N. B. LUMBER INTERESTS.

(Montreel Star, 11th.) A. Edgar Hanson, deputy land sur-veyor of Fredericton, was at the Windsor last evening and stated in the ourse of an interview that 150,000,000 feet of lumber will be cut this season on the St. John River. This is an average figure, one year the figures having mounted up to 190,000,000 feet cut in one year on the St. John River and its tributaries. As much as 50,000,000 feet may have to stay in the upper St. John River until next season unless feet may have to stay in the upper St. John River until next season, unless there is a rise in the waters of the river. New Brunswick timber lands have increased in value until they are now worth $150 per Square mile. Mr. Hanson is against the pulp industry and says that the owner of timber will have to keenly watch that the government regulations are strictly achieved to, as the future of the lumber industry in the province depends on how the forests at the present time are looked after. The stumpage receipts at present amount to about $150,000 per year. Mr. Hanson is on his way to Ottawa and may, before his return visit the Pacific ceast.

OTTAWA, June 13.- The morning sederunt of the general assembly open-ed with the Rev. Dr. Warden presided with the Rev. Dr. Warden presiding. The presbytery of Winnipeg requested that Rev. J. C. Madill be reinstated as a minister. Mr. Madill was for some time a member of the church and left it to join the Congregational church of Sarnia. While a minister of the Congregational church he telred the R. R. husiastic worker. Two years ago he went to Manitoba and was given mis-sion, work to do by the Winnings assion work to do by the Winnipeg as-sembly. How well that work was done was shown by a report from the Win-nipeg assembly, which stated that from a weak field on which Mr. Madill had entered it had grown under his charge in two years to a congregation three times its number. Two churches were built, and the manse rebuilt. Mr. Madill's application is being objected to by a number of. Presbyterians of which the Ottawa presbytery is one which the Ottawa presbytery is one. SIR BINDON BLOOM

The General Who is Now Winning Laurels for Himself in South Africa.

The name of Sir Bindon Blood is comparatively new in connection with the Boer war, and the public, who have watched his progress with interest this last month or two, may wonder who he is and where he came from. He is an officer of marked distinction in other fields, but he did not land in South Africa until Februs

21, 1901. People behind the scenes point to Blood as the probable successor to Lord Kitchener when the latter has done the rough work and practically completed the campaign. It is but a poor joke to say that new blood is badly wanted out there, but it is nevertheless the fact. Men of all ranks from generals to privates have grown yery stale during the wearly protract-ed operations, and not a little of the success that has wafted upon Sir Bindon is that he comes fresh upon

He is, nevertheless, an officer of high reputation, won by his own undoubted merits during forty odd years of varied service. Like Kitchener, he belongs to the corps of Royal Engineers, and like him he has been, employed in active personal command of troops as well as in the purely scientific duties of fortifications and building.

HIS FIRST FIGHTING. mouth to receive Rev Duncan Stuart from Inverness preplytery, and to receive Rev. A. E. Braine from St. John. The presbytery of St. John petitioned that Rev. Dr. Macrae be reinstated a minister. Rev. Dr. Macrae was appointed to Morrin college, Quebec, and was on that account compelled to withdraw from the ministry. The request was unanimously granted.

At the afternoon sitting the report of colleges were taken up. For the position of professor of mathematics at Hallfax, Dr. D. A. Murray was recommended.

Two years later he got what all dent command, and was hurriedly summoned to lead the Malakand field force. He accepted the offer with alacrity, "serenely confident" of success, as he telegraphed back, "knowing the ground so well."

mixture of resolute tenacity and energetic initiative. He held his own when hard pressed; when the opening came he isynched out the strong, far-reaching arm of vengeance, and sharply chastised the offending tribesmen. He defended Landakai, he relieved Chakdara, and he made his name a terror in the Mohmand country. Latterly he commanded a division in the Tirah expeditionary droce.

In February he was serving as a divisional commander in India at Meerut, when he was borrowed for South Africa, as so many stalwarts have been borrowed from India, but, as has been said, he may not return there. His friends, and they are legion, believe that he would wind up affairs there with firmness and judgment.

Sir Bindon Blood is no longer young, being in his sixtieth year; but in spite of his white har he is alert and active of frame, and with an unimpaired, vigorous understanding. He comes of an old Irish stock, and is a famous sportsman. His iron nerves and strong muscless have made bitms.
