

ERINARY DEPARTMENT

ucted By J. W. Manchester. V. S., St. John, N. B.

ted arrangements with J. W. ester, V. S., whereby all quesnd treatment prescribed in those where it is asked for through the nquiries must be addressed:

TERINARY DEPARTMENT. Weekly Sun, St. John, N. B.

about five weeks ago. He bled deal during the next three days ws it up at times, but on standelaxes again. The wounds from rating are almost well. Will hly healed?

The trouble is known as paof the penis, and has probably used by great loss of blood and ry difficult thing to cure. Place proper position and keep it in by means of a bandage round Give daily one-half ounce of of nux vomica, also daily one of Fowler's solution of arsenic. neans falling, amputation of the ber.—I have a fine two-yeart that is very thin, hide-bound ng, also on each side of the belly, wall and eats manure. What trouble.? I take great interest veterinary department.

-Your colt has indigestion. Feed tely on easily digested foods, boiled oats, cut and steamed Give regular exercise arts of lime water two or three daily. Give full doses of tonic , also daily ounce doses of Fow-ner.—I have a grey mare, fourirs old, that has several lumps body. She has a very large the root of her tail and two or aller ones on her neck. She is in flesh and has had colic two times lately. What had I do for her?

-The trouble with your mare is sis and it is incurable. It will death in a short time. The tuyou speak of might be removed ould not prolong life. The colic eak of will be due to obstruction

B.—I am glad your case is doing Il. I would advise you to follow me treatment until thoroughly

mer.—I have a very valuable bull as very badly gored while fightith another bull a few days ago. est wound is in the rump and it nine inches long and about five deep Kindly advise. -Cleanse the wound well, draw er the edges with silk sutures ress the wound daily with a satsolution of boracic acid.

R.—Will answer your letter pri-

TS, CORN MASH.

Feed, Bran. Feeding Flour,

CANNED GOODS and PIOKLES ICKWHEAT FLOUR.

MES COLLINS nd 210 Union Street, St. John, N. B.

SALE.—A Farm situated in the par-Burton, Sunbury Co., containing 170 eighty acres under the highest state dvation. Large apple and plum orch-d bearing. House, two barns and out-gs in good repair. For further par-s enquire of M. E. GILBERT, Shef-sunbury Co., or at A. J. GREGORY'S Fredericton, N. B. Possession given er the first of November.

TED-HELP-RELIABLE MEN IN

OBERT M. READ M. I

CITY NEWS.

The Chief Events of the Week in St John.

Together With Country Items from Correspondents and Exchanges

When ordering the address of your WEEKLY SUN to be changed, send the NAME of the POST OFFICE to which the paper is going as well as that of the office to which you wish it sent Remember! The NAME of the Post Office must be sent in all cases to ensure prompt compliance with your

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

News correspondence must be mailed in time to reach this office not later than Saturday afternoon to ensure insertion in THE WEEKLY SUN of the following week.

Father Donohue of St. Peter's church, died alt Philladelphia on Thursday last.

ville, Va., on Saturday of Alfred Holden, brother of Dr. Holden of this

Mrs. Blizard, wife of ex-Ald. Blizard, had her ankle broken by stepping on a broken plank in the sidewalk in An Oxford, N. S., despatch says: Detective Ring of St. John arrested Alex. McMullin in Oxford, Thursday night, McMullin is supposed to be interested in the Dutcher case.

The following message was given the Associated Press on Friday to be forwarded to this city: "Alexander Lockhart of Laconia, N.H., and Miss Mary Elizabeth Maxwell of St. John, were married at Laconia yesterday by Rev. Lewis Malvern."

A schooner built up at Cumberland Bay, Queens county, was launched the other day and was to have been towed down to Indiantown by the tug Martello. The cold snap came too soon and the schooner is frozen in D. W. Clark & Son have secured the work on Friday. The firm of C. H. in a short tilme. His death was due Peters have also secured for storing to exposure. Brown, from all that hay the warehouse on the Hatheway The causes of death reported at the Board of Health office for the week ending Nov. 21st were: Debility, 1;

apolexy, 1; dropsy, 1; ureamila, 1; weakness, 1; hemorrhage, 1; diphtheria, 1; abscess of liver, 1; diphtheritic croup 1; membraneous croup, garet, was married in San Francisco, 244 feet. Ten cargoes went to Manning pretty well in shore when she of Folly Village. The ship is loading

J. DeVeber Neales of Newcastle editor of the Northumberland News, passed through the oldy Saturday with the remains of his little girl, who died on Thursday of croup. The child was five years old and had been ill only a day. Mr. Neales went up river on the Hampstead and took the body to Gagetown for interment.

