Hamilton.

The weekly draft for the Railway Construction Training Depot at Hamilton went forward today from the Service Company, Canadian Engineers, at Carling Heights Camp.
The detachment, which was 25 strong, left at 7:25 a.m. via C. P. R. in charge of Capt. R. Garrett, and the men will continue their training in railway work at Hamilton.
What will probably be the last of the Forestry Corps to leave here for some time, leaves via G. T. R. for Brockville tonight, four men composing the party. Recruiting for forestry work has been stopped, and with the dispatch of the last remaining "foresters" to the Forestry Training Depot at Brockville, no more will be seen here unless recruiting for the branch is resumed.

Several trades have been added to the list of those in one of which recruits for the Canadian Engineers must be quali-

RIGID INQUIRY FOR ALL CHARITY CASES IN INSTITUTIONS

City Determines on Check-$300 Voted G. W. V. A.

A rigid inspection of the need of charity will be made in every case sent to a hospital or other institution by medical men in the city. This was decided by the finance committee of the council. It has been the custom of physicians and others to send persons to these institutions, and the city had to pay the cost. Relief Inspector J. W. McCallum was of the opinion that the inspection should be made before the patients are sent be made before the patients are sent to an institution, so that the city could have some check on them. This will be one.

The Great War Veterans' Association as given a grant of $300. The sum of The Great War Veterans Association was given a grant of $300. The sum of $1,000 was asked for, but as the city cannot make a grant for more than $300, without the consent of the citizens, the smaller amount had to be voted.

GETS HOSPITAL DISCHARGE

Corp. William Varley, the returned soldier and Labor man, who spoke on behalf of George S. Gibbons here during the recent campaign, has been discharged from hospital, after he had been placed in confinement by the officers. His treatment created a big stir in Toronto, as politics were thought to be behind it. He was specifically charged with writing letters to the press, in which the treatment of soldiers coming home on transports was severely crition transports was severely criti

Corp. Varley was refused the right, during confinement, to see his family, and other indignities were alleged to have been done him.

It is said that he will probably shortly discharged from the service.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Last year a special appeal was made to the drygoods and ladies' ready-to-wear merchants to shorten the unreasonably long business hours on Saturdays, in order that the salesladies, salesmen and others employed in these lines might be relieved from serving from 8 a.m. to the very late hour of 10 o'clock on Saturday nights. We considered the request reasonable and hoped co-operation could be secured, but regret this was not attained. We would now respectfully ask that our valued patrons assist our employees to render satisfactory service to all customers by shopping early on Saturdays
