usands proclaim VINDAAL wonderful Invigorant that ich are so provalent in the-eat rivers throughout the pecially those of the file-scouri, lifnois, Tennessee, ansas, Red, Colorado, Brs-Pearl, Mabana, Mobile, the James, and many others, ibutaries, throughout our tring the Summer and Ankably so during seasons of diviness, are invariably extensive derangements off liver, and other abdominal river, and other abdominate retreatment, a purgative, rful influence upon those is essentially necessary, artic for the purpose equal rate for the purpose equal rate for the dark-colored ith which the bowels are sent time attentions the r Indigestion, Headaohe. ad Taste in the Mouth, Bil-pitation of the Heart, Inflam-ings, Pain in the region of d a hundred, other painful he offsprings of Dyspepsia, prove a better guarantee of Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, as Inflammations, Indolent. Mercurial Affections, Olds of the Skin, Sora Eyes, 38, 33 in all other constitu-WALKERS VINEGAR BIFFERS ir great carative powers in ate and intractabl Gout, Bilious, Remitten at Fevers, Diseases of the idneys, and Bladder, these equal. Such Diseases are ted Blood.

Diseases. - Persons enas and Minerals, such as setters, Gold-beaters, and advance in life, are subject for the Bowels. To guard to a dose of Walker's Viniseases, Eruptions, Tetter, otches, Spots, Pimples, Pus-rbancles, Ringworms, Scald-es, Erysipelas, Heh, Seurfs, of the Skin, Humors and Skin of whatever name or rally dug up and carried out n a short time by the use of

and other Worms, lurkin of so many thousands, are myed and removed. No sys-e, no vermifuges, no anthel-cee the system from worms

e Complaints, in roung or single, at the dawn of wom-turn of life, these Tonic Bit-decided an influence that s soon perceptible.

In all cases of jaundiee, rest sur liver is not loing its work, sible treatment is to promote of the bile and favor its re-as purpose ass VINEGAR BIT-ne Vitiated Blood when-ngs will tell you when. Keen, and the health of the system

McDONALD & CO., eval Agents, Saw Francisco, Californ agton and Charlton Sts., New York, & Bruggists and Benjers.

The St. Andrews Standard.

PUBLISHED BY A. W. SMITH.]

E VARIIS SUMENDUM EST OPTIMUM .- Cic.

182 50 IER ANNUM IN ADVANCE.

No 16

SAINT ANDREWS, NEW BRUNSWICK, APRIL 19,1876.

Vel 43

Noetru.

A PARTING.

"Good-by, then!" And he turned away, No other word between them spoke You barely could have guessed that day How close a bond was broken.

The faint, slight tremor of the hand That clasped her own in that brief parting, Only her heart could understand, Who saw the dew drop starting.

Who felt a sudden surge of doubt, Come rushing back unbidden o'er her, As with the words her life without His presence loomed before her.

The others saw, the others heard A calm, cool man, a gracious woman A quiet, brief farewell, unstirred By aught at all uncommon.

She knew that two paths now must sever That one familiar step had passed

To all the rest it merely meant A trivial parting, lightly spoken; She read the bitter mute intent,

-Barton Grey.

GENERAL JACK. The Story of a Diamond-hunter.

Pretty much everybody has heard of General Jack's penchant for diamonds, and a great many of us know the man himself—a sturdy character, sound and firm on his feet as a horse block. A florid face rather hard; a square chin determined lips closing over white teeth, cold gray eyes looking right at you from under hedge of eyebrows sandy in color. dusted with grav, a large straight nose; and a big diamone on his expansive shirt front. His voice is deep and stern, rather hoarse, too, and harsh; itne is tremendous whenever it come freighted with a crash of oaths. General Jack mules on a canal route, then took to a men agerie, was ring-master in a circus, owned a circus, came to be a millionaire and a politician with a passion for diamonds, and has, he says, been buying 'em ever since. "It's a weakness, and I've paid for it. Tiffany's people always send for me when they've got in anything new and the Amsterdammers know me."

