

KEATING'S

Bugs, Fleas,
Flies, Roaches,
Mosquitoes, etc.
all killed by

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY
KINGSTON, ONTARIO

ARTS
Part of the Arts course may be covered by correspondence.

MEDICINE EDUCATION
APPLIED SCIENCE
Mining, Chemical, Civil,
Mechanical and Electrical Engineering

SUMMER SCHOOL NAVIGATION SCHOOL
July and August. December to April
28 GEO. Y. CHOWN, Registrar.

NO. 11 HOSPITAL UNIT RETURNING FROM SIBERIA

Troops Have Entrained at Vancouver Off the Monteagle.

VANCOUVER, June 20.—After swinging anchor in the night the C. P. O. S. troopship Monteagle, carrying 747 returned Canadian soldiers of the Siberian expeditionary forces, docked here early this morning.

A distinguished passenger was Major-General Emile who commanded the Canadian-Siberian forces. There were 58 officers in the party. About 200 of the men are from this district. The remainder left for the east today. The men report a very pleasant voyage across the Pacific.

Among the many details on board was No. 11 Stationary Hospital from London, Ont., under command of Lieut.-Col. J. L. Potter.

There is one more contingent of Canadian boys in Siberia. This party will be brought across on one of the Empress' boats now in the Orient.

Czecho-Slovaks Under a Soviet?

COPENHAGEN, June 20.—A Czecho-Slovak soviet republic has been established, according to a wireless dispatch from Budapest.

TORONTO TELY'S FRIENDS THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE

ROARING EDITOR CREATES RUMPUS

Sergeant-at-Arms and Policeman Called to Keep Him Quiet.

SCORNS H. C. OF L. PROBE

Says General-Manager of the Davies Company Is Too
Cute For Amateurs.

OTTAWA, June 20.—Proceedings before the court of living committee this morning were such as are rarely paralleled before a committee of parliament.

John R. Robinson, editor of The Toronto Telegram, had been called in to testify on the work of the committee, and from beginning to end it was one long cross-fire of altercation.

Mr. Robinson had not taken the oath many minutes before he had a sharp tilt with Mr. Devlin. A little later he and S. W. Nesbitt, M.P., were both standing and posturing at each other.

"Sit down!" Mr. Nesbitt shouted. "You have a face like a bull."

"You have less brains than a donkey!" retorted Mr. Robinson. "I won't sit down!"

"You have no sense of dignity!" Mr. Nesbitt shouted in reply.

The chairman interposed and suggested a policeman.

The committee decided to send for the sergeant-at-arms. Eventually, the sergeant-at-arms, wearing his sword, gravely walked up to the committee table, but he only stayed a few minutes. A policeman came into the room to take his place, and the proceedings with an amused smile.

Says He's Not on Trial.

When questioned by Mr. Robinson Robinson protested that if he had written anything libelous, either civilly or criminally, he was responsible to the courts. "I am not going to be put on trial before this committee," he called out, "for that article."

Mr. Devlin: "We want to get the facts. You are an incident before the committee."

"And you are an epoch!" Mr. Robinson called back.

Mr. Devlin proceeded with a series of questions relating to the editorial on the examination of Mr. Fox of the William Davies Company, by the committee.

"My point was," said the witness, "that Mr. Fox was much cleverer than you and that he did not present the whole situation. Mr. Fox, continued witness, did not give to the committee the fact that he was the head of the biggest chain of retail stores of the Dominion, and could have made a full disclosure of the whole commission."

Mr. Devlin: "Do you know as a matter of fact whether he could say so or not?"

Discredited by Hocken.

"No, it is your business to find out," Mr. Hocken entered the fray. "I want to say here," he said, "to keep Mr. Robinson quiet."

"I don't think it is possible," the chairman interjected, with a smile.

Mr. Hocken: "I want to give my knowledge of the practice of Mr. Robinson in The Telegram. I don't think a single statement in the paper is worthy of credence until it has been corroborated. If it were pertinent to the inquiry I could give instances where Mr. Robinson has printed stories which were absolute lies and which he would be liable before the printed them."

Here Mr. Robinson heatedly demanded if he would be given a chance to reply. He arose from his seat and to reply.

There was a sharp interchange mentioned above.

