TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR HAMILTON CAR MEN GO OUT NO CARS RUN ON TWO LINES

Failure of Cataract Power Co. to Give Effect to Award of Arbitrators Cause of Strike Involving 160 Men—Radial May Join Movement in Sympathy.

On strike—Employees of Hamilton and Hamilton and Dundas Railways and Hamilton and Dundas Railways. Cause of strike—Dispute over hours and alleged attempts of Cataract Power Company, which controls the railways, to break up the union. Three weeks ago the report of the arbitrators was presented, giving the men an increase in wages and a more satisfactory schedule. The company asked for three weeks to arrange the schedule, and failed to put it into effect when the time expired.

Hamilton, Nov. 4.—(Special).—The Hamilton street railway employees went out on strike this morning. The employees of the Hamilton and Dundas lines, another Cataract Power Company line, went out in sympathy.

The radial and the Hamilton, Grimsby and Beamsville Railways, the other two Cataract power lines, are not affected yet. The latter is not mixed up in the fight at all, but efforts will probably be made to get the Radial men to go out.

The radial was operated to-day, but not a wheel turned on either the street railway or the Hamilton and Dundas lines. This company made no effort to operate either the street railway or the H. & D. line, but it is claimed that it will make an attempt to operate both lines in 19 hours' work during 12 consecutive hours.

The day passed off quietly, and there was no disturbance of any kind. There are about 160 men involved. The trouble is caused by a dispute over hours and the alleged efforts of the company to break up the union. The matter has been hanging since August, when the agreement under which the men worked expired. The men were unable to negotiate a new agreement and prepared to strike. It looked so much like trouble that the company made a request for the protection of the militia.

A rupture was averted by an agreement to arbitrate. The arbitrator made an award granting the men an increase of wages, and also a better schedule. Under the old system some of them had to report at 6 o'clock in the morning, and did not get in their ten hours until about midnight. The award of the arbitrators was that the runs were to be arranged so that the men would get in 19 hours' work during 12 consecutive hours.

The company asked the men to give three weeks' time in which to arrange for the new schedule. The three weeks expired last Thursday, and the company, also it put the new arrangements into force on some of the lines, failed to do so on the belt line. The reason it gave was that it could not get sufficient men.

At 4 o'clock Sunday morning, after being in session from midnight, there were 130 present. The company offered to put on the old schedule of hours at the increased rate of wages. It was moved and seconded that this offer be accepted. The mover and seconded were the only ones to vote for it and the other 123 voted against it.

The decision to strike was reached on the same division. The officials of the company said to-day that they did not know when they would try to operate the tied-up lines. All they would say was that they would use the Radial to carry work to the east end factories in the morning.

According to reports that have reached the men, however, a gang of 14 strike-breakers has been imported. One story is that they were brought in from Buffalo. If the men find this to be true they will attempt to have them all deported. Another story is that the gang came from Montreal and are, therefore, out of the reach of the alien law.

STUDENT'S SUDDEN DEATH STRICKEN AMONG FRIENDS

After Participating in Debate, Harry Daly Collapses With Cerebral Hemorrhage.

While attending a students' debate at 185 Seaton-street on Saturday night, Henry A. Daly, a medical student of Toronto University, was taken suddenly ill. Two doctors were called, and they pronounced him to be suffering from hysteria. Yesterday morning his condition became so acute that he was removed to St. Michael's Hospital, where he died shortly before noon from hemorrhage of the brain.

It appears that the young man had been invited to attend the debate by a friend, V. Whitmot, and had hardly sat down after making a short address when he was noticed to be acting peculiarly. He was taken out into the fresh air, but this did not improve his condition. Dr. Carlyle of Seaton-street was called in about 10 o'clock, and pronounced him to be suffering from hysteria, and expressed the opinion that he would be all right in an hour. At 1 o'clock his condition had grown worse, and Dr. Carlyle being out, Dr. Hutchinson of Sherbourne-street was then called.

Dr. Hutchinson pronounced the same opinion as Dr. Carlyle, and said that the further statement of the Star, which said that Daly was suffering from cerebral hemorrhage, was probably brought on by acute indigestion.

