EXTRACT FROM A PLAY.

Claudia Belmont's Description of the Palace of the Lake of Como.

"Nay, dearest, nay; if thou wouldst have me paint the home to which, could I but fulfill its prayers, this hand would lead thee, listen: A deep vale shut out by Alpine hills from the rude world; near a clear lake, margined by fruit of gold and whispering myrtles; glowing sunset skies and cloudless, save with rare and rosy shadows, as I would have my fate. A palace lifting to eternal summer its marble walls, from out a glossy bower of cool foliage, musical with birds whose songs would syllable thy name. At noon we'd sit beneath the arching vines and wonder why earth could be unhappy while the heavens still left us youth and love. We'd have no friends that were not lovers; no ambition save to excel them all in love; we'd read no books that were not tales of love; that we might smile to think how poorly the eloquence of words translates the poetry of hearts like ours. And when night came, amidst the breathless heavens, we'd guess what star should be our home when love becomes immortal; while the perfumed light stole through the mists of alabaster lamps, and every air was heavy with the sighs of orange groves, and music from sweet lutes and murmurs of low fountains that gush forth in the midst of roses. Dost thou like the picture?"

A MINISTERIAL VISIT.

When Frederick Temple, now Archbishop of Canterbury, was Bishop of London, he was one day examining a class of theological students on the subject of parish calls. As an object lesson he said that he would go into the next room and receive one of their number as visiting minister. As the students drew lots for the ordeal, the choice fell upon a young Irishman, who entered the chamber ahead of the class to find Dr. Temple prone upon the sofa, and, like Hecate, his face to the wall. But the student got his Irish up, approached the recumbent, laid his hand upon his shoulder, and said: "Ah, Frederick, Frederick, the drink again!"

THAT SAIL-BOAT RACE.

An Eastport letter to the Bangor Commercial says:—"The much talked of sail-boat race between the Canadian and American boats will take place in Passamaquoddy Bay next Saturday, when the fastest boats in this vicinity will compete for the four prizes offered by our Dominion cousins at the neighboring island of Campobello. The race will be the annual international event, the leading prize to be the handsomely engraved cup offered by G. W. Ganong, M. P., of St. Stephen, who will probably be present to view the race."

ORANGES WILL BE CHEAP.

(Bangor Commercial.) While apples are scarce and high the present fall and are likely to be all winter, it is gratifying to know that there is to be a famously large crop of oranges in Florida, California, Porto Rico and Arizona, thus cheap oranges will in a measure make good the loss of apples.

MONTREAL.

The Whale Captured—Dismissed for Political Reasons.

MONTREAL, Nov. 6.—Le Journal announces that Avila Bourboulle, liberal member of the Quebec house of assembly for Goulesburg, has been dismissed from the position of fire commissioner for working against the ministerial candidate in one of the recent by-elections, and has been replaced by Ernest Desrosiers, Advocate.

The whale which has attracted so much attention in the river for several days, got stranded in shallow water on the lower shore and, residents of that town easily captured it early this morning. It measures 35 feet in length.

FRANCE AND TURKEY.

PARIS, Nov. 6.—Telegrams from Toulon report the utmost activity in the preparations for any eventuality. The ships are taking on ammunition and supplies, including live stock and everything necessary to revictual Admiral Caillaud's squadron. The battleship Charles Martel, third class cruiser Galilee and the three large transports are ready to sail. It is asserted that one of Admiral Caillaud's ships has a submarine on board.

The Echo De Paris asserts that M. Delcasse has received a despatch from M. Bapet, councillor of the French embassy in Constantinople, saying that Admiral Caillaud informs him that he has seized the customs of the Island of Mytilene.

CANADIAN MANUFACTURERS.

MONTREAL, Nov. 6.—At yesterday afternoon's session of the Manufacturers' Association reports were received from different committees on the year's work. An open meeting was held in the evening, when President Ellis delivered his annual address. The most striking paragraphs in it were devoted to British preference and reciprocity. The former Mr. Ellis was not wholly disposed to discourage it if it gained any advantage for Canadian farmers, but he pointed out that Canada's first duty was to Canada.

The report of Wm. Whyte of the C. P. R. of his recent trip to Russia was read by Secretary Russell in Mr. Whyte's absence. It was devoted to a description of the country. James Cummings contributed a paper on South African trade, and C. J. Alexander one on Canadian manufacturers from a British point of view.

THE KING'S BIRTHDAY.

TORONTO, Nov. 6.—The Ontario cabinet has decided to proclaim Saturday, Nov. 6, the birthday of King Edward, a public holiday.

KINGSTON, Nov. 6.—Monday next will be observed here as the king's birthday.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—This city will observe the king's birthday on Monday next instead of Saturday.

