The manufacture is said to be simple, and the product is always uniform. It can be sold at good profit for six cents a quart, which is cheaper than milk in many localities.

Ozone works for the sterilization of drinking water have been erected in Germany, France, Italy and Russia.

Nuremberg, in Germany, has been preparing to celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of the advent of the picture postcard.

RACES POSTPONED COLD AT JUAREZ

Public Taking a Rest While the Bookmakers Are Chafing—Entries and Selections.

EL PASO, Texas, Jan. 7.—The snowstorm of Monday was followed by frigid weather today and the races were again called off. The postponements are hard on the bookmakers, but they expect to recoup themselves when the producers come back with the easy bank rolls on Wednesday.

The World's Selections BY CENTAUR.

JUAREZ.
FIRST RACE—Ida Lavina, Blarney, Dick Dodge.
SECOND RACE—Bonnie Bard, Ben Brock.
THIRD RACE—Pickaminy, Mary Emily.
FOURTH RACE—Tarnell Girl, Annual Interest.
FIFTH RACE—Buss, Pedro, Good Intent.
SIXTH RACE—Set Back, Zoroaster, Balloff.

At Juarez.
JUANES, Jan. 7.—Tomorrow's entries:
FIRST RACE—Purse $300, 2-year-olds, 3 furlongs: 110 Helen Storey, 110 Meritorious, 110 Korfage, 110 Milton Roblee, 110 Alabama Ham, 110 Brevity, 110 Old Gitch, 110 Dick Dodge, 112 Galar, 112 Manganes, 112 Ida Lavina, 115 Blarney, 118.
SECOND RACE—Selling, 3-year-olds, 1 1/4 miles: 110 Lily Paxton, 110 Eboro, 110 Jack Ellis, 110 The Peet, 110 Polk, 110 Zinkland, 110 Ben Toca, 110 Bonnie Bard, 112 Judge Walton, 115.
THIRD RACE—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 5/8 furlongs: 110 Just Red, 110 Venetian, 110 Pickaminy, 110 Pipe Vision, 110 Twickenham, 110 The Fad, 110 Talbot, 110.
FOURTH RACE—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 5/8 furlongs: 110 Lavender Lass, 110 Tarnell Girl, 110 Roentgen, 110 Edmond A., 110 Annual Interest, 110 Gilroy, 110 Layminton, 110 The Fad, 110 Uncle Jim Gray, 110.
FIFTH RACE—Selling, 4-year-olds and up, 5/8 furlongs: 110 Nadamas, 110 Bredwell, 110 Buss, 110 S. V. Fought, 110 Des Coets, 110 Billy Meyer, 110 Good Intent, 110 Calumpanian, 110 Love Day, 110 Set Back, 110 Zoroaster, 110 Hanly, 110.
SIXTH RACE—Selling, 3-year-olds and up, 1 mile: 110 Western, 110.
Weather clear; track slow.

Artificial Cow's Milk Made From Beans.
An artificial milk which is said to contain all the elements of the best cow's milk and be useful for the same purposes, is being manufactured from soya beans according to an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association. It is also stated that this artificial product is more digestible than ordinary milk and is used for all cooking purposes and for infants can be made from it, but it will not produce butter. Being germ-free, it will keep longer than cow's milk. The process of making this soya-bean milk was discovered by three Germans who have since been perfecting the apparatus. The manufacture is said to be simple, and the product is always uniform. It can be sold at good profit for six cents a quart, which is cheaper than milk in many localities.

Ozone works for the sterilization of drinking water have been erected in Germany, France, Italy and Russia.

Nuremberg, in Germany, has been preparing to celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of the advent of the picture postcard.

KEENE'S TURF WINNINGS THREE MILLION DOLLARS

Late New York Owner Made World's Record Five Years Ago—Colin and Sysonby, Domino, Commando, Peter Pan, Maskette, Sweep and Ballot Big Winners.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—James R. Keene left behind him the greatest individual turf record in the history of the sport of kings. During the season of 1907 on the Jockey Club's tracks in this state the Keene horses won a total of $400,000, a world's record. In 1903 the Duke of Portland's thoroughbred won $26,782 on the English turf, a mark that was unsurpassed until Mr. Keene's racers topped it.

