E. Not confined to the bedroom, this smart mauve satin pump. It has a heel and sole that permit its use with the teagown or with the elaborate rest-gown that occasionally finds its way to the drawing-room. The pump is comfortably lined with quilted sateen, and may be had, as well, in old rose, pink, brown. King's blue and pale blue. Sizes 3 1-2 to 2 Price $2.50 a nair. to 7. Price, $3.50 a pair.

F. Soft golden brown kid composes this smart little bedroom slipper, with quilted lining and silk pom-pom on the toe. It is obtainable also in black, red, pale blue, pink and white. Price, $1.65

G. "Kozy" is its name, and cosy is its nature, we may well say of this "high-cut" bedroom shoe of red, pink, lavender, or pale blue feet. It is featured in sizes 2 1-2 to 8. Price, $1.75 a pair.

H. An old rose, Belgian blue, grey or brown dressing-gown for which you want a pair of slippers? Then here they are—in suede, in any of the colors mentioned, with pom-pom of same tone on the toe. Sizes 2 to 7. Price, $1.65.

J. A delightful little quilted satin '(mule''—in black, limed with lavender. Note the half-Louis heel and turned sole. Sizes are 2 1.2 to 7, and price $3.50 a pair. -Second Floor, Queen St.

K. To get a complete vision of this very attractive-looking coat, imagine silver-grey brush wool, wonderfully soft and fine, with stripes of white bordering the collar, cuffs and lower edge. The same model is procurable, too, in a delightsome shade of Wedgwood green, in purple, in brown, and in mulberry, striped in every case in white. The price is $13.50.

L. A charming shade of rose is this coat labelled "L" -with vertical stripes of white in its collar and cuffs. It is knitted plain in heavy, soft yarn, making a splendid sweater for general, all-round wear. The same model may be had, too, in emerald, purple and Copenhagen blue. Price, $10.00.

Then it was that Ma'am'selle thought of Anne Upton, the little creature who had once be-friended her when she—Ma'm'selle Smith—was down on her luck.

THE SCRIBE

coats may go, but the coat of Hudson seal (seal rat) goes on forever as first favorite with her who wants a warm, fashionable wrap for all-the-time wear in Winter. This one to the left is a beauty. Made of careful-ly-selected skins, it falls straight from the shoulders, flaring out gradually to attain an easy fullness may be drawn up high, as its wearer here elects, or open in front and spread out in flat cape style on the shoulders. The lining is of mauve brocade, with alternate satin stripes of black and gold.

B. Do you motor a good deal in an open car? Per haps you drive it yourself? If so, give special heed to this swagger coat of tawny brown muskrat, beautifully marked, carefully striped, and topped off smartly with collar and cuffs of Hudson seal (seal rat). The lining is of green, brown and black brocade - a charming combination of color. And the price is $165.00.

C. When the collar of this Hudson seal coat is open it is converted into a deep sailor effect. Like the cuffs, it is of a superb piece of Alaska sable (skunk), and adds immense style and becomingness to the model. The belt of the Hudson seal (seal rat) across the semi-fitting back is one of the features of the season. Blue satin, patterned with life-size American Beauty roses, serves most delightfully as lining. The price is $285.00.

you if this comfy dressing-gown lies near your bedside. And it's such a dainty, likable gown, besides — fashioned of soft pink velour flannel, patterned with squares of pale blue, and little flecks of green, the edges being bound with pale blue satin ribbon, and the fronts fastened with blue cords and buttons. The same model may be had, too, in Copenhagen blue velour, bound with Copenhagen ribbon, grey velour bound with purple, and dark green with red. Price, $7.00. blue, with big conventional pattern in darker blue and white, the edges bound with blue satin. It may be had, too, in brown and in grey velour. Price, $5.00.

R. That perfect joy of & negligee — the soft, warm kimono of corduroy velvet! As worn by the Pretty Girl above, it is of a most delectable shade of baby blue, lined with white silkoline. And it may be had also in rose, Copenhagen and sky. Notice the three-quarter length kimono sleeve, the shawl collar and the pockets. The
