MALIFAX NOTES

J. W. ALLEN — Dartmouth N. 8.

The carniv.1 which took 1 lace on Monday even ing was very successful aithough there were not as many spectators as usual; the rink presented a charming appearance, the unside railing was covered with flags while rows of colored lanterns illuminated the; scene instead of the usual gas jets. After the carnival a number went to Artillery Park where an elaborate supper was servee.

Among the ladies, one of the nicest costumes was worn by Miss Oliver, who r presented winter. It was well made entirely of white; the short cloak was edged with fur and covered with diamond dust while white birds in the hair made a most effective costume.

Miss Forbes, as Poudre, wore a very preity cos-tume of pure white, with tiny powder puffs, which told the name so plainly, one did not need to a: k

Miss Connie Story, as Shamrock, looked well, her costume bring one of the most chective on the ice.

Miss Cunner, as Folly, locked very well. Mrs. Taylor, wite of Caprian Taylor of the Berkshire regiment looked remarkably well as a Spanish lady; the skirt consisting of a very pretty shade of yellow with black lace, while the black lace mantilla thrown over the head, with a rose at the si'c-Spanish fashion—looked very effective.

Miss Unlacke, as Good Luck, in red, covered with horse-shoes, also locked very well. Mrs. Fred Jones made a very graceful Trilby.

Miss Lawson made a charming Lady Mephisto.
Miss Stairs, who represented June roses, wore a very pretty dress covered with roses, with hat covered with roses to match.

Miss Cory as Fearlet Geraxium, looked very well, as did also Miss Lucy Cady, as Nancy Lee.

Mss Hattle Albro looked very well in military costume.

Feb. 17.—The ball given by the I. O. O. F. lodge in the masonic hal Friday evening was a decided success in every way. The hall was prettily corrected with figs and the music which was furnished by the Moneton orchestra was excellent. The chaperones and committee are to be congratulated on the manner in which the aflair was conducted and I think overyone thoroughly epipyed themselves. Some very pretty dresses were worn by the ladies, and to Miss Jean Thomson who was attiled in yellow crepon with black velvet and jet trimmings, is due the honor of being belle. Miss Bessle Bell, worr apple greensilk and cream I. co in.hu, which was both pretty and becoming; Miss Annie Harley, buttercup ewiss muslin; Miss Edith Troy, white swiss muslin pale blue trimmings; Mrs. Lee Street, dove colored silk, trimmings of black lace; Mrs. Armstrong, black is ki, diamond black lace; Mrs. Armstrong, black is ki, diamond ornaments; Miss Enms White, black surah silk skirt. ceries bodies, trimmings of black; Mrs. Manning, lemon crepon; Mrs. James Mitchell, looked pretty in a pale blue silk gown, pearl trimmings; Miss Polly Quigley, yellow swiss muslin, cardinal velvet trimmings; Miss Barbarie, Dalhousie, black silk pith rithbons; Miss Sargent, white but I mont say that all looked well.

Feb. 18.—To the fact that many degrees below zero does not freeze up the energy of Honlton peo 11-, the magnified success of the third annual bal given by company "In" 2nd Infantry Nationa Guard will abundantly ustify. This function took place February thirteenth and in print of attend ance, variety and beauty of dress and decorations and general brilliant effect, proved even a greater success, than the two preceeding very de ightfu assemblies given by Co "L." The decorations of the open house were tasterial and appropriate, ad ditional lights of 32 candle power having been add ed, the numerous pretty tolicts were seen to good advantage. Fullens orchestra (twelve pieces) of Bangor furtised the music, and gave a fine concert programme before dancing commanced. Tals organization is considered the finest in the State and deserves its reputation. Among the various mater—1.1 used in decorating, a display of the flags of all nations was made, those of the United States and Great Britain at the eastern end of the h.il, mirrors placed at it such angles as to refact nearly all parts of the room. Fictures of Gettysburg and Astictain hung on the south w.il, opposite which were crossed muskets and packed napsacks. In the rea of the hall was a picket scene life size, painted on a large cauvas. The porquet and galleries were filed with spectator. At nine clook the grand march was announced, led by Col. Philbrook of Augusta and Mrs. Hune, wife of Capt. F. M. Hune of Co.