"This committee," the chairman called out, "is not going to be reduced to the level of a farce while I am here. You were subpoenaed to give evidence in relation to facts. The Parliament of Canada appointed this committee and gave it specific work to do, and we are going to do it. If Mr. Robinson has facts, we want to know what they are. Mr. Robinson is going to act in accord with the rules of Parliament, or we will find a way of compelling him to do so. We are not going to have a bear garden."

Calls for Policeman.

Mr. Reid: "I would move that we have a policeman."

There was an outburst of laughter and Mr. Reid protested that he was quite sincere.

Mr. Euler scorned the motion, and it was carried in the form that the sergeant-at-arms should furnish proper officers to maintain order.

Mr. Devlin intimated after a few more questions that he was through.

"Very well," Mr. Robinson remarked, turning in the direction of Mr. Hocken. "Now that the 'Bier has overflowed, bring on the loyons, Mr. Hocken."

In the course of further questioning, Mr. Robinson referred to the public. "Who are the public?" Mr. Nesbitt asked.

At this point the sergeant-at-arms came into the room and there was discussion as to Mr. Robinson's refusal to sit down earlier in the day.

Mr. Robinson declared that he had told Mr. Nesbitt he would not sit down, not the chairman.

The chairman: "I told you to sit down."

Mr. Robinson: "Well, I apologize to you. I did not understand you."

Bunch of Amateurs.

Mr. Robinson claimed that the committee had not investigated margarine. Margarine was made in this country for 12 cents, he said, and sold for 16 cents. He had been informed that it was a better article. He was questioned as to his knowledge given before the committee prior to the writing of the editorial. Mr. Robinson said he did not have the official text of the proceedings, but had written from newspaper reports and also from what he knew of the members of the committee. He thought he would be recognized as a public figure if he had not written the article and he would write more like it. He wrote the article knowing the facts and stood by every word of it. He had taken the position that a committee of amateurs was not competent to examine an expert like Mr. Fox. Mr. Euler proceeded to ask the witness to disprove the facts before the committee. Mr. Robinson replied by producing a printed statement and making further reference to margarine in England. "We are paying too much for railway services. You helped to squander money," he told Mr. Euler. "You may bluff the public, but we can't." Asked by Mr. Sutherland as to Mr. Fox's statement, that oleomargarine was as satisfactory as butter, Mr. Robinson said it would have been better if they had got the price of the manufacture of it. It was sixteen cents in England and 25 cents in Canada. He thought the packers honestly believed that they were philanthropists, but the committee failed in not examining Mr. Fox regarding the cost of operating the retail stores. If they had been as particular with Mr. Fox as they had been with him, they would have got more information.

Not Quizzed by Counsel.

Mr. Henderson, counsel for the committee, stated that he saw no reason to doubt the ability of the members of the committee to elicit any information they desired from Mr. Fox or Mr. Robinson, and he had taken no part in the examination if it doubted any good purpose could be served by continuing. Mr. Robinson was accordingly released from further examination.

Before the committee arose, Chairman Nicholson stated that he wished to amplify what had been said regarding press reports of the proceedings of the committee. He felt that the press had been reported "with all reasonable accuracy," but the headlines appeared to have a desire to feature a sensational. He had compared the official reports with the press reports sent out and he found that the body of the press reports was "perfectly legitimate."

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Conquered
Dyspepsia and Restored
His Health.

MR. ROBERT NEWTON.

Little Bras d'Or, C. B.

"I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headache, and did not sleep well at night. I lost so much weight—going from 155 pounds to 140 pounds—that I became alarmed and saw several doctors who, however, did me no good. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives.'"

"In a week there was improvement. The constipation was corrected; and soon I was free of pain, headaches, and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine, and now I am well, strong and vigorous."

ROBERT NEWTON.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial box 25c. At all grocers or sent postpaid, on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

DIVORCE COURTS FOR CANADA A REAL PROSPECT

Bill Is Given Second Reading
With Approval of Both Leaders.

R. C. MEMBERS OPPOSE IT

Argument Is That Redress
Should Be Available For the Poor as Well as Rich.

OTTAWA, June 20.—A strong probability that divorce courts will be established in Canada was forecast in the Commons today when, with the approval of Sir Robert Borden, M.P., it was sharply told by Mr. Nesbitt to sit down. There was a sharp interchange mentioned above.

