ST. JOSEPH'S ENTERTAINMENT.

A delightful entertainment, entitled a "Jubilee Confederation," was given by the pupils of St. Joseph's Convent, St. Alban's street, in aid of the Italian Catholic kindergarten. The stall was decorated with tri-colored lights and flags, a large scroll indicating the jubilee dates, 1867-1917. The march of the "Maple Leaf" was played as the 124 pupils came onto the platform, every one dressed in white trimmed with blue and red, and bearing shields with the crest of one of the provinces. Dances, Highland flings, quadrilles and the minuet were on the program, which closed with the formation of the Union Jack and the singing of "Canada Forever," the tableau centring Canada, with the provinces radiating from her.

NO SALARIES FOR DRAFTEES

Sir William Hearst has intimated that it is improbable that the government will continue to pay the salaries of civil servants who are drafted into the army under the Military Service Act. It has been the policy of the government in the past, in order to encourage recruiting, to pay the salaries of those who enlisted voluntarily, but this will not likely apply to draftees.
