

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xvii

CHAPTER VIII.

WRONGS OF FRAUD, BAD FAITH, AND OPPRESSION.

I. Deceit.

	PAGE
Nature of the wrong	287
Concurrent jurisdiction of common law and equity	287
Difficulties of the subject: completion with contract	288
Questions of fraudulent intent	289
Fraud of agents	290
General conditions of right of action	290
(a) Falsehood in fact	292
Misrepresentations of law	293
Falsehood by garbled statements	294
(b) Knowledge or belief of defendant	295
Representations subsequently discovered to be untrue ..	298
Reckless assertions	300
Breach of special duty to give correct information	300
Estoppel. Burrowes v. Locke : former supposed rule of equity	301
(c) Intention of the statement	303
Representations to class: Polhill v. Walter	304
Denton v. G. N. R. Co.	304
Peck v. Gurney	305
(d) Reliance on the representation	306
Means of knowledge immaterial without independent inquiry	307
Perfunctory inquiry will not do	308
Ambiguous statements	309
(e) Lord Tenterden's Act	310
Equity and law under Judicature Acts	311
Misrepresentation by agents	312
Liability of corporations herein	314
Reason of an apparently hard law	315

II. Slander of Title.

Slander of title	316
Recent extensions of the principle	317
Trade marks and trade names	320
Unfair competition	322

III. Malicious Prosecution and Abuse of Process.

Malicious prosecution	323
Malicious civil proceedings	326