"This committee," the chairman called out, "is not going to be reduced to the level of a farce while I am here. You were subpoenaed to give evidence in relation to facts. The Parliament of Canada appointed this committee and gave it specific work to do, and we are going to do it. If Mr. Robinson has facts, we want to know what they are. Mr. Robinson is going to act in accord with the rules of Parliament, or we will find a way of compelling him to do so. We are not going to have a bear garden."

Calls for Policeman.

Mr. Reid: "I would move that we have a policeman."

There was an outburst of laughter and Mr. Reid protested that he was quite sincere.

Mr. Euler scorned the motion, and it was carried in the form that the sergeant-at-arms should furnish proper officers to maintain order.

Mr. Devlin intimated after a few more questions that he was through.

"Very well," Mr. Robinson remarked, turning in the direction of Mr. Hocken. "Now that the 'Bier has overflowed, bring on the loyons, Mr. Hocken."

In the course of further questioning, Mr. Robinson referred to the public. "Who are the public?" Mr. Nesbitt asked.

At this point the sergeant-at-arms came into the room and there was discussion as to Mr. Robinson's refusal to sit down earlier in the day.

Mr. Robinson declared that he had told Mr. Nesbitt he would not sit down, not the chairman.

The chairman: "I told you to sit down."

Mr. Robinson: "Well, I apologize to you. I did not understand you."

Bunch of Amateurs.

Mr. Robinson claimed that the committee had not investigated margarine. Margarine was made in this country for 12 cents, he said, and sold for 16 cents. He had been informed that it was a better article. He was questioned as to his knowledge given before the committee prior to the writing of the editorial. Mr. Robinson said he did not have the official text of the proceedings, but had written from newspaper reports and also from what he knew of the members of the committee. He thought he would be recognized as a public figure if he had not written the article and he would write more like it. He wrote the article knowing the facts and stood by every word of it. He had taken the position that a committee of amateurs was not competent to examine an expert like Mr. Fox. Mr. Euler proceeded to ask the witness to disprove the facts before the committee. Mr. Robinson replied by producing a printed statement and making further reference to margarine in England. "We are paying too much for railway services. You helped to squander money," he told Mr. Euler. "You may bluff the public, but we can't." Asked by Mr. Sutherland as to Mr. Fox's statement, that oleomargarine was as satisfactory as butter, Mr. Robinson said it would have been better if they had got the price of the manufacture of it. It was sixteen cents in England and 25 cents in Canada. He thought the packers honestly believed that they were philanthropists, but the committee failed in not examining Mr. Fox regarding the cost of operating the retail stores. If they had been as particular with Mr. Fox as they had been with him, they would have got more information.

Not Quizzed by Counsel.

Mr. Henderson, counsel for the committee, stated that he saw no reason to doubt the ability of the members of the committee to elicit any information they desired from Mr. Fox or Mr. Robinson, and he had taken no part in the examination if it doubted any good purpose could be served by continuing. Mr. Robinson was accordingly released from further examination.

Before the committee arose, Chairman Nicholson stated that he wished to amplify what had been said regarding press reports of the proceedings of the committee. He felt that the press had been reported "with all reasonable accuracy," but the headlines appeared to have a desire to feature a sensational. He had compared the official reports with the press reports sent out and he found that the body of the press reports was "perfectly legitimate."

Object of the Bill.

The object aimed at in Mr. Nickle's bill is to establish divorce courts in provinces where they do not now exist by giving jurisdiction in divorce matters to the superior court, and to give jurisdiction to the exchequer court in divorce matters for the Dominion. The latter proposal, he explained, would free Roman Catholic judges of Quebec from the necessity of hearing divorce cases.

In the division today Roman Catholic members of the House voted against the bill, which received the support of D. McKenzie, Opposition leader, as well as the prime minister.

Arguments in favor of the bill advanced included the fact that, at present, while there should be no change in the grounds for which divorces are granted, they should be made possible for the poor as well as the rich.

Technical Education.

During consideration of the technical education bill at the evening session, Opposition members expressed the view that it might be better to pay the proposed grants for technical education directly to the provinces, as there was a possibility of interference with provincial rights.

Hon. J. A. Calder pointed out that an agreement in regard to the matter had been arrived at with the provinces at the conference with the provincial prime ministers.