Trainer Rowe saddled twenty-nine stakes winners in 1907. The mighty Colin, by Commando—Pastorale, which in the opinion of Mr. Keene was at least the equal of the immortal Sysonby, won $16,000 that year. Colin, by the way, never suffered defeat. As a two-year-old he was victorious in the Futurity, Flushing Stakes, Brighton Junior, Champagne Stakes, Grand Union Hotel, Saratoga Special, Belmont Special, in his three-year-old campaign Colin won the Withers, Tidal, Belmont and other great events.

Peter Pan, by Commando—Cinderella, earned $8,525 in 1907, winning the Belmont, Brighton Handicap, in which he ran a mile and a quarter in 2:02.4; Brooklyn Derby and Tidal Stakes, in 1907, and the Kentucky Derby, in 1908, also was a big winner that year, with $8,525, his leading triumph being in the First Special, Election Day Handicap, Great Republic Stakes and Second Special. Ballot also won the Suburban, National Stakes and other important two-year-old fixtures. Domino won the diadem Withers in 1904, but Mr. Keene didn't have another winner of this stake until ten years later, when Delhi Hilary won in 1914. Domino's winnings exceeded $200,000.

In 1911 Mr. Keene's Foxhall won the Grand Prix in France, after which the horse was taken to England, where he captured the Cazetweth and Cambridge-shire Handicaps. Shortly after Mr. Keene bought the Derby winner, Blue Gown, for $20,000, but on the way across the Atlantic the stallion died. Many American-bred horses have raced in England in Mr. Keene's name and with brilliant results. Recently H. F. Whitney purchased a number of Castleton yearlings which he imported to the United States. It is estimated that the total earnings of the American and English stakes exceeded $2,000,000.

Keene was caught napping when the barrier went up. Mr. Keene's Commando, by Domino, won the Brighton Junior in 1900, also the Great Trial and Junior Champion, while the following year his best race was with the Belmont Stakes, worth $11,000. The Keene stable also turned out another winner of the Belmont in Delhi, which galloped home in 1904. In addition to Delhi and Peter Pan, Mr. Keene's Helmet scored in the rich Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga in 1908. Celt, by Commando—Maid of Erin, captured the Junior Champion Stakes in 1907 and the Brooklyn Handicap in 1908, following the success of Colroy, which finished first in the famous Gravesend classic in 1907. Celt in 1905 and Superman in 1907.

Keene was one of the best breeders ever bred at Castleton. He won the Futurity, the Great Filly Stakes, the Spinaway at Saratoga and the Matron Stakes at Belmont Park in 1907, while the following year with the Laidie Mervin, an Alabama and other three-year-old filly stakes. For three years, Keene was the champion three-year-old colt, was talked of, but nothing came of it.

Domino was Mr. Keene's first Futurity winner in 1904, the money value being $48,500. After Colin and Maskette had won this big event Sweep made the fourth winner in 1907. Sweep captured the National Stakes and other important two-year-old fixtures. Domino won the diadem Withers in 1904, but Mr. Keene didn't have another winner of this stake until ten years later, when Delhi Hilary won in 1914. Domino's winnings exceeded $200,000.

In 1911 Mr. Keene's Foxhall won the Grand Prix in France, after which the horse was taken to England, where he captured the Cazetweth and Cambridge-shire Handicaps. Shortly after Mr. Keene bought the Derby winner, Blue Gown, for $20,000, but on the way across the Atlantic the stallion died. Many American-bred horses have raced in England in Mr. Keene's name and with brilliant results. Recently H. F. Whitney purchased a number of Castleton yearlings which he imported to the United States. It is estimated that the total earnings of the American and English stakes exceeded $2,000,000.