Towards 7 o'clock on Sunday morning, Dr. Hutchinson was again called. He found Daly in a very bad condition, and he was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, where he died at noon. He was the son of Dennis Daly, retired merchant.

He was in his third year in medicine, having graduated with a B.A. degree in arts. He was vice-president of his year class, and had occupied other offices in the gift of his fellow students, among whom he was very well known and popular. He also sang in the choir in Parkdale Methodist Church.

Deceased was strongly built and stood about 1 inch in height. He leaves two brothers, Arthur and Clarence, in the city, who live with an aunt, Mrs. Kennedy, at 39 Lansdowne-avenue. He roomed at 81 Pembroke-street. He attended the Argos-Tiger football game Saturday afternoon. He complained then of feeling unwell.

The remains will be taken to Napanee this morning. Daly arrived in the city yesterday.

PREMIER WHITNEY'S REPLY TO ORANGE CRITICISM OF APPOINTMENT

Sentinel's Attack is "Unreasonable and Unfair"—Many Roman Catholic Teachers—Further Denial of Cabinet Dissension is Made.

Premier Whitney on Saturday had his attention directed to an "attack" on the government in the columns of the Orange Sentinel in the appointment of Dr. C. B. Coughlin, of Peterboro, as superintendent of the Belleville Institute for Deaf and Dumb.

The government is pretty well used by this time to attacks just as unreasonable and unfair as that of the Sentinel," said Hon. Mr. Whitney. "Dr. Coughlin is one of the finest personalities of my acquaintance, and I have no doubt whatever of his success in his present position. His qualification is in one respect unique; he has had the experience both of a public school and high school teacher, and is one of the considerations which weighed with the government, and the necessity of having a medical man was another. Fault is found because the institute at Belleville is an educational institution. Why, there is hardly a county in Ontario without one or more Roman Catholic teachers in the public schools, and the principal of the Ottawa Normal school is a Roman Catholic. I hope that the future will show that the teachers of all our educational institutions will receive appointment without reference to, or on account of, their religious views.

"A few weeks ago a Roman Catholic newspaper published a list of about a dozen Roman Catholic teachers in the County of Hastings, all of whom it was alleged had been dismissed from public office, and their places filled by the appointment of Orangemen. I have no doubt whatever that the next Protestant appointment we make will bring down upon us similar denunciations and then, further on, should we find it proper to appoint a Roman Catholic to some other position we will be attacked for that also.

The Avulserius of it.
"It seems that another mortal sin I have committed, according to a correspondent of the Sentinel, is that I attended a Roman Catholic picnic at Belleville last summer on the invitation of Rev. Father Twomey, whom I have known for many years. With regard to this I am addressed in the following language: 'These gentlemen could one for Mr. Whitney. Prominent Conservatives stood aloof from him. There was not a baker's dozen shook hands with him that day. They were disgusted that he should lend himself to the Roman Catholic church.' I had not believed that a man could be found in this Province so bigoted as to make such a statement. I am surprised that a reputable newspaper would publish them.

"In the meantime we must bear up under the swinging back and forth of the pendulum of attack in the manner I have just stated. I am endeavoring to do our duty as we see it."

Emphatic and Exclusive.
Hon. Mr. Whitney, asked if he had noticed the reply of the Toronto Star to his denial of the alleged clash in the cabinet, said: "As I remarked the other day, the question of power is a very serious one and therefore I must refer to the further statement of the Star. But I repeat there was no foundation for the assertion in the Star of Friday last as to a clash or friction between the cabinet or between Hon. Adam Beck and myself. And not only was there no such clash or friction between Mr. Beck and myself on Friday last, but there was no such clash or friction between Mr. Beck and myself on any previous day.

"This statement of mine I desire to be applied to the statement of the Toronto Star, and reaching back and including the day of the formation of the cabinet, and let me add that this includes the entire twenty-four hours of each and every day I have indicated."

WALL CRUSHES FIREMEN
ONE DEAD, FOUR BURNED
Were Working Close to Building, When It Collapsed.