During consideration of the technical education bill at the evening session, Opposition members expressed the view that it might be better to pay the proposed grants for technical education directly to the provinces, as there was a possibility of interference with provincial rights.

Hon. J. A. Calder pointed out that an agreement in regard to the matter had been arrived at with the provinces at the conference with the provincial prime ministers.

Challenge Cleanable Collar

A New One
"THE CANADA"

The choice of discriminating young men, who appreciate up-to-date style, coupled with economic cleanable features that save laundry bills. Get yours to-day.

35c at all dealers
3 for a Dollar

The Arlington Co. of Canada
63 Bay St. - Toronto

CP & OS

SAILINGS-RATES

MONTREAL-LIVERPOOL

	10 a. m.	Cabin	Third
Scotian	June 28	$85 up	$56.25
Scandinavian	June 29	$85 up	$56.25
Minerva	July 1	$90 up	$57.50
Gramplan	July 4	$85 up	$56.25
Corinthian	July 17	$85 up	$56.25
Tanais	July 29	$85 up	$56.25
War Tax		$5	$3.00

VANCOUVER-ORIENT
Quickest line across the Pacific.
PASSPORTS REQUIRED.
Apply Local Agents
H. M. MacCallum, Genl. Agt., Toronto.
CANADIAN PACIFIC
OCEAN SERVICES

OTTAWA LADIES' COLLEGE

NEW FIREPROOF BUILDING.

Academic work up to the first year university. Seven successful applicants for matriculation last year without failure in any subject. Music, art and handicraft, household arts, physical culture, etc. Ample grounds. The capital offers exceptional advantages.

For calendar apply to J. W. H. MILNE, B.A., D.D., President.
224 Law t.

Eczema Wash

A touch of D. D. D. to any Eczema sore or itching eruption and you'll be able to rest and sleep once more. Think—just a touch! Is it worth trying? Get a trial bottle today. Your money back if the first bottle does not relieve you.

W. T. Strong, Druggist.
Taylor's Drug Co., 6 stores.
Standard Drug Co., 4 stores, London.

D.D.D.

U. E. GILLEN IS GIVEN BIG POST IN TORONTO

MONTREAL, June 20.—Howard G. Kelley, president of the Toronto Terminals Railway Company, announces the appointment of U. E. Gillen as general manager of the company, with headquarters at Toronto, vice J. W. Leonard, deceased.

Mr. Gillen was assistant superintendent at London, 1904 to 1907.

KING REQUESTS NITTI TO ACT

Rome, June 21.—King Victor Emmanuel has requested Francesco Nitti, former minister of the treasury, to form a cabinet. The Giornale D'Italia announces semi-officially. Former Premier Nitti will be foreign minister. It is added.

