Paris, Nov. 18.—The French official statement given out in Paris this afternoon, says: "The day of November 17 passed much as did the day before. There were numerous artillery exchanges and some isolated attacks on the part of the enemy's infantry, all of which were repulsed."

"From the North Sea to the Lyse front was subjected to a fairly active bombardment, particularly at Nieuport and to the east and to the south of Ypres."

Near Blazhooote, the Zouaves charging with the bayonet, brilliantly took possession of a forest which had been disputed between the enemy and ourselves for three days.

FLOODS RESTRICT FIGHTING AREA

Paris, Nov. 18.—The battle in Flanders is becoming more and more restricted in the area between Ypres and the Lyse. Fighting almost as intense as in the past, continues on the French right flank in the region of Verdun, which fortifies the German line. WORK FOR GIRLS WHO HAVE LOST PLACES BY WAR

New Problem Faced By The City Authorities and Suggested Solution By Mayor

MAJOR PRINK SAYS THIS MORNING THAT THIS MATTER HAD BEEN BROUGHT TO HIS ATTENTION AND IT SEEMED TO BE A SITUATION DEMANDING ATTENTION.

These young women are not objects of charity and would not accept alms, but probably would be glad to find work even if it were not of the kind to which they were accustomed to. It had occurred to him that the situation might be met in a satisfactory way by using a portion of the Belgian relief funds for the purchase of materials and employing the girls to make them into garments for the homeless people of the devastated country. In this way the Belgians would benefit as much as they would by the cash and at the same time the money would help to improve local conditions.
