

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY-TREASURER
OF THE
ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE CLUB
FOR THE YEAR 1891.

The membership has been increased by eleven during the past year, and although quiet the year has been marked by the close of the negotiations with the Law Society of Upper Canada, and the result is the following enactment:—

“The Benchers of the Law Society in Convocation assembled enact as follows:—

“1. A Cadet of the R. M. C. who has received his diploma of graduation shall be entitled to be admitted on the books of the Law Society as a student at law or articled clerk on and subject to the same terms and conditions as a graduate in the Faculty of Arts is or shall be for the time being be entitled to admission thereon.

“2. Every such Cadet shall be entitled to be called to the Bar and to be admitted and enrolled as a Solicitor after the like period of service and on and subject to the like terms and conditions as or shall be for the time being be applicable to a graduate in the Faculty of Arts.

“3. The provisions of these rules shall apply retrospectively so as to entitle any such Cadet who has heretofore been admitted on the books of the Society and has not yet been called to the Bar or admitted and enrolled as a Solicitor to apply to be so called or admitted and enrolled