BURN $10,000 IN DRUGS

Assortment Taken in Raids Last Year Consumed in Furnace
New York, April 17.—Drugs valued at more than $10,000,000 at street-vending prices were consumed recently in the furnace at Police Headquarters. The drugs comprised 2,471 lots that had been taken by police of the Narcotic Division in raids during 1922. Special Deputy Commissioner Carlton Simon supervised the destruction. Commissioner Enright was among the interested spectators, and commented on the unique assortment, 120 opium pipes, many of them of great value, consigned to the flames.