Keene was caught napping when the barrier went up. Mr. Keene's Commando, by Domino, won the Brighton Junior in 1900, also the Great Trial and Junior Champion, while the following year his best race was with the Belmont Stakes, worth $11,000. The Keene stable also turned out another winner of the Belmont in Delhi, which galloped home in 1904. In addition to Delhi and Peter Pan, Mr. Keene's Helmet scored in the rich Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga in 1908. Celt, by Commando—Maid of Erin, captured the Junior Champion Stakes in 1907 and the Brooklyn Handicap in 1908, following the success of Colroy, which finished first in the famous Gravesend classic in 1907. Celt in 1905 and Superman in 1907.

Keene was one of the best breeders ever bred at Castleton. He won the Futurity, the Great Filly Stakes, the Spinaway at Saratoga and the Matron Stakes at Belmont Park in 1907, while the following year with the Laidie Mervin, an Alabama and other three-year-old filly stakes. For three years, Keene was the champion three-year-old colt, was talked of, but nothing came of it.

Domino was Mr. Keene's first Futurity winner in 1904, the money value being $48,500. After Colin and Maskette had won this big event Sweep made the fourth winner in 1907. Sweep captured the National Stakes and other important two-year-old fixtures. Domino won the diadem Withers in 1904, but Mr. Keene didn't have another winner of this stake until ten years later, when Delhi Hilary won in 1914. Domino's winnings exceeded $200,000.

In 1911 Mr. Keene's Foxhall won the Grand Prix in France, after which the horse was taken to England, where he captured the Cazetweth and Cambridge-shire Handicaps. Shortly after Mr. Keene bought the Derby winner, Blue Gown, for $20,000, but on the way across the Atlantic the stallion died. Many American-bred horses have raced in England in Mr. Keene's name and with brilliant results. Recently H. F. Whitney purchased a number of Castleton yearlings which he imported to the United States. It is estimated that the total earnings of the American and English stakes exceeded $2,000,000.

Keene was caught napping when the barrier went up. Mr. Keene's Commando, by Domino, won the Brighton Junior in 1900, also the Great Trial and Junior Champion, while the following year his best race was with the Belmont Stakes, worth $11,000. The Keene stable also turned out another winner of the Belmont in Delhi, which galloped home in 1904. In addition to Delhi and Peter Pan, Mr. Keene's Helmet scored in the rich Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga in 1908. Celt, by Commando—Maid of Erin, captured the Junior Champion Stakes in 1907 and the Brooklyn Handicap in 1908, following the success of Colroy, which finished first in the famous Gravesend classic in 1907. Celt in 1905 and Superman in 1907.

Keene was one of the best breeders ever bred at Castleton. He won the Futurity, the Great Filly Stakes, the Spinaway at Saratoga and the Matron Stakes at Belmont Park in 1907, while the following year with the Laidie Mervin, an Alabama and other three-year-old filly stakes. For three years, Keene was the champion three-year-old colt, was talked of, but nothing came of it.

Domino was Mr. Keene's first Futurity winner in 1904, the money value being $48,500. After Colin and Maskette had won this big event Sweep made the fourth winner in 1907. Sweep captured the National Stakes and other important two-year-old fixtures. Domino won the diadem Withers in 1904, but Mr. Keene didn't have another winner of this stake until ten years later, when Delhi Hilary won in 1914. Domino's winnings exceeded $200,000.

In 1911 Mr. Keene's Foxhall won the Grand Prix in France, after which the horse was taken to England, where he captured the Cazetweth and Cambridge-shire Handicaps. Shortly after Mr. Keene bought the Derby winner, Blue Gown, for $20,000, but on the way across the Atlantic the stallion died. Many American-bred horses have raced in England in Mr. Keene's name and with brilliant results. Recently H. F. Whitney purchased a number of Castleton yearlings which he imported to the United States. It is estimated that the total earnings of the American and English stakes exceeded $2,000,000.

