CHRISTIANIZED JEWS WHO RETAIN RACIAL FEASTS St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 27.—Jews, who have accepted Jesus Christ as the Messiah and have become communicants of the Protestant Episcopal church, may retain, if they desire, the Jewish national and racial customs and feasts, according to a ruling of the house of deputies of the church's general convention in session here.

The action was based on a resolution that had been presented by the Rev. Floyd W. Tompkins, of Philadelphia. It was asserted that there are in America hundreds of Jews who have accepted Christ and yet have hesitated to affiliate with Christian denominations because they do not care to abandon their racial custom.

Efforts to have women permitted to sit as delegates in the house of deputies of the general convention were abandoned when, on the heels of a rejection at the hands of the house of bishops, a lower house committee reported the proposal adversely.

QUALITY—PLUS WHEN purchasing your gifts it is a source of great satisfaction to remember the words of a well-known Justice of the Supreme Court, who recently made these remarks:

"I am as willing to pay for reputation in an article I buy as for the merchandise itself. There are instances of where articles of reputation can be supposedly duplicated for less than their price, but I am willing to pay for certainty of quality. When a man undertakes to build a reputation for his products he naturally guards it as he would his life."

Rapid as the growth of our business has undoubtedly been, we owe more to our unalterable standard of quality than we do to the quantity and variety of our wares.

We will mail our catalogue to any address immediately on receipt of inquiry
