French Tennis Star To Defend Title

Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen Will Play in the Wimbledon Tournament for World's Honors.

Paris, June 15.—Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, French tennis star, after consulting a heart specialist, has decided to overrule her father's edict and announce that she will defend her world's singles title in the Wimbledon tournament. She will also play through the doubles and mixed doubles. "It is my most earnest desire to meet Mrs. Mallory again," were the first words uttered by Mlle. Lenglen upon her arrival from Dieppe, where she underwent an examination by Professor Caron. "The doctor has advised me to be careful, but my decision is irrevocable and it all depends upon Mrs. Mallory whether she meets me or not. All she has to do is to reach the finals which, as I said before, I fear she will not. I would rather meet her than Miss Ryan, Miss MacCracken, Mrs. Beasly or Mrs. Peacock."

Royals May Join The City League

Champions of the South End Spoken of As Taking Place of Suspended Wolves.

Rumor has it that the Royals, champions of last year's South End League, and who, judging from their performance this year, are again headed pointward, have been approached with a view to having them come into the Senior Amateur City League, to take the place of the suspended Wolves. It was stated last evening by one in the know, that negotiations had been about completed for the introduction of the successors to the Wolves to the fans of the City League. The colored players have been put up a fine brand of ball and drawing big crowds to the South End games, where they are popular favorites. That league as at present constituted consists of five teams—the Royals, Imperial Oil Indians, St. David's and Sugar Refinery. The Royals have played in two of the three games far, and have featured shut-outs in both, trimming the Sugar Refinery 11 to 0, although the score was set back to even innings, which reduced the runs of the Royals to 8, and the St. David's, who lost by a score of 19 to 0. Although the four other teams have not had as much practice as the Royals, the consensus of opinion seems to put the South End champions in a class by themselves, while classing the other four teams as fairly well matched. It would thus seem that the dropping out of the popular colored nine would perhaps have a strengthening effect in the South End League, while their entry to the somewhat more advanced class of ball expected from the City League, would greatly strengthen the interest of the crowd in that league. In other words, every one would gain and nobody lose in the transaction.

There is but little doubt that the Royals' brand of ball would be quite equal to that of the other two teams, and that they would give them both a "royal" battle for the championship of the league. The St. George's at present are imbued with the very laudable ambition of putting up an even stronger fight, while their pitcher, the Commercial, and with that end in view have signed on a new pitcher, who is credited with having a nice assortment of smoky ones up his bombing arm, which would have a tendency to have a demoralizing effect on some of the hickory artists on the Commercial line.

In addition to the accomplished mound artist, the St. George's have scooped up a number of other good men, whom they purpose trying out in other positions on the team, with a view to injecting a little more speed and pep into every department, and giving the Commercial a hard fight for the remainder of the season. The Commercial and St. George's will play tonight on the East End grounds.

South End Champs Defeat St. David's

Royals Had It All Their Own Way—Scored 19 Runs for a Shut Out.

The St. David's struck hard luck in their opening game of the season which they played with the Royals in the South End League last night, the colored champions notching up nine ten runs, and shutting out St. David's. The colored pennant winners played a snappy game and clouted the ball hard, while St. David's were rather loose in their fielding and failed to solve Diggs' delivery. The holding of Price, and the pitching and batting of Diggs proved the Royals long suit. Strain played a good game at the second sack for St. David's, and Sterling made two hard catches in the center garden. The game was largely attended.

Factory Girls IN CAMPUS LIFE

One Thousand from New York Guests of Vassar College.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 15.—One thousand girls from factories and offices in six states today began a week of campus life as guests of Vassar, the oldest women's college. Lantern fetes by the lake, basket ball games, hoop rolling, and a "Pageant of Woman's Opportunity" will give collegiate color to this first gathering of representative industrial and academic workers. The occasion for this meeting of working girls and students is the annual convention of the National League of Girls' Clubs, a federation of societies whose members number 100,000. Henry Noble MacCracken, president of Vassar, in his address of welcome said: "The democracy of the curriculum is the unique achievement of the American college. We recognize no royal road to learning. It remains for us to break with one more barrier of academic tradition—the barrier that separates those reared in the atmosphere of college from those in the great industrial heart of America. By means of just such organizations as the National League of Girls' Clubs it will be possible to suggest that college life in America is not exclusively in these days a taste of the best that is in college spirit, and we bid you welcome to your own feast. It was an ancient custom that every time brought his food with him to the castle of the host; so you bring to our college campus the joyous spirit of living well together that you have achieved in your club organizations. "That is all there is in college spirit, and we know that you have learned its lesson so that it will be easy for you to extend the same spirit to the groups from all these cities here today. Our students and officers who will live with you here this week, I know, learn much from you. Out of such contacts we shall build better colleges!" Girls from Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and New York are attending the convention.

Not Much Left, Either. "Why do you call him scatter-brained?" "Because he gives every one a piece of his mind."—Wayside Tales. Impossible. Polly—Why do they have knots on the ocean instead of miles? Paul—Because they couldn't have the ocean tide without knots.

SHRINERS IN ALL THEIR REGALIA PARADE FOR SAN FRANCISCANS

Nearly 11,000 in Line—First Business Session of 48th Imperial Council Conclude Held Soon Afterward.