YOUR WARMEST FRIEND

NUKOL

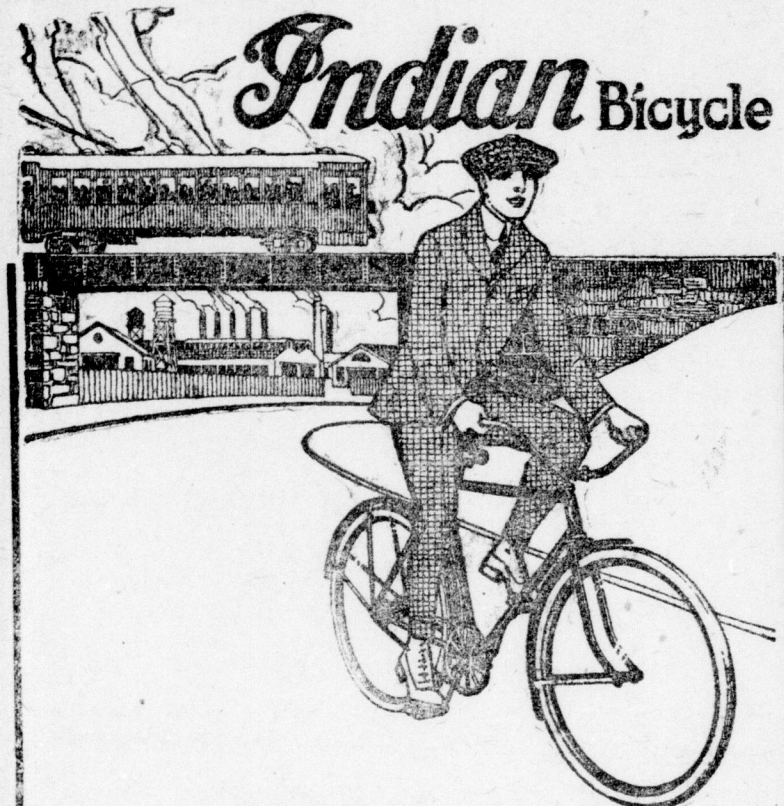

The Man Behind The Nukol Machinery

A. E. Hanley, bachelor of science in mining engineering, graduate of McGill University, has arrived in Toronto to install and operate the Nukol machinery. Mr. Hanley was formerly a superintendent of construction for Peter Lyall & Sons, of Montreal, which concern built the Parliament Buildings, Ottawa, and the new Union Station, Toronto. Mr. Hanley will start during the next few days to install the concrete foundation for the massive Nukol press, on a site of the Toronto harbor commission, on the Toronto waterfront. Before the Nukol engineer lays the foundation for this machinery, come to our local office and LAY THE FOUNDATION FOR AN INCOME. Get Nukol stock while it is only a dollar. As development follows swiftly after development, the price will go up.

Get stock now while it is only a dollar.

Nukol Fuel Co., Limited

CALL—WRITE—OR PHONE 1324
141 KING STREET, LONDON.

Indian Bicycle

For Economy and Health

BICYCLING on an Indian is a Profitable time-saver as well as a healthful recreation.

You can't beat bicycling on an Indian for fun. It puts new "pep" and "vim" in you—blows away the cobwebs and makes you glad to be alive.

But an Indian Bicycle saves you money, and time, too. To and from work it carries you swiftly and economically. Beats crowded cars—and leaves the nickels in your pocket. And for a holiday or Sunday spin—an Indian Bicycle makes life a picnic.

Your dealer has a long line of beautiful Indian models. Go in and see them.

BICYCLE & MOTOR SALES COMPANY
425-427 Wellington Street, London, Ont.

HENDEE MANUFACTURING CO., Limited
Makers of the famous Indian Motorcycle
Largest manufacturers of motorcycles in the world
SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

MALTESE CROSS TIRES

Every motorist demands a tire that will give the utmost service. After years of trying out their merits motorists choose Maltese Cross Tires because they give maximum mileage and minimum road trouble. Think what this means to you. Ask your neighbor who is using Maltese Cross Tires what he thinks of them. That's the best way to learn their true worth.

Gutta Percha & Rubber, Ltd.

HEAD OFFICES AND FACTORY, TORONTO.

BRANCHES: Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Fort William, Winnipeg, Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge, Vancouver, Victoria.

Famous Dunlop Race

26 Continuous Years

WORLD'S GREATEST BICYCLE RACE

IN LONDON---JULY 1st

Started in 1894, run without a single interruption ever since, carrying a prize list of 25 Regular Prizes, 3 Time Prizes, the Famous Individual Trophy, Team Shield and Medals, and prize for the first soldier and first boy under 15, to finish, the

Dunlop Trophy Race

IS CANADA'S BICYCLING CLASSIC

The 26th Annual will start and finish in the City of London, where the public can see it free of charge.

All the riders enter the race without having to pay any entry fee.

All the expenses in connection with running the race will be absorbed by the Dunlop Tire & Rubber Goods Co., Limited.

The prize list is unique in that each and every winner of a place is allowed to select his own prize from a list supplied by the Dunlop Company, who pay for all the prizes in cash.

Entry blanks are obtainable at all London Bicycle Stores, at the Dunlop local branch—342 Richmond street—and from bicycle dealers in all neighboring territories.

All entries should be addressed to:

ADVERTISING DEPARTMENT,
Dunlop Tire & Rubber Goods Co., Limited,
188 Booth Avenue,
Toronto, Ont.

and should reach Toronto not later than Friday morning, June 27th.

Dunlop Tire and Rubber Goods Co., Limited

HEAD OFFICE AND FACTORIES, TORONTO. LONDON BRANCH, 342 RICHMOND STREET.

Branches—Victoria, Vancouver, Edmonton, Calgary, Saskatoon, Regina, Winnipeg, Hamilton, Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, St. John and Halifax.