It is said that those who want to come over General Jack-no easy thing to do-always approach him on his diamond side. He

"Hombre, it's the drink that does it,"

you might truly call one of these here genuises. When I knowed him-and loved him, too, as everybody had to do-he was editing a neat little paper in a Virginia town, and happy as a June bug. One of your Apolloses—tall, square a step like a spring board, blue eyes full of fire man at a square leap; sat a horse like a center me-he'd been a treasure in that line if he'd only taken wages. As for poetry-well. I'm no judge, but if he couldn't pump all these here contenniallers I'm lady ever you see, and could pour out tea like an angel, And now here was, gone to

"How come t Cary?

It was the war, poverty sickness, long strug long lassitude and loss of spirits, chagrin, all that turned in.

"I think I'm gone, general, but Margaret won't hear a word of it. She told me to come to see you and ask you to help me."

"Where is the little woman, Mark?"

"Not quite, general; but the times are hard:

"I wish to heaven you would!" cried Cary. "I mean to! you're the very fellow I've been ooking for this year or more. You're honest and capable you know all about geology, ineralogy, and that sort of thing, don't you? If you don't you can learn. Stop! listen! you are up to my diamond passion-well, there's and find me the biggest diamond there—a we were. He hadn't a whole stit dozen of them, if you're so minded! Will you clean stitch on him, that fellow we'll ask her. She'li likely be there." Not only she but all the children were there, ways approach him on his diamond side. He Not only she but all the children were there takes it as a compliment to be asked to show here at work too, and Mrs. Carr told here him their and a traitor, a set, and a vagabond have it! Good Lord, Cary, what have you study up the subject; and the little woman-and her children were happy on the farm—some young young fellow then. I thought you were a genius. And your wife was lovely."

Jack tell it in is own way, as he takes the key of his safe from his pocket, preparatory to children to care for; and I am- what you see. grate, warming his stout calves, and emphasize I want you to do something for me before the his narrative with gestures of the key:

"Never was mistaken in a man in all my life, before thai! Made all my money by looking "I want you to save me from the drink, into people's faces to see if I could trust 'en or not. And this here Mark Cary-well there's or not. And this here Mark Cary—well there's and upwrap and unrap until out there mistake when he departs from pure Eng shined—but sho! there some thing you lish. The tempation to emphasize a second thing the some thing the some thing the some thing you lish. the story), "this man, Mark Cary, was what this here chest, let alone bonds, and I'd left him here with the safe open and nobody else in the house, and gone off say to Europe or the Sandwich Island's perfectly easy. But, you see-well there's such a thing as tempting people too far. Cary got along splendilly at first. He wrote to his wife and me regular all Hyperion curls like—a man every inch. The along the voyage, and when he got to the Cape things he couldn't do with the dumb bells he sent a photograph that we might see how want worth trying; he could beat my best he was spruced up. I could see the old curls was coming back to his hair, the old fire to his or Comanchy, and put a pen in his hand, or call eyes, the old roundness to his cheek; and the letters began to come regular again, and dia because it is their nature. If they ge monds, too-small ones, but one or two good wrong, their nature beats and kicks the sized ones, so that in their sum they might be taken to be worth full as much money as I had put up for him. One day he sends me a real brilliant two-carat fellow, and simultaneously draws on me for £500, saying he was going to another place in the hope to find a diamond worth the venture. Dutch! His wife was just the sweetest little put up for him. One day he sen is me a real than a year went by, and not a word did I get to India to sell the stone to a rich mahara from him, nor did his wife know more than me jah there: But just as he was concluding the liftle woman was well nigh crazy, and as I The little woman was well nigh crazy, and as I had no good news for her, I didn't tell her any. I had written in a private way to a corresponlent of mine, at Natal, and heard what I was General Jack drumined on the table with his fat fingers a moment. "Not in want, I hope, Carry?" said he at last.