The comic opera, Captain Kidd, music by Dan Dore, musical director of the Ethel Tucker Co., will be pro-, by Judge Tuck, sitting as the full duced at Hartford, Connecticuit, De- court, under an act passed in 1895. cember 7th and 8th. Mr. Dore is the composer of the songs Love Me Again, which are being sung this week at the Opera house by Miss Prior.

The well known firm of Heffernan & McGrath, butchers, who have done business for some years past in the city market, have dissolved partnership. The business will in future be carried on by P. Heffernan, ir. at the old stand, with, if anything, increased facilities and more attention to detail. Mr. Heffernan always has the

Miss Jones, daughter of Walter Jones of Indiantown, attempted suioide on the 17th instant about eleven o'clock by taking a dose of bed bug poison. Dr. Foster McFarlane was called in and rendered the necessary medical aid, and although his services were not summoned until some time after the poison had been taken there is every hope Miss Jones' life will be

The remains of Phillip Shanahan. formerly a prominent butcher of this city, were laid at rest in the old Catholic cemetery Saturday morning. The body was taken to Holy Trinity church, where mass of high requiem was celebrated by Rev. Father J. J. Walsh The pall-bearers were John John McGoldrick, George Cusick, Frank McAvin, Richard Sullivan and Joshua Ward.

Joseph A. Likely is building a saw mill in his pond off Main street. The mill will be small, employing a few hands, and will be used for re-sawing pine and oak timber for Mr. Likely's own use. If will be run by electricity and will have a single band saw. It will also be used to cut timber in lots to suit carpenters and for smaller orders. Mr. Likely expects to have the mill running in about a month.

The creditors of the St. John Bolt and Nut works have been called to meet Dec. 1st, to consider the affairs of the company. Payment has been suspended. In May last this company and the mills have been running un-der the new management for some months.—Globe.

The pilot boat Howard D. Troop Las been on the marine slip at Mete-ghan for some days having her bot-tom cleaned and painted. She was to have come off yesterday.

The death occurred on Saturda after an illness of some months, of G. Herbert Murray of Orange street. Deceased, a well known accountant, was at one time in the employ of T. A. Temple & Son. He leaves a wife, three daughters—two of whom are alt home and one in Chicago and one son, R. G. Murray, barrister. Many friends, will hear of Mr. Murray's death with regret. He was fifty-six

At the meeting of railway men at the I. C. R. paint shop on the 19th it was decided to form a department of the city Y. M. C. A. A committee of management was nominated and a small committee was appointed to interview the city association with reference to terms. John Irvine was appointed representative on the maritime committee. J. C. Moore of Monc. ton was present. Mr. Moore is travelling secretary for the railway Y. M.

Mrs. Jacob Bradshaw was seized with a stroke of paralysis at her home in Hampton on the 16th. When found by the other inmates of the house all about noon, some minutes (it is not known how long) after she was taken ill, it appeared that she had struck her head against something in the fall. Her right side was paralyzed. Dr. J. Newton Smith rendered the necessary medical assistance and Mrs. cover at last advices the Star Line company for the construction of the new steamer for the river route. The dimensions of the ner are put down as follows: Length of keel, 179 feet; breadth of beam, 28 feet, and depth of hold, 8. feet. Her frame will be of spruce, the gunwhale. One strake of pitch pine will be put in at the gunwhale. Her centre keelson will be of pitch pine, with four others of spruce. She will have a hemlock stem and apron and he stern post and rudder stock will be

Patrick Brown, a well known far mer of Loch Lomond, was found by Albert Norris lying on the side of the road near the Hawthorne house in a dying condition Saturday morning Mr. Norris, who was on his way to the city with produce, notified Alfred contract for the new warehouse for C. Corbin, who had Brown brought to H. Peters on Rodney wharf, and began the Hawthorne house, where he died can be ascertained, reached the place lots that are now the subject of ar- where he was found, in the vicinity of mildnight. When last seen he was considerably under the influence of mding Nov. 21st were: Debility, 1; The deal shipping season at Parrspolexy, 1; dropsy, 1; ureamila, 1; boro is closed, and although five or six million feet are held over, the total to British ports exceeds that of last year by nearly a million feet. W. M. Machanillo, 10 membraneous croup, total, 10.

