Out-of-Town Visitors. The Saturday before Thanksgiving Dineen's store was crowded all day long—upstairs and downstairs—by out-of-town shoppers, adding to the crowds of city people making last purchases before the holiday.

Recent reports to British sources of the attack on a British tanker, bound from Tuxpan, in the Mexican oil fields, strengthen the belief of the agents that the attacking ship was manned by Germans and carried one gun.

After a quiet night and morning, the enemy artillery displayed activity in canonading Furnes, our trenches in the outskirts of Dismude and Oortkerke, as well as Nieuwcapelle. There was an engagement with bombs in the direction of the ferryman's house, in addition to our answering and sustained retaliatory fire we directed our fire on several of the enemy's works.

Announcement was made yesterday of the sinking by British submarines in the Baltic of a German naval collier, and the damaging of the ore steamer Germania.

James Couzens Resents Interview on Allied Loan Given by Henry Ford.

CHATHAM, Ont., Oct. 12.—James Couzens, who is reported to have resigned as president and general manager of the Ford Motor Car Co., Detroit, in protest against Henry Ford's recent statement decrying American participation in the allied war loan, was born in this city, and is known to be warmly sympathetic towards the allies. He joined the Ford Co. at its inception, and has been greatly instrumental in building up the business. He is many times a millionaire. He is well known here, and frequently visits in the city.

Our efforts with Roumania were partially successful. Roumania, the people of which country frequently manifest French sympathies, was not unfavorable to the re-establishment of the Balkan alliance. Her partial mobilization permitted her to repulse any threatened aggression—defend herself against German pressure and oblige with the closest attention events along the frontier, both Austrian and Bulgarian.