Keene was caught napping when the barrier went up. Mr. Keene's Commando, by Domino, won the Brighton Junior in 1900, also the Great Trial and Junior Champion, while the following year his best race was with the Belmont Stakes, worth $11,000. The Keene stable also turned out another winner of the Belmont in Delhi, which galloped home in 1904. In addition to Delhi and Peter Pan, Mr. Keene's Helmet scored in the rich Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga in 1908. Celt, by Commando—Maid of Erin, captured the Junior Champion Stakes in 1907 and the Brooklyn Handicap in 1908, following the success of Colroy, which finished first in the famous Gravesend classic in 1907. Celt in 1905 and Superman in 1907.

Keene was one of the best breeders ever bred at Castleton. He won the Futurity, the Great Filly Stakes, the Spinaway at Saratoga and the Matron Stakes at Belmont Park in 1907, while the following year with the Laidie Mervin, an Alabama and other three-year-old filly stakes. For three years, Keene was the champion three-year-old colt, was talked of, but nothing came of it.

Domino was Mr. Keene's first Futurity winner in 1904, the money value being $48,500. After Colin and Maskette had won this big event Sweep made the fourth winner in 1907. Sweep captured the National Stakes and other important two-year-old fixtures. Domino won the diadem Withers in 1904, but Mr. Keene didn't have another winner of this stake until ten years later, when Delhi Hilary won in 1914. Domino's winnings exceeded $200,000.

In 1911 Mr. Keene's Foxhall won the Grand Prix in France, after which the horse was taken to England, where he captured the Cazetweth and Cambridge-shire Handicaps. Shortly after Mr. Keene bought the Derby winner, Blue Gown, for $20,000, but on the way across the Atlantic the stallion died. Many American-bred horses have raced in England in Mr. Keene's name and with brilliant results. Recently H. F. Whitney purchased a number of Castleton yearlings which he imported to the United States. It is estimated that the total earnings of the American and English stakes exceeded $2,000,000.

Keene was caught napping when the barrier went up. Mr. Keene's Commando, by Domino, won the Brighton Junior in 1900, also the Great Trial and Junior Champion, while the following year his best race was with the Belmont Stakes, worth $11,000. The Keene stable also turned out another winner of the Belmont in Delhi, which galloped home in 1904. In addition to Delhi and Peter Pan, Mr. Keene's Helmet scored in the rich Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga in 1908. Celt, by Commando—Maid of Erin, captured the Junior Champion Stakes in 1907 and the Brooklyn Handicap in 1908, following the success of Colroy, which finished first in the famous Gravesend classic in 1907. Celt in 1905 and Superman in 1907.

Keene was one of the best breeders ever bred at Castleton. He won the Futurity, the Great Filly Stakes, the Spinaway at Saratoga and the Matron Stakes at Belmont Park in 1907, while the following year with the Laidie Mervin, an Alabama and other three-year-old filly stakes. For three years, Keene was the champion three-year-old colt, was talked of, but nothing came of it.

Domino was Mr. Keene's first Futurity winner in 1904, the money value being $48,500. After Colin and Maskette had won this big event Sweep made the fourth winner in 1907. Sweep captured the National Stakes and other important two-year-old fixtures. Domino won the diadem Withers in 1904, but Mr. Keene didn't have another winner of this stake until ten years later, when Delhi Hilary won in 1914. Domino's winnings exceeded $200,000.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—James R. Keene left behind him the greatest individual turf record in the history of the sport of kings. During the season of 1907 on the Jockey Club's tracks in this state the Keene horses won a total of $400,000, a world's record. In 1903 the Duke of Portland's thoroughbred won $26,782 on the English turf, a mark that was unsurpassed until Mr. Keene's racers topped it.

Trainer Rowe saddled twenty-nine stakes winners in 1907. The mighty Colin, by Commando—Pastorale, which in the opinion of Mr. Keene was at least the equal of the immortal Sysonby, won $16,000 that year. Colin, by the way, never suffered defeat. As a two-year-old he was victorious in the Futurity, Flushing Stakes, Brighton Junior, Champagne Stakes, Grand Union Hotel, Saratoga Special, Belmont Special, in his three-year-old campaign Colin won the Withers, Tidal, Belmont and other great events.