A MUNIFICENT AERONAUT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—A despatch from Paris to the London Times transmitted to the New York Herald says that Santos-Dumont will divide the Deutsche prize of 100,000 francs, awarded to him on Monday by the committee of the Aero club, as follows: Fifty thousand francs for the poor of Paris; thirty thousand for M. Santos-Dumont's assistant, Emile Aimé, and the remainder to the aeronauts' other co-laborers.

CANADA AND JAMAICA.

KINGSTON, Jan. 6.—The law levying a tax of 25c. on commercial travellers coming into Jamaica is to be repealed. The approaching change has been brought about by the representations of Canada.

THE WEATHER.

TORONTO, Nov. 6.—Moderate winds, mostly fair weather; not much change in temperature.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Forecast—Eastern states and northern New York—Fair tonight and Thursday; light to fresh northerly winds.

LI IS DYING.

PEKIN, Nov. 6, 12.40 p. m.—It is announced that Li Hung Chang is dying.

GEORGE ADE.

George Ade, whose "Fables in Slang" brought him into prominence as a humorist, is from India. In talking with a lady recently, she asked him if he had ever noticed how many bright people came from that state. "Indeed I have, madam," he said, "and I have noticed too, that the brighter they are the sooner they come."—New York Times.

NEWTON WAS MEAN.

(Ohio State Journal.) "I think it is just too mean that Sir Isaac Newton discovered the law of gravitation," said Mrs. Numskull, indignantly. "Why, pray, my dear?" queried her husband. "Well," she replied, convincingly, "it hadn't been for him we might all be able to travel in airships."

POMOLOG.

"You are the apple of my eye," declared the Fortune Hunter to the Wise Heiress. "I think," mused the Wise Heiress, "that I will keep my eye peeled, nevertheless." Naturally this evidence of astuteness on her part thrilled him to the core.—Baltimore American.

NEW YORK.

Tammany's Defeat Was Overwhelming in City and County.

Has Only One of the Sixteen Members on the Board of Greater New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Full returns in New York city of the vote for mayor show the election of Seth Low, the fusion candidate, by a majority of 23,554. Mr. Low receiving 234,992 votes and Edward M. Shepard, democratic candidate, 255,138. Mr. Shepard carried only one borough, and in that one, Queens, his majority is only 762.

In the county of New York the last remaining hope of the democrats is swept away by figures indicating the defeat of John T. Oakley for sheriff by William F. O'Brien. O'Brien's majority, however, probably is not more than 3,000 or 4,000.

The majorities of the fusionist candidates for justice of the supreme court, and of William Traversa Jerome, the fusionist nominee for district attorney, are larger than reported last night. Incomplete figures indicate that Jerome has carried his district, New York county, by about fifteen thousand. So badly was Mayor Vanwick scratched that returns indicating his vote for justice of the supreme court are late, and it is difficult to estimate the final figures, but it is believed that he will run nearly thirty thousand behind his ticket. All of the fusionist candidates for justice of the supreme court in New York county are elected, and all of the democratic candidates are beaten. The same of Justice O'Brien, however, appears on both tickets as a candidate for justice of the supreme court.

Appearance this morning indicates that the democrats have just one of the 16 members of the board of estimates and apportionment of Greater New York, the board which under the new charter succeeds to many of the powers formerly vested in the mayor. The democrat who is certain of a position on the board of estimate and apportionment is Borough President Cassidy of Queens.

In addition to the election of an entire new assembly, two state senators were voted for at the recent election. The senators were elected to fill vacancies caused by death in the thirty-fourth and forty-third senatorial districts.

In the thirty-fourth district William D. Barnes, republican, was elected, while in the forty-third district, Morton E. Lewis, one of the republican leaders in the recent assembly, won. The election of Messrs. Barnes and Lewis leaves the senate unchanged. There will be 35 republicans and 15 democrats in the senate of 1902, which is the same number each party had in the senate of 1901.

In the municipal elections throughout the state the republicans effected some gains in the large cities. Buffalo elected Erastus C. Knight, republican, by 5,000 majority. Syracuse was captured by the republicans. Albany and Troy were retained by the republicans. Both parties are claiming Rochester.

OTHER ELECTIONS. Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Ohio, Iowa and Virginia elected governors yesterday, and these and Kentucky, Maryland and New York elected legislatures. All but the state of Virginia went republican, as was expected. In Nebraska, where a supreme court judge was elected, William J. Bryan threw himself into the fight for the democratic candidate, but the republicans carried the state.

LONDON COMMENT.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The most vindictive opponents of Tammany hall in the thick of the campaign could not have painted that organization in blacker colors than do the editorial writers in the afternoon papers here today in congratulating New York City on the result of the election.

"The success of Seth Low is an event on which every friend of America and every lover of virtue and honesty anywhere has good reason to cause paeans of congratulation," says the St. James Gazette, adding: "It is the greatest blow yet struck at the most nefarious system of organized, triumphant villainy ever forced on a civilized community by a gang of corrupt blackmailers."

