The T. Eaton Company had very kindly lent the regiment 24 animals, for which the farmers of the northern townships had provided most of the fodder. The men were maintained from private subscriptions and collections, and but for that the camp would not have been able to exist. Food cost 47 cents per day for each man, and at the present time the regiment was in debt to the extent of $1000, but their obligations would cease after Dec. 12. School inspection.
At the request of the council, School Inspectors C. W. Mulloy, for North York, and G. L. Campbell, for South York, were present to give their views on the redistribution of the school inspectorate in the county.

ribution of the school inspectorate in the county.

Mr. Mulloy said that the annexation of certain parts of the county to the city had caused much trouble to the inspectors, as South York had become a smaller area than North York. To equalize the work, Mr. Campbell had agreed to place Georgina. Township under his jurisdiction. It was impossible, he said, to inspect more than 100 schools and do the work properly. In the county there were about 300 teachers, of which 187 were in South York, and, including continuation schools, 113 in North York. There was anough work in the county for three inspectors, but if the department of education would agree to forego one of the two visits they are supposed to make to each teacher he thought the inspectors would be able to continue the work for another year. By that time there was a possibility of a section of South York being annexed to the city.

ing annexed to the city.

Rules Too Stringent.

G. L. Campbell stated that the inspectors could not do the clerical work in connection with their position because of the large number of schools that had to be inspected. The rules laid down by the department of education required them to make 110 visits in one-half of a year, but he had found it impossible to keep to that limit. Mr. Mulloy and he had agreed to interview the officials of the education department to ascertain if a satisfactory arrangement could be made, by which one wist would suffice in schools where the teachers were competent and experienced. Both inspectors will report the result of the interview to the council at this session.

Road improvement.

The council requested the attendance of W. A. McLean, provincial engineer, at today's session to address the members on how the county will be affected by the province's good road scheme.

With the exception of a clause complaining of the inadequacy of accommodation for grand jurors in the city nall, where they had been compelled to vacate four rooms, the grand jurors' report was adopted. A number of the members were sceptical as to the jurisdiction of the council in the matter and considered it wise to take no action until certain that they had authority to do so. Road Improvement.

SENSATION IN BRAMPTON OVER FALSE INDICTMENT

Popular Citizen Charged With Burglary, Proves Alibi_May Sue for Damages.

BRAMPTON, Nov. 25.—Thos. Thau-burn, vice-president of the Excelsior Lacrosse Club, will entertain the members and officers of the Excelsior Lacrosse Club to a banquet at the Excelsior Rink parlors on Friday evening. The burglary which startled the town of Brampton some weeks ago was aired in the police court yesterday morning before Magistrate Crawford. At that time, it will be remembered, the home of Chas. Booth was entered, and the burglar was seen by the three occupants of the house. So sure was Henry Schooley, who accosted the man on the stair landing, that the midnight marauder was Frank Williams, a popular young man in town, that he had him arrested. The affair caused quite a sensation in town. After all the evidence was in, and Mr. Williams' family had positively sworn that he was not out of the house on the night in question, the magistrate homor-

Bible Class Movement.

A campaign is being conducted in East Toronto by the clergy of the different churches to get every young man in the district over 15 years of age to attend a Bible class. The idea is to have representatives from the different classes already conducted by the churches make a house-to-house canvass and obtain the names of any young men with the denomination to which they are attached. Representatives of the denomination to which they wish to belong will then look after them.

Such movements have been carried on very successfully in the States for some years past.

An address will be delivered to the Brotherhood of Calvary Baptist Church on Friday night by Controller McCarthy entitled "Social Service."

Mr. Hardy of Woedbine avenue, will organize an orchestra at a meeting which is to be held in the Y.M.C.A. on Thursday week.

TODMORDEN

There are several cases of distress reported in Todmorden and the residents of the locality are considering ways and means to relieve distress in the district. In conversation with The World last night a Todmorden ratepayer suggested that committees from the different churches and political and municipal organizations meet and form an association similar to the Social Service Commission in the city. similar to the Social Service Commission in the city.

"In this way," he said, "any cases reported could be investigated and dealt with by the committee and generous people would not be imposed on."

At the present time several citizens are helping families privately and it is thought that if the cases were taken up by an influential body work might be found for the unfortunate people.

Gangs of young fellows who hang around the street corners and shop from at an inght are the cause of numerous complaints from residents and storekeepers.

A meeting of the kirk session of the parish of St. Andrew's and St. Paul's. Vaughan Township, held on preparatory service night, was fraught with much good for the poor of the city. Routine business had been disposed of and the session was preparing to adjourn when the minister, Rev. Stanley Roberts, said: "We have an abundance of food for ourselves. Could we not do something for the poor of the city?" The response was worthy of the suggestion, and a few days later six hundred bags of potatoes reached Toronto from Vaughan, which are now being distributed to the poor by the social service department of the Presbyterian Church.

During the two hours' debate regarding the appointment of Fire Chief Thompson to the fire commissionership, the board of control was subjected to the most pointed criticism that has been launched against that body during the present year. A point that the aldermen made much of was the fact that the recommendation was really that of a minority of the board. Mayor Hocken explained his vote in favor of Thompson by declaring that favor of Thompson by declaring that he felt the council ought to have an opportunity of debating the issue, which was the same stand taken by Controller Church. Both argued that the Thompson appointment was really no reorganization at all. Controller McCarthy requested the aldermen to send the recommendation back to the board of control for re consideration. Spoil a Fine Record. "A disgrace," was the way Ald Singer characterized the board's action in sending on Thompson's name for consideration. The alderman recall-ed Ald. Spence's efforts at last council meeting to secure from the controllers the information as to whether other names had been mentioned by the board when they decided to send on recommendation to create the office of fire commissioner. "After each con-troller denying the fact that a man sending on to us the name of the present fire chief, it would appear to me that we cannot trust our board of control," said he. The alderman ended his criticism by declaring he re-gretted that, after a fine year's record the board should finish up the yea by sending on such a weak-knee proposition as the one in question.

"In my two years of office I don't rethat of the British army our cordial appreciation and grateful thanks for member ever having seen a weaker showing by a board of control," said he.

Alderman Maybee in opposing the appointment said: "To take the present fire chief from his position and merely increase his salary and call him recommissioner is no reorganization at all." The alderman declared that as an efficient fire-fighter, the chief had few equals, but to properly represent the feeling of the citizens, he thought the members must see to it that really proper reorganization was car
