STREET CAR DASHES THROUGH GATES IN FRONT OF ENGINE

Bad Accident Was Narrowly Averted on C. P. R.

watching the derail, he said, and did not notice the gates down until the car struck them.

The gates were wrecked. The ear was stopped just as it reached the west-bound track, and was then backed up. A minute or so later the approaching train passed.

The motorman says he did not see the gates because he was concerned with the street car derail. Usually this is set against cars when the gates are down, but in this instance such was What of the Children.

Mrs. Houlden is broken-hearted, as are all the neighbors, as Trixie was a prime favorite with all who knew her.

The one feature of the fatality which will somewhat mitigate the autoist's offence in the eyes of the public is that Trixit was a little foxterrier. She was a valuable trick dog and the comfort of its aged owner, who is broken-hearted, as a constant when the gates are all the neighbors, as Trixie was a prime favorite with all who knew her.

The moral is tYhat the autoists who use this street as a speedway—and there are many of them—should have little more respect for the safety of the little more respect for the safety of the residents. There are more children on the street than there are dogs. Trixle, the fleetest of the dogs of the street, could not get out of the way of the speeding car. How, then, could one of the many children of the street be expected to do so? As the residents of the street say: "Who knows but the next victim may be one of the children."

Six Thousand Prisoners and Every Gun Fronting Them Captured by Currie's Men in First Day - Canadian Gunnery Is Styled "Marvelous."

WITH THE CANADIAN FORCES IN THE FIELD, Aug. 9-2 p.m.-(J. F. B. Livesay, Canadian Press correspondent)-(Delayed in transmission) .--It is now possible to sum up the broad results of the first day of the battle. By the evening of the first day, Thursday, the entire Canadian corps had attained its objectives, these being an average advance of fourteen thousand yards. The maximum advance was fifteen thousand yards, and this constitutes a record in this war for a first day's advance, not even excepting the German advance of last March. The total number of prisoners taken by the Canadians on the first day will reach six thousand. In addition, every gun fronting us was captured. So complete was the surprise that many of these still had on their muzzle-covers and their gunners were still in their durants. their dugouts.

It is such stories as that that make Canadian hearts beat proud-

The story of our wonderful infantry has yet to be told, but this incident may serve now:

A Canadian battalion, pushing on throughout the fog. came upon an nemy battery. Without a enemy battery. Without a moment's hesitation a company charged the position, took it, and immediately turned the guns on the fleeing enemy. Presently a message came over the field telephone to headquarters:

"For heaven's sake rush us some gunners. We are being held up here corridus, these beastly guns."
