ENGLAND DEMANDS NAMES OF HEROES

Public Chafes Under Reticence of War Office-Unusual Deeds Done.

TOO MUCH ANONYMITY

Sir John French Only Person Familiar to Britons-Admired for Frankness.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Oct. 9 .- (Correspondence)-Englishmen are not prone to here worship yet they are chafing under the suppression of the names of soldiers and sailors who perform of soldiers and sailors who perform unusual feats. Mild statements are issued showing that Englishmen are diplaying remarkable courage under trying conditions, frequently offering up their lives without hesitation. Yet the names of the heroes seldom reach the English public.

No Need for Silence.

"Is there any special reason why the names of our heroes should be so carefully withheld from the knowledge of the public?" the Globe asked in a leading editorial which was similar to others appearing in the Lon-

edge of the public? the Globe asked in a leading editorial which was similar to others appearing in the London papers. "We have official stories recording deeds of which any nation might be proud. But when our hearts are glowing over the glorious tales it seems hard that we may not know who did the things which thrilled us. The deers are unmberless. The doers are always anonymous. Authorities seem to us to be making a mistake in suppressing names whose menson would stir the profoundest depths of local and family pride."

Whe Are Brave Mechanics?

Everywhere there is a feeling that the public is being robbed of its heritage by the elimination of the names of all leaders from the official statements. Eir John French's name is the only one which the public has become familiar with. And it admires him thru the frank statements he has made concerning fighting about Mons.

ATTRACTIVE GIRLS

This Condition Can Only Be Main-Red Blood.

It makes all the difference in the world to a girl whether she develop into a bright, healthy attractive woman or sinks into a sickly, unhappy, suffering semi-invalid.

The girl whose blood is poor and scanty-who is anaemic as the doctor terms it-starts life under too great a handicap. She is weaker and more frail than her companions who have rich, red blood. She is more easily fatigued in body and mind, and work able and nervous. Her heart palpilooks, health, and capacity for en-joying life. Abundant rich, red blood is the only thing that can restore good health to the many thousands of such girls. This rich, red blood can only be obtained through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have given thousands of weak, white-faced, blood. less girls, robust, vigorous health and high spirits. Here is a bit of proof. Miss Olive Gauvreau, St. Jerome, Que., says: "I have reason to be more than grateful to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, for they restored me to health after more than one doctor and many medicines had failed. I suffered as so many girls do from anaemia I was all run down, tortured with headaches, could not stand any exertion, and had no appetite, though of course I had to force myself to eat. I was in this condition for nearly two years, and although doctoring continually, seemed to be steadily growing worse, and I was very much discouraged and despondent. Finally a friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I discontinued all other medicines and did so. In the course of a few weeks there was no room to doubt that I had at last found the right medicine. My appetite returned, the headaches began to come less frequently, and color was returning to my face. The continued use of the pills for a little longer fully restored my health, and I have since been as healthy and active as anyone could wish. I cannot too strongly re-commend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to

The captains of ships which already of have docked declare they saw hundreds of persons leaving Ostend in small rowboats, hoping to reach some point on the French coast. Hundreds of others boarded little trawlers and sailboats which are still straggling into Dover. Their passengers often have been without food for 36 hours. Many small boats from Belgium are also putting in to Lowestoft and Folkestone. These craft are manned mostly by volunteers who know nothing of the English ports and head in wherever they can see docking facilities.

There are many Antwerp rerugees among the crowds at Dover. When some of these were asked if they would be willing to return to Antwerp in case arrangements for their repatriation can be completed with the German Government, they declared emphatically that they never would return so long as the Germans were in possession. COPELAND'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION

WINS CONFIDENCE BY ITS WONDERFUL CURATIVE POWERS.

MR. W. R. COPELAND.

Dear Sir—Now that I am well and strong again, I write to state that the fact I am alive today witnesses to the merit of your medicine.

My doctor, a specialist, said that I had the worst kind of consumption and that it was impossible for me to live. He gave me only eight to ten days before the disease would terminate fatally. He also said that it was no use in treating me, as I was too far gone.

I was left to die, but a friend of mine told me about your medicine and procured me a bottle. Without much hope, I tried it. It did wonders. First the weakening perspiration stopped and the food I took stayed in the stomach. After a second bottle, I commenced to regain my appetite and was up in a was at work and have been working ever since.

I wish everyone could know the worth of your medicine, especially those afflicted with consumption as I was, for I undoubtedly owe my life to its use, I will at all times cheerfully answer any correspondence, and you are at ilberty to publish this letter if you think it will help to recommend your medicine to others.

The remarkable power of this medicine marks it as one of the greatest discoveries of this century. Its work is only just started, but it is safe to say that its reputation will grow world-wide.

It is a blessing, as all who have used it testify. To the real "down-and-out" consumptive, the chronic sufferers from bronchial and lung troubles—it is something more than a blessing. To them it means the difference between happiness and misery, and sometimes life instead of a grave.

It is a medicine that is honest. No false claims are made for it. It is good, most beneficient for consumption has NEVER BEEN KNOWN. If you are troubled with bronchits and can't sleep at night for coupling—take this medicine. Your trouble will become a memory. If your throat or lungs are in any way weak or sensitive—take this medicine—and they will become strong and normal.

Cavities heal under its benign influence. Congesti and normal.

Emaciation, night sweats, poor appetite, inability to retain food in the stomach—all these effects of disease are mastered and the system built up under its curative and nourishing powers.