Capt. David Faulkner of Folly, N. Kean 15 vessels of 20,238 tons with 21; 244 feet. The total was thus 43,315, master of the steel ship Queen Marson married in San Francisco, 244 feet. Ten cargoes went to Manning pretty well in shore when she The deal shipping season at Parrs-Cal, on the 31st uit. to miss Greta Do-herty, niece of Mrs. C. N. Cummings to Fleetwood and Dublin, two each to herty, niece of Mrs. C. N. Cummings to Fleetwood and Dublin, two each to herty, niece of Mrs. C. N. Cummings to Fleetwood and Dublin, two each to Garston and Cardiff, and one each to grain for an English port, whence the Liverpool, Penarth, Runcorn, Belfast, wreck. The anchors were dropped, grain for an English port, whence the Swansea and Saltport. There were bride will accompany her husband.— Swansea and Saltport. There were and Captain Wyman and crew launchsteamers loaded.

The case of McIntyre et all v. Hamilton was up before Judge Tuck (sitting as the full court) on Friday. Mr. Hamilton had been examined before Judge Forbes and the latter had made an order for his commitment to jail, whereupon E. R. Chapman, who is day to set aside the commitment of Judge Forbes. This was to be heard The supreme court, however, is still sitting, an adjournment having been and Your Letter One Hour Too Late, made until December, and John Montgomery, acting for Mr. McIntyre, took only sit in the capacity or the court en banc out of term time. Mr. Chap man withdrew his application and will make a similar application

> Charles Dixon, an aged resident of Mace's Bay. He will make an Norton, was accidentally killed at to save the anchors and chains. Hampton Thursday, He drove from of sawdust, reaching there shortly after five o'clock. In turning his team at the mill he fell off and his head struck with some force against a deal, rupturing a blood vessel. The old man was taken to the house of his son, J. H. Dixon, who lives in lor were summoned. His injuries were beyond their control and he sank rapidly, passing away about 8 o'clock. Deceased was eighty-one years of age. Mrs. Dixon and a son, and three sons by his first wife survive. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Dixon was a very worthy citizen and his untimely death is sincerely regretted.

Friends in St. John last night were informed by telegraphic despatches of the death yesterday of Gideon Vernon, at his home in Harvey, A. Co. Mr. Vermon's age would probably be quite eighty years. He was a son of the late Moses Vernon Pasa, and was the late Moses Vernon, Esq., and was interested in mills, lands, etc., in and about St. John. The South Bay mills were on land once owned by the Vernons, and they had some control over the Spruce Lake waters. Vernon's Vernon's corner, King and Germain streets, now occupied by Oak Hall, was a part of the property, and it went to Miss. Grace Vernon, now of Amherst, N.S. a sister of the deceased and the sole survivor of her generation. Gideon Vernon was a shrewd but somewhat eccentric man, and at one time was rullte a figure in the streets of St. John. He left here some years ago and has since resided in Harvey.-

be regretted by a large circle

Lieut. Col. Frederick Herbert Ruel. late of the Royal Marine Light Infantry. He suffered from a nervous affection, and on Friday morning, he was found dead in bed. The medical death to syncope, due to feebleness of the heart's action, and accelerated by by natural causes was returned. Lieut. Col. Ruel entered the army in February, 1849, became lieutenant in May, 1853; captain in February, 1861; major in March, 1874, and lieutenand colonel in May, 1877. He was present in the action with the batteries and Redoubt Kaleh, May 12, 107 perved with the Royal Marine Brigade in the Crimea from 1854 to February, 1855, and with the combined force before Sebastopol during its siege and fall; commanded a company at the occupathon of Kentch and Gerrikale, and was struck on a reef. The seas comevident that she would become a eighteen barks, nine ships and six ed the dory and put their effects aboard. They rowed to another ledge, where the men landed. The snow storm continued, and after waiting about an hour on the ledge the men boarded the dory again and headed for the shore, which they reached in safety. They went to James Ellis' residence, at Mace's Bay, where every kindness was shown them. The fishacting for Mr. Hamilton, obtained an ing schooner Emma, Capt. Ellis, was order nisi for certiorari returnable Fri- at Mace's Bay, bound for St. John, and three of the Glydax R.'s .rew came up in her. On Sunday morning it was found the schooner had changed her position. The men went off to her and stripped off the sails. As far as could be seen the bottom was out of her. The schooner, which is 18 tons register, was owned by Capt. Freeman Small of Tiverton, and his loss will be a heavy one, probably in the vicinity of $1,000. He paid $400 for the chooner last year. There was no insurance. Capt. Small also had on board 200 quintals of fish. Some of the crew will also be heavy losers, as they owned from 10 to 15 quintals of fish each. Capt. Wyman remained at Mace's Bay. He will make an effort

Ruel, collector of customs. SCHOONER LOST IN THE STORM.

