

Christian friends, let us regard everything in the light of the Judgment Day, and how lightly we shall estimate worldly treasures when our spirits hang in undecided balance between time and eternity! Let us so live and act that we may be welcomed with "well done."

I hope that our proceedings this evening will be leavened with the spirit of Christian love; that every sentiment may be an echo from the golden harp; and that all of us will be deeply impressed with the religious importance of the object we are assembled here to promote—the interest of our Diocesan Church Society—the prosperity of a branch of the Church of the living God.

The Report and the financial statement were then read by the Secretary, the Rev. D. B. Parnter, after which the following resolutions, having been ably proposed and seconded, were unanimously adopted:—

Moved by the Rector of Charlottetown, seconded by the Hon. T. H. Haviland;

That the Report now read be adopted, and printed under the direction of the Committee.

Moved by Rev. Theo. Richey, seconded by F. Brecken, Esquire;

That this meeting desires to express its sense of deep obligation to the Venerable S. P. G., and Colonial and Continental C. S., for their continued liberality in support of the Church in this Island.

Moved by Hon. Joseph Hensley, seconded by E. J. Hodgson, Esquire;

That the many mercies vouchsafed to us by Almighty God, during the past year, should encourage us to increased efforts in His cause.

Moved by Rev. J. W. Forsythe, seconded by Charles Palmer, Esquire;

That the thanks of this meeting are due to the collectors for their valuable aid in the interests of the Society; and that