New York, Nov. 4.—One fireman was killed and several others injured, four of them seriously burned, in a fire to-day that caused a money loss of $75,000 in the building occupied by the New York Vitrified Tile Co. and the Pittsburgh Steam Laundry in Brooklyn.

The dead fireman was James W. McCosker, an engineer, aged 35 years, and all the injured were members of his engine company.

They were working close to the side of the burning building when a wall collapsed and buried them under tons of brick. McCosker was dead when taken out. It is believed that the others will recover.

Prosecution is Delayed Until Commission Ends

Then Policyholders Will Begin to Get After Directors of Companies Who Haven't Done as They Ought to Do.

A meeting of the Policyholders' Association of Canada, held in the Queen's Hotel on Saturday evening, was called for the purpose of appointing a committee to co-operate with counsel, I. H. Hellmuth, K.C., and George R. Geary, in the presentation of the case of the policyholders before the Dominion insurance commissioners.

Wm. Robbins, Walkerville; F. A. Reid, London; W. S. B. Laurie, and G. T. Ronald, Toronto, were appointed to a committee to co-operate with counsel, I. H. Hellmuth, K.C., and George R. Geary, in the presentation of the case of the policyholders before the Dominion insurance commissioners.

On the advice of counsel these proceedings should be taken against the companies which have shown discrimination against policyholders, and where considered by the directors, and where the action of the international committee in cauloning policyholders against signing any proxies issued by these companies was endorsed.

W. S. P. Laurie presided, and there was a good attendance. A meeting of the directors is to be held next Saturday evening when representatives from Winnipeg, Walkerville, London, Ingersoll and Montreal will be present.

So far the larger policyholders are showing the greatest interest in the work of the association, and there are more holders of from $50,000 to $100,000 policies among the members than of $10,000. The work done is entirely gratuitous, no remuneration of any kind having been given the officers. A wider interest will probably be taken, as the association becomes more generally known.

HEARST HEAVEN INSPIRED AND IS IRRESISTIBLE, SAYS COCKRAN

After Strenuous Week of Campaigning, Candidates Rest—Democratic Nominee Refuses to Address Sunday Gathering in His Interests.

New York, Nov. 4.—The two candidates for governor of New York, Chas. E. Hughes and W. R. Hearst, rested to-day after their strenuous campaigning last week. Both are scheduled for a number of speeches to-morrow in Manhattan.

The usual "Sunday before election" gathering under the auspices of Tammany was held in Harlem. The speakers included Congressman W. Bourke Cockran and Francis Burton Harrison. Mr. Cockran said that he believed the political movement headed by Mr. Hearst to be "inspired by God and therefore irresistible."

A messenger sent to the home of Mr. Hearst with the request that he address the meeting returned with the reply that the candidate would not under any circumstances address a Sunday meeting.

Election officials and the police department are making thoro preparations to avert frauds and maintain order at the polls.

It has been a campaign of personalities rather than policies, of men instead of measures, and it has stirred the voters of the empire state from end to end. For vigor and vituperation it has been without precedent among this state's campaigns and for persistence of appeals for votes by the two candidates it stands alone. National issues aside from the so-called "trusts" have been entirely ignored and state issues have scarcely received passing mention. Sensational charges have been injected into the canvass from time to time and interest has been kept at the highest pitch for several weeks.

The close of the campaign finds a political situation unprecedented in this state and which has caused heavy losses to those who have been watching the trend of affairs admit that the usual sources of political prognostication are all but worthless. Every line has been broken, as seldom before.

Workingmen for Hearst.
Mr. Hearst claims the practically universal support of union labor and the Independent Labor Party, and that he has so broken down the Republican organization up-state as to make impossible the high Republican majority heretofore won by the Bronx to wipe out the Democratic plurality in Greater New York.

Mr. Hughes and the Republican campaign managers are sorely distressed that there has been defection from the Republican ranks among the laboring classes, but asserts that this loss is more than offset by the promised support of the "old line Democrats."

Max F. Himsen, political manager for W. R. Hearst, gave out a statement to-night in which he declared that Mr. Hearst will win this election by 200,000 votes.
