OTTAWA, Nov. 11—A man giving his name as John Sandusky was arrested this forenoon by the local police, suspected of being one of the bandits who held up a street car about midnight and escaped with two satchels containing $800 belonging to the Ottawa Electric Company. The bags with the money, police say, were found in his possession in an apartment on Rideau street.

MONCTON JUDGMENT TUES

Judgement in the application of the calling upon the Premier and Government of Canada to use their good offices in the relief of industrial conditions in the two towns. The resolutions stated that the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company's plant at the special meeting of the board in the steel plant at Trenton, the Eastern Car Company, had been closed indefinitely and that the steel plant at Trenton was working only one third of the time, and that conditions promised to grow worse during the winter.