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "The gods that preside over honest government deserve a libation from every good citizen throughout the world." The Westminster Gazette remarks: "The New Yorker seems to have at last grasped the fact that he has a citizen's responsibility for the good government of his city."

PHILANTHROPIC.

Primus—Dawson doesn't seem to be very kind to the poor. Why is he called a philanthropist? Secundus—Oh, he adopts the children of wealthy society people.—Hartford Life.

THEY DON'T GO.

"The lies a man invents to tell his wife on arriving home late at night remind me very much of the inventions in the direction of perpetual motion," remarked the Observer of Events and Things. "None of 'em seem to go."—York's Statesman.

CANADIAN BRIEFS.

Heavy Snowstorm in Manitoba—Interesting News From Ontario.

TORONTO, Nov. 6.—J. J. Crotte, a large retail dry goods merchant, has suspended payment. It is estimated the liabilities exceed $20,000. Toronto and Montreal houses are chiefly interested.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., Nov. 6.—W. E. Leonard, manager of the Southwestern Loan company, and a prominent citizen, died suddenly yesterday, aged 53 years.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 6.—A Portage La Prairie despatch says the trouble between the railway companies and the farmers over the lack of cars for wheat shipments promises to assume a serious aspect unless the situation is remedied very shortly.

HAMILTON, Nov. 6.—Daniel McLennan, aged 77, is dead of injuries received by being struck by a train.

TORONTO, Nov. 6.—Customs Collector Small yesterday received four cents in stamps "conscience money." This is the smallest sum ever received in the Toronto customs office.

KINGSTON, Nov. 6.—Hon. William Harty has declined to stand again for election for the Ontario legislature. He gives as a reason that his business affairs and health will not permit him. Ex-Mayor R. F. Elliott may get the nomination.

TORONTO, Nov. 6.—The senate of Victoria university has adopted plans for the new women's residence, which is to cost fifty thousand dollars. Work will be begun at once, and it is expected the building will be completed by October 1st, 1902.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 6.—A very heavy fall of snow throughout Manitoba and North Dakota yesterday completely blocked stock thrashing.

CRIMES AND CRIMINALS.

Will Be Hanged for Murder—Noted Swindler Nabbed—Ismen Killed.

BASIN CITY, Iowa, Nov. 6.—John Fenton, alias A. A. Winters, who several weeks ago shot and killed Mrs. A. T. Hoover on the street at Thermopolis, was yesterday found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged.

BARCELONA, Nov. 6.—At the request of the German consul general here, the police have taken into custody a man named Estermeyer, who, the consul general says, is a notorious swindler, and has long been wanted for numerous crimes in Germany. The prisoner claims to be a citizen of the United States. He was manager of the Securities Guarantee bank.

BRAINARD, Minn., Nov. 6.—The office of Agent W. D. McKee of the Northern Pacific railway was mysteriously robbed yesterday of the time checks, vouchers and pay checks worth several thousand dollars. An officer last night arrested a man by the name of D. L. Richardson, a brakeman who had recently been discharged from the Northern Pacific sanitarium in this city.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Ernest Merke, an iceman, whose home was on Seneca street near police station No. 2, was found lying in a pool of his blood in an alley near Seneca street, early this morning, and died before the ambulance arrived. Murphy, a saloon keeper, and a dozen other men who were about the place were under arrest as witnesses. Merke apparently had been kicked and beaten to death. There were no knife wounds visible.

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 6.—The prospect for a treaty of arbitration and court of arbitration which will be submitted to the Pan-American conference today morning, and died before the treaty was signed by the Mexican delegation, is largely framed on lines raised by the Hague peace conference. However, it proposes an increased number of obligatory subjects for arbitration, and has in view coercion or punishment of nations which, after signing a treaty, fail to live up to it. Among the measures proposed are:

The aggrieved nation and any other nation sympathizing with it may terminate their treaties with the offending power before the proper date for their expiration. Members of the offending power on the court of arbitration may be erased therefrom, and if the majority of the nations signing the treaty approve, a note of censure may be addressed to the said power. In extreme cases the disapproving powers may suspend diplomatic relations with the recalcitrant government.

The reception of Mme. Diaz at Chapultepec castle last night was the most brilliant yet of the social functions in honor of the visitors.

GEN. BULLER AGAIN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Gen. Buller, says the London correspondent of the Tribune, considers himself the victim of a South African conspiracy, and threatens to unmask his assailants. Unlike Gen. Roberts, who rallied the political as well as the military forces in South Africa, and did not make any enemy except when compelled to do so, Gen. Buller tackled his responsibility in dealing with men and excited much sympathy. At Westminster Buller's friends assert that he will vindicate his reputation by exposing the machinations of the conspirators who have been treacherous to him, and by telling the secret story of the Jamestown raid and other operations.

NINE WOMEN PERISHED.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 6.—A message to the News from Bessemer, Mich., says a variety theatre, Hurley, Wis., was burned last night and nine women perished. Several more are missing.