San Francisco, Cal., June 15.—Members of the Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, together with their friends to the number of approximately 11,000, individually and collectively, will have the "keys" to the city all this week. Market Street from the Ferry Building out to the civic center in which vicinity is located the Scottish Rite Auditorium, is crowded with visitors, some in the garb of the Arab Patrol—various combinations of red, white and blue—others bedecked with var-colored ribbons and badges, decorating offices held or temples represented. All are adorned with the symbolic red fez, with black tassel. Not since the days of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition of 1915 has San Francisco assumed such gala attire or been so gay, so colorful or so crowded. Almost the entire city has constituted itself a "committee of the whole" to tender a reception to the delegates attending the forty-eighth annual session of the Imperial Council—Shrinedom's outstanding yearly event—in session today, tomorrow and Thursday.

Many Come on Special Trains. This morning witnessed the debarcation from their caravans of the last of the delegates, who had traveled not only east but likewise north, south and west, for their conclave beside the Golden Gate. The number of special trains bringing Shriners to San Francisco is reported to have been 34, of which number 17 arrived this morning. In addition to those on the special trains, many delegations came by regular rail service; still others journeyed across the coast to be present at the conclave; for it is known that every state in the Union, the Panama Canal Zone, Hawaii, Canada and Mexico all are represented in the Imperial Council. The premier event was staged this morning when 10,500 of the visiting delegates, all in full regalia and representing 200 uniformed organizations, paraded through the streets of the city. This parade is said by officials of the organization to have been the largest of its kind ever undertaken at any conclave. None but officers, paroliers, drum corps, band, bugle corps and chanters were allowed in the line of march. Nobles not in uniform had to content themselves with mingling with other spectators in the flag-waving exhibition along the line of march. Incidentally, although this line was nearly four miles long and was more than three hours in passing, the streets were packed all that distance. San Francisco had declared an unofficial holiday to witness the turnout.

High Dignitaries in Line. George Filmer, general chairman of the 1922 Shrine Committee, was grand marshal of the parade and together with his many aides, was one of the busiest Shriners in San Francisco—and it looks as though most of the Shriners in the world are here. A string of 190 automobiles carried the present imperial potentate, Ernest A. Cutts of Aloha Temple, Savannah, Ga.; James S. (Sunay Jim) McCandless, of Aloha Temple, Honolulu, Hawaii, who will succeed Mr. Cutts to that, the highest honor in all Shrinedom; and the 750 dignitaries and officials of the Shrine, drawn from almost as many of the numerous points in which Shrine temples may be found. Immediately after the parade, the Imperial Council met for the initial business session of the conclave, in Scottish Rite auditorium. The first official act of the Imperial Council, however, was performed Monday when the imperial potentate laid the corner stone of the Shrine Hospital for Children at Nineteenth Avenue and Lawton Street. In this ceremony, Mr. Cutts used a silver trowel, presented by Islam Temple of San Francisco, and John B. Gibery, representing the board of trustees of the hospital presided. William D. Stephens, Governor of California, on behalf of the State, welcomed the visiting nobles.

Entertainment Arranged. For those Shriners and other visitors whose duties do not compel attendance at the several sessions of the conclave, a series of entertainments has been planned by the committee. In some of these, the Shriners will provide their own diversion and incidentally, entertainment for San Franciscans, while in others, entertainment will be provided for the Shriners. At Crissy Field, there will be special drills by policemen, firemen and Arab patrols, and an airplane circus promises to be a most spectacular affair. Naval tugs have been provided for the use of the nobles in making tours around San Francisco Bay; across to Berkeley, Oakland, Alameda, to Goat Island and to numerous other points of interest in and on the bay. Thirty band concerts will be given in various sections of the city—all by the hands of the task of an imperial potentate is a most strenuous one as is evidenced by the record of Mr. Cutts, retiring potentate. During his tenure of office—one year—he has traveled approximately 60,000 miles and addressed more than 250,000 nobles. He has participated in the laying of many corner stones for new mosques and other buildings, to house the activities of the Shrine. In some instances, so large has been the membership of a particular temple, that he has been compelled to deliver his address to a part of the members.

EGYPT INTERESTED IN LONDON STORIES OF PROTECTORATE

Cairo, Egypt, May 23.—(By Mail)—He who holds the Sudan controls Egypt; hence the Sudan is vitally interested in the reports from London that Great Britain is considering the establishment of a protectorate in this territory. "Egypt without the Sudan is a body without a soul," says one newspaper, and explains that control of the Sudan is absolutely necessary to the economic development and life of Egypt. Without the Sudan Egypt's independence recently granted by Great Britain, would be a farce. The London rumors carry the detail that Great Britain contemplates the declaration of a Sultanate separate from Egypt under one of the sons of the Mahdi as its ruler, the whole under British protection with a system of government similar to a British dominion. The Egyptian people will resist their newspapers declare, even to the extent of force. They are voicing their determination to repudiate Egypt and the Sudan as one and inseparable. With Great Britain in the Sudan, the products of the country will be exported by way of Berber and Sunkin, and with her hands on the sources of the Nile Great Britain could render the lower reaches of the river, so vital to Egypt, fertile or infertile at will. The microbes seem to molest the old man who is unaware of its existence.
