POLICE REPORT 900 THEFTS OF LIQUOR

Latest Theft. Reported Sunday Morning, Involves Several Thousand Dollars.

WINDSOR. Oct. 31.—With the theft reported to the police today of several thousand dollars' worth of liquor from the attic of a residence he was vacating on Ouellette avenue, by one of Windsor's best-known businessmen, and a high official in the local Liberty League, the Windsor police have promised that in future careful investigation of all liquor thefts will be made.

Over 900 Thefts.

More than 900 thefts of liquor have been reported to the border police during the last eight months. At first the thefts were such that their genuineness was often questioned, but during the last two months no small private stock of liquor has been safe, the police say. Houses are entered and supplies of liquor amounting to only three and five cases are being taken. The majority of thefts in the last two months have been genuine, and reduced to the thieves, the officers say.

All Liquor Gone.

The case reported today occurred after the case reported today o cate the thieves, the officers say.

All Liquor Gone.

The case reported today occurred after the family had moved practically all their furniture from the house they had been occupying to their new home. On their return this morning after sleeping in the new house they found their whole stock of liquor stored up ready for a long, long drought, and including 25 cases of Scotch whiskey. In addition to many other kinds of whiskies and fancy liquors, was gone.

Badly Disorganized. The Windsor police department is badly disorganized, and immediate apbadly disorganized, and important vac-pointments to fill three important vac-ancies will probably be made by the police commission during the next few days, members of the commission said on Saturday.

With the sudden death of Magistrate Miers, two vacancies are left in the county for magistrates, while the office of police chief for Windsor is still unfilled. Frank E. Dayton, Ohio, Nov. 1.—After a day of rest at his home here, Governor Cox was to leave today for Toledo for the last speech of his campaign.

Though the campaign virtually ended at Chicago on Saturday, the governor said he had agreed to make the formal close in Toledo on election eve, because party followers there regarded his appearance as good luck, asserting his only chance of defeat was when he failed to end his speaking engagements in that city. An American artillery officer who had spent a year in Russia and had been under fire at the Polish front told the correspondent he had seen the Poles 'plant their artillery in the most ridiculous places. On the exposed sites of hills and right in the open, when they could have readily concealed it and made it effective."

A neutral aviator who had flown over the front several times when "battles" were said to be in progress said what he saw of the fighting was "true remains keeping obout three hours." . 105 . 98 97 97½ .103½ 101½ 102¾ 150 Atlantic Sugar .. 76 290 Wayagamack ... 137 Bonds—

A number of Polish officers with whom the correspondent talked, said they were forced to admit the French saved the day, but the weakness of their officers was explained by the fact that in former to hold commissions in the army, either in Russian. German or Austrian Poland, and that the time had been too short to develop a staff of highly-trained of-ficers.
