

CHAPTER XI.

Government of Lower Canada. Governors. Executive and Legislative Councils. House of Assembly. Provincial Parliament. Canadian Orators. Oath of a Member. Debates. Ignorant Members. Anecdote of a Legislator. Laws of Lower Canada. Courts of law. English and French Laws. The Rights of Seigniors. Feudal Tenures. Coutume de Paris. Fiefs. Succession to Estates. Division of Property. Wife's Dower. Community of Property by Marriage. Timely Interference of a Quarter Cask of Madeira, and Piece of Russia Sheetting, in the Purchase of a House. Arrests. Canadian Lawyers. Anecdote of a Governor. Evil Consequences of being at Law. Tedious Laws. Chief Justice Allcock. Attorney-General. Receipts and Expenses of the Government. Forges of St. Maurice. Taxes. Turnpikes. Page 179

CHAPTER XII.

Commerce of Lower Canada. Settlement of the French in the Country. Situation of the Colony in 1765. Improper Conduct of the British Traders. Dissatisfaction of the Canadian Noblesse and Peasantry. General Murray's Letter to the Lords of the Council. Table of Imports and Exports of Canada, from 1754 to 1807. Progressive Increase of Commerce. Wheat. Exports of 1808. Residence of the Governor-general, necessary for the Welfare of the Colony. Fur Trade. Mr. M'Tavish. North-West Company. Michillimakinak Company. Outrage committed by the Americans on Lake Ontario. 213

CHAPTER XIII.

Trade between Canada and the United States. Burlington Memorial to Congress. American Merchants settling at

es. Barren Soil.
Want of Enter-
hemselves on the Shores of the St.
ents. Beautiful
nip. Clearing of
e seen in Canada.
ugh Treatment of
. Page 129

ments reconciled.
er of Inhabitants.
cotch Emigrants.
the French Habi-
Houses. Cleanly
Habitant House.
antry. Anecdote
Rum. Fracas in Market-People.
ed Dress of the
. 141

the Stove. Man-
General Defi-
ng a Knowledge
oughout the Pro-arioles, Covered
f the Habitans.
in Days. Vanity
uperstition of an
Corrupt French
Habitans 162