Again—and it cut me deep; but I never let on, even to my own wife. No news—eighteen carry and works his passage across to California. on, even to my own wife. No news—eighteen passage across to Califernia. And then, to Parliament untramnouths and more went by, and not a single for fear lest he should be tempted again.

The left he went to Parliament untramfor fear lest he should be tempted again. word from Cary. I kept out of the little or get robbed, begs and borrows his way woman s way all I could, for the sight of her Now, that I call pretty much of a womay's way all I could, for the sight of her would have distressell a politician, let alone a stone wall; but one stormy night she burst in upon my wife and the way to his interview that insued, but I know from other sources that the wife and children had a good supper that night.

"Come, let's go and see her," and the general does not say much about the interview that insued, but I know from other sources that the wife and children had a good supper that night.

"Come to my office—down town, here's the "Comen to my office—down town, here's the of women, but that's no reason why I should my life."

"Now, that I call pretty much of a temptation for a poor man to overcome. Therefore a poor man to overcome. The interview that the stone—it's worth indeed the constituents, and stone wall; but one stormy night she burst in don't you? Look at the stone—it's worth indeed the constituency of Province, did $50,000 as it's cut, and that Mark Cary not desire a protective tariff:—

"General Jack," she says, wringing her hands, but never shed ling a tear, and turning on mea face I couldn't look at for the pity of it; "General Jack, I cannot be the pensioner of your bounty any longer! You are the best man that ever lived and I'm the most wretched of women, but that's no reason why I should my life."

"And I call pretty much of a temptation for a poor man to overcome. The interplation for a poor man to overc number—to-morrow at eleven, Mark, and I'll see you again," and the general withdrew.

"See here, Mark," said the general, next day, "you're broke down. The little woman can't do anything with you, and you rown backbone's turned to injun-rubber. You ain't worth a damn!"

"That is just about the conclusion I am coming to myself, general," said Cary, with pathetic sincerity.

"The see you again," see here, Mark, "said the general, next day, "you're broke down. The little woman can't do anything with you, and your own backbone's surrow to injun-rubber. You ain't worth a damn!"

"That is just about the conclusion I am coming to myself, general," said Cary, with pathetic sincerity.

"The see here, Mark, "said the general, next day, "she had news of Marks and nothing good. Have one weeks before, to reduce the duty from 15 cents to 7½ cents per gallon.

"General Jack will not tell you, what is forc, to reduce the duty from 15 cents to 7½ cents per gallon.

[A long debate followed in which sever-and was cut, he had it appraised, and just mond was cut, he had it appraised, and just mond was cut, he had it appraised, and just mond was cut, he had it appraised, and just mond was cut, he had it appraised, and just mond was cut, he had it appraised, and just mond was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and just mond was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, he had it appraised, and it mount was cut, the fact, that, after his famous of the mount was cut, he had it appraised, an number-to-morrow at eleven, Mark, and I'll of women, but that's no reason why I should my life. "Inat is just about the conclusion I am coming to myself, general," said Cary, with pathetic sincerity.

"I know better!" cried Jack, vehemently pounding the table with his fist; "I mean to take you in hand now, and make a man of broke down, burst out crying, and couldn't say reflect too great credit upon himself. any more. So we sets to console her the best way we could but didn't make much headway at it. I told her I would be cruelly hurt if she didn't let me keep my promise to Mark, but her last word was she couldn't, darsen't and wouldn't live on me.

"Just then the front-door bell rang, and when William opened it the raggedes where I want you! I want a man-an honest buzzard of a man broke past him and came man-a capable-to go to South Africa for me, rushing into the sitting-room here where He hadn't a whole stitch nor go? Stop! I'll take care of the little woman and provide for her if you do not come back, also; his feet bare and his face would have and provide for her if you do not come to taper the sea voyage will give you a chance to taper that the for sharpness. All the same that the for sharpness. All the same that the door turnel as white as that; when you get there you'll be all right again, and then you can use your brains again in finding me that diamond. I'll pay you good wages, and all you find is mine. Is it a bargain? Strike hands on it if it is!