Schooner Glydax R., Captain Jacob

THE WINTER PORT

The Concordia of the Donaldson line is due from Glasgow this week.

S. S. Lake Huron of the Beaver line sailed from Liverpool on Friday for St. John. She has on board 110 passengers.

Manifests were received Friday for the first consignment of goods of the season for shipment to the United Kingdom. The manifests showed 500 sacks of flour for Glasgow, four cases for London, and 375 sacks oatmeal for

St. Johns, Nfid., Nov. 23.-Hon. Geo

NEWFOUNDLAND'S JUDGE.

Emerson, solicitor general and member of the ministry, has been appoint ed to succeed Sir James Winter as udge of the supreme court, the latter having recently resigned. The appointment meets with general approval. Mr. Emerson's qualifications

WOOD'S PHOSPHODINE

Thursday's Globe.

The Wood Company,
Windoor, Ont., Canada.
Latest news in THE WEEKLY SUN. Dominion by all responsible drugging.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Mr. I.D. Pearson is now doing Prince County, Prince Edward Island, and Mr. T. E A. Pearson is in York County,

Subscribers in these places are respectfully requested to make provision for a call from the Sun's

THE SUN PRINTING JOMPANY, issuing weekly 8,800 copies of THE WEEKLY SUN, challenges the circulation of all papers published in the Maritime Provinces. Advertisers, please

A quiet wedding took place on the 16th instant at the residence of Dr. H. G. Aiddy, his third daughter, Florence, being united to Geo. H. Fraser of Turcoleah, India. Owing to the illness of Dr. G. A. B. Addy, brother of the bride, the wedding was a very quiet one, only the members of the family and near relatives being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Read. The bride wore a very handsome white satin bridal gown, with a white tulle veil embroidered with orange blossoms. The brides-maids were Miss Addy, sister of the bride, and Miss Irene Gillis. Miss Addy was dressed in pink and Miss Gillis in blue and white. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fraser left by the Pacific express for Boston and New York. They will sail for England en route to India on Saturday. They eceived many handsome presents. The bride's removal from St. John will

The London Times of Nov. 3 announces the death at Southsea of also at the surrender of Kinburn (medal with clasp, 5th class of the Medjidich, and Turkish medal). Deceased was a younger brother of J. R.

> BOYS' AND $1.25, $1.50. "Kumfert" mitts and gloves, per pair 45c

Boys' woollen mitts and gloves, 15c. to 45c. gloves, 25c to 75c. gloves, 25c.

CHRISTMAS STOCK

NOW READY.

You are already thinking, What shall I give father, or brother, or some other person's brother for Christmas. Remember ours is a Boys' AND MEN'S STORE, and we can help you choose a useful and pleasing present. All the newest things in Gloves, Ties, Handkerchiefs, Gold and Silver Cuff Links, Silk and Satin Suspenders and many other novelties. Come early; you have a greater choice and you avoid the rush.

HANDKERCHIEFS. of pure the very newest patterns in bows, silk hand- derbys, knots, tecks, de jaun- of medium and dark kerchiefs gathered for the holi-villes and puffs. We always lead all-wool tweeds and dark blue day season and now ready. Pure white silk handkerchiefs, hem-stitched, any initial you want, each 25c., 35c., 5oc. and

75c. Plain and twill heavy white silk handkerchiefs, hem-stitched, extra value, each 50c., 75c, $1. Beautiful fancy colored all silk handkerchiefs, each $50c., $75c. $1, $1.25, $1.50.

MEN'S GLOVES, an elegant lot ers, right up to date, prices $3.25 we do today. Lined and unlined gloves, in all the fashionable shades of tans, $1, $1.15, Large stock of driving gloves,

Men's woollen mitts and Men's Saranac mitts and

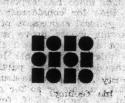

Hundreds | NECKWEAR. Bushels of | MEN'S neckwear of all in neckwear, 25c., 50c., 75c.

> the lowest real great value we give. CLOTHING, good clothes can be bought at.

man will appreci- on. The quantity is limited, wonderful, so these suits are $10. MUFFLERS. ate is a good, only 250, which we carried over warm, stylish from last year, a good assortment light, medium and dark tweeds, Plain and fancy figured cash, all wool, thoroughly well tailored; mere mufflers, each 25c, 5oc., last winter's prices were $5, $6, $7.5c.

