"My name is Peggy Beal. I am twenty-nine years old. I live in Springfield (Ill.). I came to Kansas City with the intention of marrying Frank E. Warren Anderson. When I arrived I met him and we went to the Midwest Hotel together.

"He told me he was married, and that he was not divorced yet. Therefore, he could not marry me.

MAN BURNED WHEN GASOLINE FLARED

Montreal, June 5.—The explosion of a small pitcher containing gasoline resulted in Henri Robert, thirty-five years of age, of 129 St. James street, St. John's, suffering severe burns about the face, arms and hands in his garage. Robert was filling the tank of his motor-truck, and in order to do so was using a lantern and a small pitcher. He placed the lantern near the pitcher on the floor and before he could straighten up a gust of wind through the open door of the garage caused the flame of the lantern to set the gasoline in the pitcher on fire.

How Long Will a Boy's Suit Last

Of course, that "depends." It depends on the kind of care the boy will give it—and the kind of a suit it is.

Wear is not merely something the boy gets out of his clothes. Wearing quality must be put into the clothes to begin with.

M. R. A. Boys' Suits are made to stand the rough and tumble usage that healthy boys are bound to give them.

They're made to look well, too—and to keep looking well after months of hard wear. That's because they're so carefully tailored and made from such dependable cloths.

"Klotheslind" and "Jack O'Leather" Suits are well represented in our boys' stocks. Double cloth or leather at all points of strain—elbows, seat and knees give them wearing qualities you will wonder at.

Prices are very moderate—not a bit more than for ordinary suits.

11.00 to 25.50

Just now we are also showing some fine Navy Blue Suits in short trouser sizes. The styles are very smart—exactly what the boy will like best for school closing.

For Young Fellows Who Will Graduate

We have some great suits here. Lively models in navy blue—and a good variety to choose from. "Society Brand" Suits among them and other well known reliable makes. You'll say they're "winners."

We advise early selection.

PARENTS' BLUE LAWS FOR FLAPPERS

Members of League to Take Hand in the Social Life of School Boys and Girls.

New York, June 5.—Members of the Parents' League of Brooklyn have decided to take a hand in the social life of school boys and girls between the ages of 13 and 18 years by promulgating certain edicts calculated to counteract the danger invasion into the life of young girls. League members will see that these "blue laws" for the young are enforced in their own families and will also try to extend the movement to other Brooklyn homes.

Here are the rules for flappers:

1. Hours for evening parties are limited from 8.30 to 12. It's curfew after midnight.
2. Parties are to be held only on Friday and Saturday nights.
3. Simple, refined clothes are to be worn at all times.
4. Chaperones must be present at all parties.
5. Chaperones will accompany the girls home.
6. Censorship over the plays and movies to be attended.
7. Improper dancing forbidden.
8. No refreshments served after dances.
9. Not more than one party to be attended on the same evening.

Here are the rules which both boys and girls in Brooklyn must observe:

1. Entertain in small groups.
2. Serve very simple refreshments at parties.
3. All games must be supervised.
4. Use simple favors and no prizes.
5. Parties must end at 8.30 p. m.
6. Simple afternoon dress is to be worn on all occasions.
7. No movies or theatres except those recommended by the school or investigated and approved by parent.
8. "We can do nothing with the older girls and girls whose customs have become more or less established," said Mrs. Atto Affeld of 113 Willow street, Brooklyn, yesterday. Mrs. Affeld is president of the league. Girls over 18 years of age are left to whatever rules their parents prescribe.

DRINK WITH SHAVE, NEWEST WET STUNT

But Barber's Innovation in Service Brings Him to Grief With Prohibition Agents.

even and Koehler, sauntered in with the air of men wanting a shave and Williams sat down in a barber chair while his companions waited.

While being shaved, Williams remarked to the owner, Sam Eisenman, who was handling the razor that he needed a drink of whiskey. Eisenman, it is alleged, sold the agents a drink and also a half pint of whiskey for $1.50.

Waiting until the barber had taken the razor from his face and he was entirely clear of the chair, Williams made known his identity and introduced his companions. A search of the barber shop is said to have revealed one and a half gallons of whiskey. Eisenman was handed a summons to appear before Commissioner Hittcock.

WHITSUN DAY IN THE CITY CHURCHES

Whitsun Day was fully observed in the city churches yesterday. In the Anglican churches the anniversary colors and vestments were all in red, typifying the tongues of fire which descended at Pentecost. In the Mission Church of St.

John the Baptist the high altar was beautifully adorned with flowers. Today and tomorrow are holy days in the Anglican churches.

Some exchanges were made by the city clergymen in the morning. Rev. J. Heaney, of the Carleton Methodist church, exchanged with Rev. H. B. Clarke of the Portland Methodist church, and Rev. C. R. Freeman, of the Charlotte street Baptist church, exchanged with Rev. C. T. Clark, of the Fairville Baptist church. In the Carleton Methodist church the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered in the evening and several new members were received into the church. Special music included a duet, "In the Cross of Christ We Glory," sung by Mrs. Brunstrom and F. J. Punter, and an anthem, "Saviour the Night Involves the Sky," by H. R. Shelley, which was sung by the choir. Rev. Gideon Swift was the special preacher in the Ludlow street Baptist church.