"If Margaret says yos, I'll go, General. And God bless you, anyhow!"

"Come home to lunch with me, then, and we'll ask her. She'll likely be there."

"It would be stopped at the door, turnel as white as a sheet, held her two hands together tight, and just sighed between her set teeth, "Mark!" I thought she'd go over, but she was too true grit for that. He never noticed her nor nothing else. He came straight up to me, and kind o steadied his staggering feet by holding on to the table, and looked me in the face and said, cool and colm like but in a monstrous thin. and calm like, but in a monstrous thin

The General was puzzled a good deal. after the big diamond. In a week Mark Cary the Mark Cary have it! Good Lord, Cary, what have you lone to yourself?"

Apply at least as they could be with Cary away and her children were happy on the farm and says, 'Havo some soup made,' and the gray white and happy, at least as they could be with Cary away in quest of the big diamond.

How did that quest fare? I must let General word young young fellow then; I thought you were a genius. And your wife was lovely."

Were a genius. And your wife was lovely."

Application of the past—she's a wreck—six

The General was puzzled a good deal. after the big diamond. In a week Mark Cary which to head in her lap, and so on through the peeragé. But I can she emothering him with kisses, while my wife, cool as a statue; turns to William and says, 'Havo some soup made,' and the direct from his dye, went too far al title while with an apply and the children were happy on the farm—and says, 'Havo some soup made,' and the direct from his dye, went too far al title while with an apply and the peeragé. But I can she menthering him with kisses, while my wife, cool as a statue; turns to William and says, 'Havo some soup made,' and the direct for his dye, went too far al title while with an apply and the peeragé. But I can she menthering him with kisses, while my wife, cool as a statue; turns to William and says, 'Havo some soup made,' and the direct for his dye, went too far al title while with an apply and the peeragé. But I can she menthering him with kisses, while my wife, cool as a statue; turns to William and says, 'Havo some soup made,' and the direct for his dye, went too far al title while with the perage. The perage of this says, 'Havo some soup made,' and the children were happy on the farm—and says, 'Havo some soup made,' and the with an apply of the perage. But I can she happy at least as they could be with a system that he was supplying a gettleman word word word word with a popular with a perage. The perage is the perage. But I can of beef tea and brandy, kisses and pattings, and calling him all the loving names in the self."

wont speak for certain, but it is neverthed castody, he and the murdored boy fought and calling him all the loving names in the self." dictionary. By and by he sits up-Where is it? says he, and makes me hand that parcel of old rags out of my pocket, where I'd slipped it in the hurry of the moment, cannot describe.' general always unlocks his safe and produces his great diamond. "There it is! Biggest diamond in America! Finest jewel in the world! Look at ñ! That man fetched him all the way from Africa, by way of Australia, and hadn't a cent in in his pocket half the time! Huln't had a bite to eat from Omaha here, but held or to the diamond and said nothing-only starved! Well! he told me all about it; not that on him for a speech and by sounds you couldn't little woman was more in love with him than I believe all his semimental trash though mate him nowhere. I used to get him to write ever. He went-up country, and by and by his People with his sort of fa e are hones. sized ones, so that in their sum they might be and pulls their ears till it sets them right

"After that, no more from Mark Cary. More an all-fired rollocking bust, and ran away slap it into Elysium.' It isn't Nilsson who say the devil, tempte I him this time, though. Then he landed in Australia; and kept up his jollification till he hadn't a red left; but all this time he held on to the diamond.

A Traiterous Austrian.

A lieutenant in the Austrian army, a day not far in the future the soldiers of Government had adopted a course which France and Austria may be found fighting was in the general interest. side by side against a common enemy.

