PEASANTRY SUFFERING FROM PRIVATION

Famine Stricken People of Lower Volga Region Living Under Fearful Conditions

Moscow, March 21.—An appalling account of the sufferings of the famine-stricken peasantry of the lower Volga comes from Tsaritsa. To give but one instance, in the village of Gariyoff an official inspector discovered that most of the inhabitants were in a state of terrible emaciation; many were affected with cholera and their teeth were falling out. Several families were living in one house, and the abandoned cottages had been pulled down in order to save the wooden walls for fuel. Bread this supply was almost exhausted. In some houses there were piled on the top of the stove twelve hundred pounds of corn and several cartloads of flour were sent to the village.

SPAIN TO REPLACE MANUEL ON THRONE?

Rumor Credited in Diplomatic Circles in Paris

Paris, March 20.—There are more whisperings in diplomatic circles here in regard to the restoration of former King Manuel to his throne in Portugal and the manner in which it will be effected. The story which has been given the most credence is that Spain will take a leading part in the movement, and that she will declare that the Portuguese Republic has not fulfilled its promises in meeting the situation and the country's needs.

HOPEFUL FOR PEACE

Expectation, However, is For Suspension of Work in Anthracite Mines for a While

New York, March 21.—While many of the operators believe that there will be a suspension of work in the anthracite region on April 1, they expect that the mine workers will, within a few days, submit a proposition containing modified demands which will lead to further conferences. Vice President Loomis of the Lackawanna Railroad, has just returned from the hard coal region, and says: "The position of the operators is the same as it was when the last conference ended. The operators are ready to meet the miners, when they have any modified proposition. We hope for peace, but we cannot candidly say that we do not expect any suspension of work after the April 1 holiday."