Peter Pan, by Commando—Cinderella, earned $8,525 in 1907, winning the Belmont, Brighton Handicap, in which he ran a mile and a quarter in 2:02.4; Brooklyn Derby and Tidal Stakes, in 1907, and the Kentucky Derby, in 1908, also was a big winner that year, with $8,525, his leading triumph being in the First Special, Election Day Handicap, Great Republic Stakes and Second Special. Ballot also won the Suburban, National Stakes and other important two-year-old fixtures. Domino won the diadem Withers in 1904, but Mr. Keene didn't have another winner of this stake until ten years later, when Delhi Hilary won in 1914. Domino's winnings exceeded $200,000.

In 1911 Mr. Keene's Foxhall won the Grand Prix in France, after which the horse was taken to England, where he captured the Cazetweth and Cambridge-shire Handicaps. Shortly after Mr. Keene bought the Derby winner, Blue Gown, for $20,000, but on the way across the Atlantic the stallion died. Many American-bred horses have raced in England in Mr. Keene's name and with brilliant results. Recently H. F. Whitney purchased a number of Castleton yearlings which he imported to the United States. It is estimated that the total earnings of the American and English stakes exceeded $2,000,000.

Keene was caught napping when the barrier went up. Mr. Keene's Commando, by Domino, won the Brighton Junior in 1900, also the Great Trial and Junior Champion, while the following year his best race was with the Belmont Stakes, worth $11,000. The Keene stable also turned out another winner of the Belmont in Delhi, which galloped home in 1904. In addition to Delhi and Peter Pan, Mr. Keene's Helmet scored in the rich Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga in 1908. Celt, by Commando—Maid of Erin, captured the Junior Champion Stakes in 1907 and the Brooklyn Handicap in 1908, following the success of Colroy, which finished first in the famous Gravesend classic in 1907. Celt in 1905 and Superman in 1907.

Keene was one of the best breeders ever bred at Castleton. He won the Futurity, the Great Filly Stakes, the Spinaway at Saratoga and the Matron Stakes at Belmont Park in 1907, while the following year with the Laidie Mervin, an Alabama and other three-year-old filly stakes. For three years, Keene was the champion three-year-old colt, was talked of, but nothing came of it.

Domino was Mr. Keene's first Futurity winner in 1904, the money value being $48,500. After Colin and Maskette had won this big event Sweep made the fourth winner in 1907. Sweep captured the National Stakes and other important two-year-old fixtures. Domino won the diadem Withers in 1904, but Mr. Keene didn't have another winner of this stake until ten years later, when Delhi Hilary won in 1914. Domino's winnings exceeded $200,000.

In 1911 Mr. Keene's Foxhall won the Grand Prix in France, after which the horse was taken to England, where he captured the Cazetweth and Cambridge-shire Handicaps. Shortly after Mr. Keene bought the Derby winner, Blue Gown, for $20,000, but on the way across the Atlantic the stallion died. Many American-bred horses have raced in England in Mr. Keene's name and with brilliant results. Recently H. F. Whitney purchased a number of Castleton yearlings which he imported to the United States. It is estimated that the total earnings of the American and English stakes exceeded $2,000,000.

Keene was caught napping when the barrier went up. Mr. Keene's Commando, by Domino, won the Brighton Junior in 1900, also the Great Trial and Junior Champion, while the following year his best race was with the Belmont Stakes, worth $11,000. The Keene stable also turned out another winner of the Belmont in Delhi, which galloped home in 1904. In addition to Delhi and Peter Pan, Mr. Keene's Helmet scored in the rich Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga in 1908. Celt, by Commando—Maid of Erin, captured the Junior Champion Stakes in 1907 and the Brooklyn Handicap in 1908, following the success of Colroy, which finished first in the famous Gravesend classic in 1907. Celt in 1905 and Superman in 1907.

Keene was one of the best breeders ever bred at Castleton. He won the Futurity, the Great Filly Stakes, the Spinaway at Saratoga and the Matron Stakes at Belmont Park in 1907, while the following year with the Laidie Mervin, an Alabama and other three-year-old filly stakes. For three years, Keene was the champion three-year-old colt, was talked of, but nothing came of it.