Ingenious Advertisements.

this collection and does show it. But he is a been at work too, and Mrs. Cary told her hus ban L with tears in her eyes, "We need in to good judge of character for all.

One day General Jack lad a visitor, a man of forty years, with gizzled hair and a stoop in his shoulders—a pallic face, somewhat bloated from long indulgence in liquors. "You don't know mr, General Jack!" said the man.

The General was puzzled a good deal.

"Hombre. I've seen you somewhere. Stop—I sailed, with a chest full of books in which to she smothering him with kisses, while my she she smothering him with kisses, while my she she smothering him with kisses, while my she she smothering him a vagalated with a vagalated his shop a board, for more than a vagalated his shop a board, situation, and a vagalated his shop a board, strades man places outside his shop a board, for more than a vagalated bid to the Duke of Omnium, purport long ended his shop a board, strades man places outside his shop a board, for more deep in the deal of the bu nistake when he depasts from pure Eng- tence of fifteen years of penal servitude. And at this point in his narrative the times a strong one from its well-known in money, a year of time, and nearly all meral always unlocks his safe and pro-effects on a certain class of readers. It their eyesight in embroidering a flag for should, however, be avoided, an Lin leaving the centennial show That the increased confidence of all classes.

Africa, The "English" of the modern paragraphist often goes beyond all bounds, and justifier such e iticism as the following:

"New York news papers accuse each other of a "life-long struggle for alliteration, varied with the parturient pangs of rhetorical novelty."

And if this straining after shallow he orical effect and feverish aim for tion, abandonment, cruelty or intoxication absurd alliterations so often lead wri er or when either has been in prison for istray,out we wonder that even in the three or more years subsequent to marvery men who criticise it, as in the above riag. uotation, a similar tendency to extrava nents which exerted the wonder of Satuis going to take the Chicago soel, and it isn't Elysium she's going to slap it into." -Exchange.

So much has been said and published with reference to Mr. Gillmor's vote on the Petroleum Question, that we publish what he did say. Mr. Gillmor is a Free his convictions. He wished to leave the a considerable extent. The tariff Government was approved by the Maritime members; it met with his approval, and he thanked them for it. He had ne-A lieutenant in the Austrian army, a baron, and a member of one of the most noble families, recently sold to a Russian officer plans of several important Austrian fortifications, receiving for the service a million roubles. The rascality was only discovered when the lieutenant made an offer to sell copies of the same plans to a French officer. The Frenchman communicated the fact to his Government, and the French [Government to the Austrian Gov't. Of, course the baron is not only in disgrace, but will be severely punished. The French papers claim great credit for the honorable course pursued by their of ficials; but it is hinted that the real cause fo, this exhibition of national friensiship lies in the expectation and hope that some day not far in the future the soldiers of France and Austria may be found fighting ver seen the Government press

What They are Worth.

The World's Atlas says: "I have been told that the best form of advertisement even fit this advertising age, is what is know as the 'packing case,' An ingenious tradesman places outside his shop a board, directed to the Duke of Omnium, purporting to be the lid of a case containing goods to be delivered to that estimable nobloman.

the head until he was dead. Harrod threw Americanize 1 English.

An editor of real ability makes a great of manel aughter, and he received a sen-

Two Boston women have expended $700

Always earry a law book with you. A George Boedle shot at Sheriff Newton in Afton, N. Y. the other day, but a law book in the Sheriff's hands stopped the bullet after it had gone through fifty leaves.

A bill introduced in the New York Assembly provides that either party may ola, tain a divorce for adultery, wilful deser-

Charles Hodges and Amy Robinson of Here is a sumple of one of those con dents which exerted the wonder of Saturold, eloped on Sanday, and were found in for lay Reviewists:

"A Chicago paper announces that ty of provisions, intenting to live tegether on the Nilsson is to take the Chicago soul and the rest of their lives."