Have you visited La Honda's? Great dry goods Going-Out-of-Business Sale. Corner Brussels and Hanover streets.
IT CAN'T BE DONE.
Some people pretend to dislike bargains. You simply can't dislike or avoid taking advantage of the great offerings at the King Square Sales Co.
BETTER VALUES.
C. J. Bassen's better values—true economy in dry goods, foot wear, furnishings. One store only—corner Sydney and Union.
CAUGHT IN THE ACT.
A dry goods merchant dropped into the King Square Sales Co. yesterday and bought hosiery, underwear and furnishings to last a year. Follow his example.
LA HOOD'S—open evenings, Corner Hanover and Brussels streets.
THE TRUTH ABOUT WASSON'S SALE.
The exceptionally low prices prevalent at Wasson's spring sale have caused many to wonder how goods can be sold at such reductions.
The answer is that Wasson's are determined to sell all their winter stock of drugs and medicines, etc., before warm weather. In a month or more people will not need Hot Water Bottles and Cough Syrups. Other goods will be in demand.
The policy of Wasson's Stores is a guarantee of fresh goods now being offered at Wasson's Spring Sale at less than present cost prices.
TRIALS OF MISSIONARIES.
Dear Guardian—
The steamer Olu Chuan was, on Feb. 6, wrecked on the Upper Yangtze River, China. She had on board a number of our missionaries and families on their way to West China. All our party were saved, though about fifty Chinese were drowned. On the boat were Rev. R. S. Taylor and his four children, and Mrs. Taylor with her four children, also Rev. Mr. Walker and Miss Walker, Nurse Batstone and Miss E. Wilson, going out for the first time. These people by the narrow margin escaped being caught in their cabins as the boat turned over soon after striking. They assisted each other up on the high side of the boat, where they remained until rescued by sampans.
Two or three were able to save a steamer trunk each, but those whose cabins were on the low side saved nothing, but all lost trunks and other baggage, which are still in the submerged hold. They spent the night at a Chinese farm house, and were thirty hours without food or sleep. The following day a French gunboat happened along and took them the next day to Chungchow, where we have a mission station. From here they were taken on to Shungking by the steamer Da Chuan, on which the second half of our party were following them up river.
The cheerfulness of these people as they went forward after their harrowing experience and the loss of so much that cannot be replaced out here, would cause many of us to blush with shame at our petty troubles. Thank God for a purpose in life which cannot be washed away because it is built upon rock.
Sincerely,
T. H. Williams, M. D.
Gruesome Relics.
The King of Spain possesses an odd collection of relics connected with attempts on his life. A reminder of the very first attempt on his life is the test of a feeding bottle, with which an attempt was made to poison him when he was only eight months old.

A Final Favor.
"My darling," said a fond mother, who believed in appealing to children's tender feelings instead of punishing them, "if you are so naughty you will give mamma so that she will get ill and have to lie in bed in a dark room and may die and have to be taken to the cemetery and be buried, and you—"
The child had become more solemn, but an angelic smile overspread his face at his mother's last words, and, throwing his arms about her neck, he exclaimed: "Oh, mamma, and may I sit beside the couchman?"

CROWDS FLOCK TO ST. JOHN
Big Event in City Brings Folks From All Over Province.
The heavy traffic on Charlotte and King streets and through the Square yesterday was probably due to the great Going-Out-of-Business Sale being held by the King Square Sales Company. Their heavy advertising lately has brought hundreds of people from all over the province to take advantage of the year's greatest bargains. The manager is determined to sell everything, and sell it quickly; hence, the ridiculously low prices on foot wear, clothing, hats, caps, dry goods, all of which are goods of paramount quality, quite up to the usual high standard of "The House of Bargains."

Mill men who were bothered because half their women workers stayed home Mondays to do the family washing have introduced the mill laundry, and now the women coming to work Monday morning drop a laundry slip in a box and forget it until their laundried things are delivered Thursday by a mill wagon at their homes.

CANADA TO GET ENGLISH CLOTHES
Average $12 a Suit—Of Type Known as Standard Suits.

London, March 17.—The Canadian clothes buying public will benefit by the recent release of large quantities of woollen clothes by the British government. Twenty thousand ready-made men's suits are to be shipped to Canada from London at wholesale export price of about fifty-four shillings per suit (which at present exchange rates is about $12). The suits comprise government tweeds, serges and worsteds and are not of the type known here as standard suits. The shipment has been arranged under the auspices of the Canadian Export Pioneers of Toronto by J. Murray & Co., who have recently been active in developing the Indian market for Canadian products. The recent establishment of a fine tailoring business in London by Mr. Malby Deely, millionaire member of parliament, with the avowed object of fighting clothing profiteers is meeting with great success, so many orders having been booked from two to four pounds per suit that a ban had to be temporarily imposed on further orders.