Plain and fancy heavy all-silk now marked down to $2, $2.5o, mufflers, each 75c., $1, $1.50, $2.

$3, $3.50, $4, and $4.50. A word on boys' ulsters: Good, heavy, warm, Cauadian Frieze ulsters dark grey, dark brown Never of-and fawn colors. heavy linings, fered you such large storm collars, hand warm-

Single and duble breasted sack coat suits SUITS. in a variety of patterns serges, at $5.50, $7, $8, $10, Prices by themselves do not mean much, but when you see the kind Our prices are prices you will at once see what

Our $10 black clay worsted suits Boys' two-piece suits, the are the best value in Canada. dressy kind, that stand the wear Sack or cutaway coat, as you and tear, no matter how hard the wish, same price. These suits usage, nobby patterns in dark are beautifully tailored, best of tweeds, $2, $2 25, $2 50 and $3, trimmings, and are equal to eus-Great sale of boys' and youths' tom made, well worth $15, but cape overcoats and ulsters now we are always doing something

> Hundreds of pairs of stylish, serviceable, all-PANTS wool, winter pants, ready to wear.

> Heavy, dark blue, herring-bone pants, $1.25.

Heavy, dark brown, mixed weed pants, $1.35 Heavy, dark grey, mixed tweed.

Nobby, dark grey twill pants, stylish and serviceable, $2.50

English hair line striped pants, suitable for black coat and vest, worth $4; price $2.50.

200

Any schoolboy sending us his address and a two cent stamp to cover postage will receive FREE a SCHOLAR'S COMPANION. All mail orders receive prompt attention. Money back if goods are not satisfactory.

SCOVIL BROS. & CO.,

OAK HALL, King Street, Corner Germain.

SAINT JOHN.

A SEVERE STORM. The Brig Darpa Touches on the Foul Ground-The Prudent's Narrow

Saturday night's storm was a severe one in the bay and a number of vesselo put in here for shelter. A blind-ing snow storm prevailed and the commanders of incoming vessels had Capt. Bradley, bound from Dorches-ter to Buenos Ayres, which had lost an anchor and chain at the first named place, touched on the foul group while entering the harbor. She sus ained no damage, however. Cann also put in. The latter is toaded with coal, from Parasboro for Yarmouth. Her mainsail was split in

Sch. Prudent, Capt. Dickson, from New York, with coal for this port, came up the harbor about 7 o'clock Saturday evening. It was impossible to see anything after Partridge Island was passed. She touched on the foul ground and Capt. Dickson and his crew defit her at once. They let go both anchors before they left her and put out all the obain there was As a tug could not be secured to help ther out, the captain and crew re-She was afloat, and they let her drift down to the island. She was making Hittle water and was soon pumped

WEDDED AT SHERLOCK.

A happy home wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Carson of Sherlock Kings Co., on Wednesday, Nov. 4, at three o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Lizzie, was united in wedlock to Willard Carson of the same place. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Donald Frazer of Hampton Presbyterian church. The bride was attired in a handsome dress of blue silk with gold bead trimmings, and looked lovely. She was attended by her sister, Miss Martha Carson, who wore a dress of blue shade trimmed with corded silk. The groom was supported by his cousin, Wilford Carson The bride received many handsome The bride received many handsome and costly as well as useful presents. After the wedding ceremony and the customary congratulations all sat down to a delicious tea. The house was beautifully trimmed with evergreens and artificial flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Carson have the best wishes of Mrs. Carson have the best wishes of their many friends for a happy future

On Wednesday evening of last week branch 275 of the C. M. B. was organized at Georgetown, P. E. I., by Bev. A. E. Burke, grand deputy, The officers are as follows: spiritual adviser, Rev. Father Phelan; hancellor, Rev. J. C. McMillan; president, Joseph R. McDonald; vice president, Hugh J. McPhee; 2nd vice president, Patrick Kelly; recording secretary, Temple W. F. McDonald; asst. recording secretary, T. E. Morrissey; financial secretary, John H. Byrne; treasurer, Rev. S. T. Phelan; marshal, Allan J. McDonald; guard, J. J. E. Doyle; branch physician, A. A. Allen; trustees, J. H. Byrne, Dr. Allen, J. R. McDonald, Frank S. McDonald and T. E. Morrissey.-Charlottetown Herald.